“Nothing is a waste of time if you use the experience wisely.”

- Auguste Rodin
What do the students and faculty do during the Summer?

Ravi Yegya-Raman, 12
I spent the majority of my summer training for tennis and traveling across the country for tournaments. I visited some colleges, hung out with friends, and went to the beach too.

Alexis Wiseley, 12
Over the Summer, I took design courses at FIT in New York City in July. The rest of the summer, I loved to sleep late and spend my days on the beach.

Mark Wickware, 12
Over the Summer, I went to two-a-day practices for three weeks in August.

Mr. Gagliardi, English
This past summer, I started two writing projects: one that is a fictional novel and another that is an investigative study of sorts. I typically like to write in the summer because when school starts, I have a lot less time for it.

Mrs. Hager, Business
Summer is my favorite season because I enjoy the time I have with family and spend at the beach. This past summer I enjoyed time with family in North Dakota and on the beaches of Nantucket and North Carolina.

Mr. Locke, History
This summer, I supervised my two small children's conquest and destruction of my neighborhood. Fear, trepidation and Mr. Softee are a deadly combination.

Enjoying the Time Off!

The Students at East have a lot of School spirit. No matter what sport Football, Field Hockey, Basketball etc. the fans have shown up to support their team.

"I am a part of all that I have read." -- John Kieran

If man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away. -- Thoreau Vocabulary, grammar, paragraph and essay development, thesis control, writing conferences, literary study, research papers, HSPA & SAT Preparation... all this takes place in the English classroom. All this prepares us for life!

"The novel is the highest example of subtle interrelatedness that man has discovered."

-- D.H. Laurence
"Science is simply common sense at its best that is, rigidly accurate in observation, and merciless to fallacy in logic."

--Thomas Henry Huxley

Mrs. Brahms and Mr. Grubb are busy grading lab reports and assignments. Such assignments enable students to learn outside of the textbook (above).
"There is something fascinating about science. One gets such wholesale returns of conjecture out of such a trifling investment of fact."

-- Mark Twain

"Pure mathematics is, in its way, the poetry of logical ideas."
-- Albert Einstein

Shown to the right is Mr. Semus teaching his Calculus AP Class. Concord down anyone? Shown to the far right is Ms. Freedman, grading her student's assignments.
"History is the record of an encounter between character and circumstances."

--Donald Creighton

Who doesn't love the smell of history in the morning? Shown above are a group of students collaborating during their history class.
"Language is the light of the mind." -- John Stuart Mill

"Seniors les encantan sus profesores!" Yes, it's true. Seniors really do love their teachers. Sr. Gross, (above left), Spanish teacher known by students from all levels of Español, is shown grading assignments.

Rachel Taylor-Bowell  Annette Boucher  Frank Console  Luisa Foley  Kelly Germscheid  Jules Gross

Karl Moehlmann  Ileen Morris  Martha Perez  Krissee Phillips  Paula Saillard  Nora Smaldore

Oftentimes, students ask for extra help early in the morning. The picture (right) shows Ms. Smaldore, helping her student with a Latin assignment.
"Man takes only their needs into consideration -- never their abilities."

Who wants to sit inside a classroom and learn all day anyway? Whether its lifting weights in the weight room or getting active in the gym, East students love to work out. (Most of them anyway!!)

These teachers went to EAST!!
We have way too many tests...

Just because we go to East doesn't mean we don't like to take breaks.

Many students have many tests to study. Some have to use their lunch period to study for these tests in order to get good grades.

Make up work and tests take time out of a student's life. How can such events be avoided? Well, by studying ahead of time, one can avoid hours spent needlessly cramming the night before a test.

Group study is very common in preparation for a test. The more students there are in a group, the more studying that a group can get done. Well, most of the time, anyway.
Top 10 Excuses Among East Students:

1. No that's ridiculous, I'm already in college.
2. I couldn't log onto your eboard.
3. Homework? I didn't even know we had homework.
4. I arrived home from work too late.
5. My printer was jamming.
6. My computer caught on fire.
7. I ran out of room in my notebook.
8. No, I'm pretty sure you said it was due NEXT Monday.
9. My dog ate it.
10. You never told us.

