

Cherry Hill Public Library Meeting Room Policy

The primary purpose of the Cherry Hill Public Library's meeting rooms is to support Library programs and activities. Library-sponsored programs and the programs of the Library's affiliated organizations will always be given first priority in the reservation of meeting room space.

The Library cannot and does not endorse or affirm the philosophy, political, religious or other ideology of any group or organization utilizing a room. As such, the Library excludes the use of its facilities for political rallies, religious services, or other activities as directed by the Director and/or the Library Board of Trustees.

Responsibility:

The individual or organization to whom the use of premises and/or facilities is granted shall assume full liability for the damage to any property. The user also shall assume full liability for the preservation of order at all times on the premises and for the observance and enforcement of all regulations, herein stated or as posted on any of the premises.

The signer of this application shall have or represent full authority or be a regularly appointed executive officer for the organization applying for use of facilities and shall agree to all terms herein.

It also shall be understood that these provisions shall not be construed as imposing any liability upon the Cherry Hill Public Library (CHPL) or Cherry Hill Township for any injury to persons sustained in connection with the use of library property as granted under this application.

Regulations:

1. All requests for the use of Library facilities must be made through the offices the Cherry Hill Public Library with the Director of Special Events.
2. Facility use is granted solely by the authorized representative of the CHPL. The Library reserves the right to change the regulations, the rental charges or other fees at any time and to revoke permission for use.
3. CHPL reserves the right to refuse the use of facilities when it determines that the content of a meeting or the conduct of the use would jeopardize the welfare of the community.
4. Any Library activity shall have precedence in the use of all facilities. The facilities may be used only if usage does not interfere with Library programs and activities.

5. The applicant shall use only those facilities listed on the applications as approved for the date or dates and at the time(s) designated. All meeting rooms must be booked for a minimum of two hours. All facilities, service or equipment used must be listed on the application. Applicant set-up and clean-up time will be part of time billed. Any changes must be approved by the Director of Special Events at least 10 days prior to the scheduled start of the event.
6. Failure to give cancellation notice at least 10 days prior to a scheduled event will result in cancellation fees. If applicant fails to show-up for a scheduled meeting and does not give cancellation notice, the full amount will be charged.
7. The following specific regulations and restrictions are to be adhered to:
 - a. The use or presence of alcoholic beverages is prohibited.
 - b. The smoking of tobacco products is prohibited at all times.
 - c. No alterations to any part of any facility shall be permitted except as performed by CHPL personnel.
 - d. Use of decorations, scenery, flags, sound effects, electrical and/or mechanical equipment in any facility shall be approved by CHPL at least two weeks prior to the scheduled start of the event.
 - e. Sponsoring organizations shall be required to pay the cost of supplementary security personnel as well as police assistance for traffic control when it is deemed necessary by the CHPL.
8. An authorized representative of the applicant shall:
 - a. Be responsible for care in the use of the property. If damage to Library property occurs, the applicant is responsible for paying for all repairs, supplies and labor associated with the repairs.
 - b. Be in attendance at all times during the use of facilities.
 - c. Supply all personnel and equipment necessary except those specifically listed on the application.
 - d. See that premises are vacated promptly and at the time specified on the application. If the applicant goes past the time specified on the application, additional fees will be charged.
 - e. Supply a representative to staff the Library's front entrance if scheduled event is before or after normal Library operating hours.
 - f. Be responsible for leaving the facility in the same condition as prior to its use.
 - g. See that groups using fields clean up and dispose of all trash deposited by the participants and/or spectators.
 - h. Be responsible for payment of any fees within 30 days of billing, for all rental, Library custodian or other fees in accordance with the schedule designated on the approved application.
9. Upon approval of the application, representatives for sponsoring groups are expected to meet with the Director of Special Events to review facilities to be used.

10. A representative is required by CHPL to be in attendance for the purpose of security, inspection and cleaning. Their services are at the direction of CHPL not the applicant. If additional services are required by the applicant before, during, or after use of the facility, the organization may be billed according to the Library's Custodial fee schedule.
11. The Library's Multicultural Room, Conference Room and Computer Lab are equipped to offer technical support for presentations, workshops, etc. Audiovisual equipment is available for use by outside groups for a fee. Groups may use their own equipment provided the Library network and/or audiovisual systems are not compromised. Library computer operations must be consulted before approval is granted for outside equipment to be used. The Library is not responsible for technical difficulties or interruptions in network service outside the Library's control.
12. Library meeting rooms may be used during non-Library hours if the Director of Special Events grants advance approval. All after hours users will be charged an additional per-hour custodial fee as detailed in the meeting room fee structure.
13. All payments made by check should be payable to the Cherry Hill Public Library. Cash, Visa and MasterCard are also accepted.
14. A certificate of insurance in the amount of $500,000.00 for liability, bodily injury and property damage must be provided naming the Cherry Hill Public Library and Cherry Hill Township as an "additional insured" or in the alternative at the Library Director's sole discretion compliance with this requirement may be waived so long as a fully executed Indemnification/Hold Harmless Agreement is provided. Said Agreement will be provided by the Cherry Hill Public Library if the Library Director so determines it is appropriate and compliance is mandatory and is not negotiable.
15. All organizations shall comply with the Uniform Fire Code.
16. Groups may not use the Library's name, address or telephone as their official address or contact information.
17. Groups may not publicize their activities in such a way as to imply Library sponsorship. All publicity must state: "Cherry Hill Public Library does not endorse the policies, beliefs, or activities of the sponsoring group."
18. Food and beverages are permitted in the Multicultural Room and Conference Center. Aramark is the preferred caterer and clean-up fees apply for refreshments not provided by Aramark. No sternos, open flames or cooking is permitted on premises.
19. Use of the meeting room shall not conflict with normal Library operation or with Library-sponsored meetings, programs or activities. Groups will adhere to the Library Code of Conduct and keep noise levels consistent with the proper atmosphere of the Library at all times.

20. Failure to comply with the foregoing regulations may constitute cause for refusal of permission to use Library facilities at any time.

21. All questions, concerns or comments related to the use of facilities should be directed to: Valerie Carita, Cherry Hill Public Library, 1100 Kings Highway North, Cherry Hill, NJ 08034. Or call 856-903-1205 or e-mail vcarita@chplnj.org.

Denial of Meeting Room Privileges

No group will be permitted to use a meeting room if that use poses a potential disturbance to the normal operation of the Library (e.g. excessive noise, a safety hazard, or a significant security risk). The Library Director may also deny the use of meeting rooms to groups that violate meeting room policies.

Groups may be denied meeting room privileges if they have a past-due payment of greater than 30 days. Groups with a history of late payment may be asked to pay in full at the time of meeting room booking.

Disclaimers

Permission to use a meeting room does not imply Library endorsement of the goals, policies or activities of any group or organization.

The Library is not responsible for loss or damage of equipment, supplies, materials or any personal property owned by those sponsoring or attending meetings at the Library. In addition, the Cherry Hill Public Library Board of Trustees, the Township of Cherry Hill, its officers, agents and employees are not to be held liable for any and all claims of injuries, including death, damages or loss, which may arise in connection with a meeting held on Library property.