Ahh, the Grade Level Office... the place where a students' excuses get put to the test.

Two wrongs don't make a right, but they make a good excuse.

...lucky for us, we have plenty of Excuses!

East is a very competitive school. With all its academic rigour, it’s only expected that some students would select a difficult schedule. Doubling up in Science courses is only one of the many ways to intensify one’s schedule.

What's the hardest class you've ever taken?

"In my opinion, History 1 AP has been the hardest class. I normally enjoy history as a subject; however, the workload for that class was too much for me. Maybe, it was also because I had a really hard schedule my sophomore year?"

-Mo Alkaysi

These students are hard at work. Some students work together in groups to get their assignments done. Others fly solo. No matter how one chooses to get the work done, time-management is essential when one’s schedule is so demanding.
What's the hardest class you've ever taken?

"Functions H. That class was not only tough but also time-consuming. Still, what I learned in that class still helps me today. It's a good thing I paid attention during that class"

-Leo Wang

...that's why we all like to have Electives.
What would college applications be without the happy ending?...

Blamed as the cause of illness for hundreds of East students, Senioritis is a very serious disease. We were working hard on a cure, but then second semester started.

Senioritis!!!

Infectious diseases are very contagious. Here are some signs of the illness:

1. Extreme Procrastination
2. Shortened Attention Span
3. Complete Disregard for one's homework.

It started with one student and spread like wildfire. Even in class, these students can't pay attention to the lesson. Lunch time only increases the expression of such symptoms.
Thomas
Master procrastinator or victim of a rapidly spreading disease? Only time will tell.

Arindam
Has Senioritis taken hold of another victim, or has this East student always shown the symptoms?
We've always been curious...

What exactly are these special homerooms, and what goes on in them?

Ever wonder where the announcements are made? The special Theatre homeroom in B131 is the place which keeps you informed of the upcoming events. To the very left is the SGA Homeroom where the main school events and issues are discussed and planned.

Walking into F087, you can find students on Eastside who report on the many insightful events that go on in our community, informing the students through the Eastside newspaper.

The left bottom picture shows the academic editors on Eidolon (yearbook) who are working in the early morning to design the best yearbook filled with memories of Cherry Hill East.

Passing through the D-wing, you can catch a glimpse of the Chorus singers and Bells rehearsing for a great performance filled with songs and harmonies.

Along with the Bells, you can't miss a most popular Casual Harmony group that not only sings but also coordinates their songs with amazing dance movements for complete entertainment.
Here at East, there are many technological advancements which both students and teachers can take advantage of. From Smartboards to laptops, such technology is becoming more frequent, especially to enhance the learning process. Well, we don't just use computers to do work, do we?

No, they aren't playing Counter Strike. These students here are working hard on their school assignments. By providing East students with technology at their fingertips, the ease at which we go about our tasks is truly amazing. I mean, come on, what would the world be without Wikipedia and Google?
No, naptime isn’t only for kindergartners. Everyone, regardless of age, loves to take a midday nap. For us here at East, that means taking a nap during school hours. Well, it’s not like these students had anything better to do, right?

Playing around is just another way to alleviate the stress which we receive from our school work. Goofing around stimulates laughter, which then makes it easier to just relax. Slacking off is fun!

Even in class, these students just cannot resist the urge to slack off.
Besides, what fun is school if you don't chill every once in a while?

Being lazy is so much easier than being diligent. Who wouldn't want to lie around and do nothing all day long?

The terminology "slacking off" exists in everyone's dictionary. Although there is a great load of work to do, the first instinct is to put it off to "cram" later. Have you realized how precious that ten minutes is right before the test?

"One thing I cannot live without is the Food Network. Seriously, the Barefoot Cantessa is where it's at. Not a day goes by that I don't crave her outrageous Chocolate Brownies!"

"One thing I will take to college is a rice cooker. You'd be surprised what you can do with a rice cooker. It's basically a slower version of a microwave without the radiation.

Michael Chin

"Think for yourself; don't let the majority dictate your opinions."

"I need the internet in order to feel connected to the rest of the world."

"I always try to learn from my mistakes."

Justin Deng

"God is my key to success. Looking at my own high school experiences, I'm kind of surprised how anyone makes it through unscathed. I've had my share of girl troubles of ups and downs. I've had times when everything just felt like too much too much to do, too much needing to be done. And there were times when I just felt tired. But thank God! He brought me through it all."

Ethan Goldstein

"I think the one thing that makes me unique is not trying to be."

"One thing I plan on taking with me to college next year is my saxophone. Apart from my saxophone, the one thing I can't live without is laughter."

Jesse Herrmann

"My key to success is staying above the stress. Don't let it get to you. Really, at the end of the day, even if you have bombed a test, there's still a solid hour of Scrubs to lift your spirits, as well as good food, friends and family to stand by you."

"On any given day, I cannot function without my three S's: Sleep, Scrubs, and Southpark. Is there really any life beyond that?"

Jason Klein

"My key to success is finding a balance in life. There is no way that I could have made it through four years of East worried solely about academics, and there is no way I could have done so worried solely on my extra-curriculars. I feel that by getting involved with running and various clubs, I was able to alleviate my stress and be able to better organize my time."

"I live by the phrase 'Try to do everything and get half done. Try to do half and get nothing done.'"
"One thing I will take to college is procrastination"

Ravi Yegya-Raman
"Well, one phrase I live by now a days is, "Anyone up for Wawa?" Now that it's second semester of senior year, not much gets done. Doesn't matter what time of day it is or what class you are in; someone's always ready to make a Wawa run."

Sarah Zhang
"My key to success is credited to my Asian genes"
"I live by the motto: SLEEP IS FOR THE THE WEAK."
"One thing I can't function without is oxygen (oh and my laptop)."
Q: East has an enormous student body of 2,200 students. What would you say the advantages and the disadvantages are for a big school?

As a big school, there is a greater opportunity for students to succeed in their own areas. The diverse activities and clubs help students to get involved. The disadvantages would be that a student may get lost and might not find a right place for himself. Since there is such a big student body, not every student is seen, heard, or known. Therefore, I hope that all students are connected with the school and teachers on a personal level.

Q: Since there is a diverse population, what do you feel about the diversity in East?

There is no one ideal student at East. There is a great diversity, but the unity comes from being respectful of others. Students come from different backgrounds but students are able to connect with each other through unity of purpose to succeed. At East, there are many programs for involvement which include music department, theatre, production, mock trial, community service, academic and assorted clubs. Also, we have great athletic sportsmanship with a common goal. Our diverse students unite together by appreciating others and their characters.

Q: How do you envision East in the years to come? What are some challenges?

The challenge is to keep the momentum going. The goal is to continue to improve student achievement at all grade levels and close achievement gaps where they exist. We want to assure the continuous student progress through implementation of an integrated curriculum and professional development framework. Also, the Individual Educational Program (IEP) helps to ensure that every child's needs are met. We will need to develop an action plan to improve school facilities with a focus on learning, safety infrastructure, and maintenance. The overall goal is to improve the learning community for the students and teachers.
Leonard Terranova

In Loving Memory

We dedicate this yearbook

The halls of our school will never be the same without the loving and caring eyes of Mr. Terranova. A true son of East, he has served our school community for nearly forty years. His dedication, commitment and enthusiasm were his hallmark. We, his family at Cherry Hill High School East, will truly miss him.

Class of 2008
Message to the Graduation Class from:
Alexis Wisely, 2008 Class President

To the Class of 2008,

As we walk through the East halls during our final year, we find all too much that reminds us of who we used to be: the freshman, feeling on top of the world for finally becoming a high school student; the sophomore, feeling happy to have moved up from the bottom of the totem-pole; the junior, feeling excited to be an upperclassman and sit in Cafeteria I. And as seniors, we have finally realized that the most important aspect of high school is not that we have reached the top but that we have a never-ending supply of memories made along the way.

As we prepare to leave high school and the comfronts of its hallways behind, I think it is important to always remember those many memories and never forget how lucky we are to have made them. The connections we have made at East with friends and teachers will always be available to us. While the prospect of graduation may seem sad, we must bear in mind that it is not a goodbye but a see-you-later.

While preparing yourselves for a future in different places, with opportunities, challenges, and independence at your feet, you must never leave behind your spirit and self-motivation. You possess an infinite potential for anything you aspire to be.

Although the future holds something different and unique to each individual, we will always have something in common: we are proud members of the Graduating Class of 2008 of Cherry Hill High School East. That will never change!

Luck,

Congratulations and Best of

Alexis Wiseley

Boys' Swimming and Diving

As they prepare for a challenging meet, the Swimming Men of East huddle together. They know they cannot win alone; they need to work as a team to win this meet. Knowing the competition will be stiff, they encourage each other, pushing one another to the limit, sacrificing anything to score just one more point for the team!

John Mendenhall cuts through the water, putting everything on the line for the team. The water is cold, and he struggles for breath, but it's all worth it in the end. The lead 400m swimmer for the team, Mendenhall, was a vital factor in the team's success. Without him, fourth place at States would have been no easy task.

The joy and pride of success is obvious. After placing fourth at States, the East Team rejoiced. All of their hard work had finally paid off. The hours in the pool, the mouthfuls of water were all worth it. They had done it. They had worked as a team, and the outcome of success was inevitable.

Kyle Harrison, John Mendenhall, and Matt Radzwill were all leaders on the team that played a major part in helping the team place fourth at States this year.
Girls' Swimming and Diving

"I can't fly, but swimming is the next best thing.... The water is my sky."
-Unknown

Senior Brett Kochan pushed the team forward this year as one of their lead breaststroke swimmers.

Even practice can be fun! After working hard for countless hours in the pool, the girls are not disheartened. They celebrate another successful day in the pool by splashing rather than complaining.

During her freestyle stroke, one of the lady cougars takes a deep breath, and she races to give her team a win.

A Sophomore, Kristin Lee, didn’t waste any time. From the moment she joined the team, she gave it her all. Cutting through the water like a torpedo, she was a huge help to the team this year and will, without a doubt, prove to be for the rest of her high school career.
"Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success."

Go Cougars!

The Lady Cougars Roster: Melissa Dibartolomeo, Eleni Efstratiades, Tori Rossi, Kelly Schmidt, Jennifer Sisholtz, Vianca Tejada, Marianne Bogurski, Gale Crowe, Karen Peralta, Lindsey Schmidt, Catherine Tejada, Genevieve Beissert, Claire Dismoe, Yael Einhorn, Sara Gurkin, Kyra Holladay, Paige Hymson, Kim Regan, Marie Beissert.
Winter Track

East long-distance runner, David Berger (’08) pushes hard to reach the head of the pack, and do his part to help the team win. Track may be an individual sport, but it takes a team to win the meet.

Stamina is an important part of every runner’s arsenal. Here, an East runner works hard to keep his position in the race at striking distance. By staying near the top, he can make one final push at the end to win.

Sprinter Chanz Rowell (’08) (center) competes in 110 meter High Hurdles at the Toms River Invitational Meet. Hurdlehing requires perfect form and timing, and takes practice to perfect.

Here, two East runners are clearly in the lead during their race.

Distance runner Daniel Fuenes (’08) pulls ahead from the pack as he is about to cross the finish line, giving the East Cougars a major gain.

Distance runner Max Cohler (’08) holds a slim lead, but he still works to improve his advantage before the final lap, which is where all races are won and lost.
East wrestling came back to the mat with a strong team this year. With returning seniors, Howard Fuhrman, Kaleef King, John Casey, Stephen Pestridge, Micky Goldfin, David Convissar, Ben Mitchell, and Andre Harman, the team had a good season guaranteed for them. Despite stiff competition, the team powered through every match and was able to send several of its members as individuals to States, including Andre Harman, Micky Goldfin and David Convissar.
Boys' Volleyball

Although the season has not officially started, the boys' volleyball team is hard at work, preparing for another great season. The program has begun to build into a powerful team and is now a contender every year.

The beginning of the volley is crucial, and the cougar's serves are certainly up to par. Led by Sophomore Andrew Purcell, the Cougars are confident in any match.

Above: Coach Moehlman talks to the team about what they need to do to win this scrimmage as the team suits up. Although the game may not mean a thing in the final standings, scrimmages are a way for younger players to earn playing time and veterans to get warmed up for the start of the season.

Returning players, like sophomore Andrew Purcell (above in air) will be key factors this season.

Below: Pre-season scrimmages are just as important as play games as they help to get the team ready for the season. The team keeps this in mind as they warm up before a scrimmage.
Boys' Tennis

The boys tennis team is hard at work to prepare for the season opener against Bishop Eustace. The boys have high expectations; however, they know they can only accomplish their goals through dedication, hard work, and practice.

Ross Silverberg ('09) finishes his backhand, as he returns a blistering serve from the opposing team to win the set.

Marc Spivak looks to his coach for guidance as he prepares for his first match of the year.

Ross Silverberg ('09) tosses the ball up in the air as he prepares to bury a serve in the opposite court.
Boys' Lacrosse

The boys' lacrosse team is the youngest program at East, and they are looking to make a name for themselves. Depth and skill in net, a solid defensive corps, speed in the midfield, and attackers that know how to pick apart a goalie all make the cougars a team that has the ability to go far this season.

Not only is it important to practice skills, conditioning is a vital part of any athlete. The Cougars prepare by runs and making sure that they can last throughout each game without getting tired.

Richertman Field becomes alive again in the spring with the lacrosse team on the field everyday, led by Head Coach Eric Wood.

The team works on one-on-one drills during practice at Richertman Field, and although they are teammates, they do not go easy on each other.
Girls' Lacrosse

The girls' lacrosse team plays an intersquad scrimmage to get ready for their season opener against Clearview High School.

The girls' lacrosse team runs drills to ensure a win in their next game and to work towards the top of the conference.

Now is the tough part, choosing teams for intersquading. The Lady Cougars have an amazing practice and get the opportunity to step up their play in a live game with their teammates.

The girls' drill one-on-one's, while the whole team cheers them on. Lacrosse is a rough sport and for a victory, the whole team has to be involved.
The softball team is looking very competitive this year, and a lot of their strong players are returning for the season. They will definitely be one to watch in their up-coming games.

A cougar freshman, Nicole Escobar, fields a hard hit ground ball in preparation for their next game.

The Lady cougars take infield and outfield practice to prepare for their up-coming game against their rival, Cherry Hill-West.

Sophomore, Monica Bonaititus, takes a knee to stop a hard ground ball.

Nicole Escobar ('11) fields a ground ball and throws a rocket to first baseman, Julie Gornowski, ('09) to end the inning and get the lady cougars out of a jam.
Baseball

This is the third season for Head Coach Erik Radbill, who expects this to be an excellent season for the cougars. The expectations are very high for this year because last year was the first time in ten years that the baseball team won a game in the state playoffs.

Shortstop, Jeff Böhns ('09), fields a ground ball, throwing it to third baseman, Chip Targland, to get the lead runner out and end the inning.

In their game against Holy Cross, third baseman, junior Chip Targland, throws the ball to first baseman, Joe Miller ('09), in order to get the runner out.

Cherry Hill East's center fielder, junior Sam Oliver, sprints to catch a ball in the 7th inning to end the game.
Track and Field

The boys and girls track and field teams are hard at work, preparing for another great season. Returning seniors, fast runners and hurdlers, and strong throwers will all be key factors, leading to another strong finish for the Cougars. The Cougars should not look past their opener, though, with a meet against rivals Lenape High School.

The girls track and field team run together as a team to establish unity. The girls are bonding, strengthening their relationships with their teammates and getting their work in to make sure they improve their running.

East boys are racing to the finish line to complete their win.

The track team managers, Julia Finkle and Tammy Warowitz, tally-up the scores at the end of the meet.
The boys track and field team stretches in preparation for their meet. They are hoping for another great year because many of their strong runners are returning to the team.

The boys stretch before their strenuous run and work to be the top runners in the region.

A standing OVATION
Above: The drumline is the heart and soul of any marching band. Every band member takes their role seriously and enjoys playing for the crowd. The Cougar Marching Band wills on the crowd and football team on Friday nights.

Top Right: The entire band is on the field to entertain the fans under direction of Mr. Tim Keleher. The band not only plays during football games and pep rallies, but also in band competitions, so the band must always be at its best.

Bottom: The woodwinds march onto the field in procession. Marching bands are known not only for their musical ability, but also to have great poise and marching ability, hence the name Marching Band.
TO YOUR OWN BEAT

Left: The drumline drums away and provides the backbone for the Marching Band. Here, the snare drums are doing their part in the song being played.

Right: The Marching Band waits patiently for their turn to play. Halftime, when the football team is taking a break, is the band's time to shine.

Right: The drumline sets the beat for the performance that is about to be made. The rest of the band will soon join in and add their respective parts to the music being played. When every part plays together in unison, one perfect sound comes out. Mr. Keleher works with the band every day in order to make this happen.
Cherry Hill East presented the Disney Classic Aladdin as the Fall Show for 2007. Two casts preformed the play: the red cast and the white cast. While the students in the play were outstanding and put on a great show, the highlight for the audience was seeing the live animals that were brought on stage. Cherry Hill East is known for its phenomenal scenery, and this play was no exception. Everyone on the stage and behind the scenes put together a great show under Mr. Weaver and Mr. Nation.
The King And I is presented for the first time on the East stage. Director, Mr. Robert D. Nation believes, "The King And I should be a moment to remember in the long, proud history of East musicals... when the curtain comes down on this spectacular production, what we will remember most is how remarkable these young people are."

SINGIN' IN

While visiting Cherry Hill East, the wonderful vocal groups can be heard. When a student first joins the vocal department, he will participate in the group, Vocal Workshop. In the middle of the year, auditions are held to see how well the student has improved and to decide which group is best for the next year. These auditioned groups include: chansons, concert choir, and east singers. Every year, the auditioned groups take part in competitions. This year, the groups competed in New York City. Taking part in these competitions give the students an opportunity to display their improvements over the year. One of the biggest concerts of the year include Opera Night. This concert gives the students a chance to learn a different type of music. There is also a silent auction before and after the concert. Everything being auctioned is donated; therefore, the money raised from the auction goes toward the Senior Scholarship Fund.

THE CHOIR
While roaming the halls of East, one might stumble upon D-Wing. If that were to happen, one would be engulfed in the combining sounds of different musical groups. One of the quieter groups is the orchestra. The combining sounds of the members' violins, violas, cellos, bases, and more instruments make for a softer yet powerful combination.

The Orchestra performs at East's four concerts every year, matching each song selection to the theme of the season in which they are performing.

Many of the talented orchestra players lend a hand to East's Drama Department as members of the pit orchestra. Many players use this as a form of scholarship and continue to play in college.

SMALL IN NUMBERS

Cherry Hill East is well-known for its vocal groups. Those who want to make their voices heard, after completing the Vocal Workshop course, can audition for several small groups. Included in the small groups are Belles of East, Celebrations, Madrigals, and Casual Harmony. Each group has a unique theme that portrays the group and the members in the group. The Madrigals transform to the Renaissance era with authentic clothes and song-selection to match. The Belles of East, on the other hand, incorporate a soft, soothing tune to the rhythm of the bells they use on stage.
JOIN THE CLUB

There are additional clubs for those students who want to stay involved with the performing arts. Mime Company and the Thespian Society both provide opportunities for students to get involved. The Mime Company is where students can act out scenes, using only body movement not words. The Thespian Society is a group of students who work to organize various events, the biggest event is Coffee House, which draws large crowds to see various thespians perform. The Thespians society meets to discuss how to improve the theatre department, and raises money to fund the various shows and productions that so many love to come and see.

MEET NEW PEOPLE

If a poll were taken about what Cherry Hill East students did after school, many students would say clubs. At Cherry Hill High School East, there are many opportunities to get involved. There are over 100 clubs to choose from with the addition of new clubs each year. With all these different kinds of clubs, students are able to take part in things that truly matter to them. Also, students are given the chance to meet new people and make new friends. Since Cherry Hill East is a unique school, consisting of numerous ethnic groups, many of the clubs are dedicated to celebrating culture. Some clubs that celebrate ethnicities include the African-American Club, Chinese Culture Club, French Club, Filipino Club, Hispanic Culture Club, Jewish Culture Club, Korean Culture Club and Italian-American Club.

AGAPE: Alvin Oung, Ryan McSwiggan, Jen Ho, Laura An, Yoonsie Kim, Dan Kim, Justin Deng, Daniel Kim, Teran Oung, Bahruny Choi, Calvin Hou, Vince Wong, Michael Chin, Kevin Kim, Sally Yang, Paul Chung, Yueh Ho, Paul Jang, Diane Kim, Amy Chan. Advisor: Mr. Segrest
Jenna Olivo ('09) carries a container full of soda can tabs to Ronald McDonald House. These tabs can be recycled for charity. Throughout the year, the Character Education Committee visits Ronald McDonald House to cook and help others.

These clubs give the students at East a chance to learn about their own ethnic backgrounds. In fact, there is a special day that is dedicated to celebrating cultures, and that is Multi-cultural Day. On that day, many of the clubs take part in assemblies that occur throughout the day. Some clubs present unique dances and songs while others wear their ethnic clothes through a fashion show.

CREATE MEMORIES

Once the 2:30 bell has rung, it gives our clubs a chance to raise money. The money goes to help out the clubs as well as charity. Throughout the year, there are many charity events. For example, the students participating in Character Education raise money for the Ronald McDonald House through carwashes, bake sales and other strategies. On the other hand, Cum Laude Society provides tutors to help students who struggle in certain subjects. This club really allows students to easily get a tutor and to improve grades. Students who need help on a more personal level can request to have a tutor. These tutors help through the Smaller Learning Community program, which is run by Cum Laude. With the option of having a tutor, it provides students with stability.

While there are many fun groups, there are also educational ones. DECA is a useful learning experience that trains students for the future. The main topics focused on are marketing, management and business. By taking part in DECA, students can express their business ideas and take them outside of the classroom. This organization has grown from having a few hundred students from 17 states participate into over 185,000 students from all 50 states plus students from the District of Columbia, Canada, Guam, Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and Germany. At the yearly International Career Development Conference, many of the students can meet members who are just as qualified from around the country. These conferences are held on regional, state and national levels. With such conferences, students face friendly competition and create many memories.

Here, at East, we are very blessed with talents that make up Eastside, our school newspaper. Eastside provides students with news, events and interesting facts about the school from month to month. The editors work during journalism classes as well as extra hours after school to meet their deadlines. Another part of the Eastside is Eastside Online. Eastside Online is frequently updated to provide students with new stories without waiting for the new issue to come out.

Members of Eastside join together to share ideas and discuss important stories for the upcoming issue. These are hard-working students, who work diligently in order to meet deadlines.

Throughout the year, there are various activities to celebrate school spirit. The clubs here host many of these activities at Cherry Hill East. For example, the Dance Team spreads school spirit by performing. They do this at the pep-rally to help get our school in the spirit for the rival football game against Cherry Hill West. In the Winter, the Dance Team also performs during basketball games. The Dance Team practices on their dance routines daily and put a lot of effort into the choreography. The performance by the dance team at Spirit Week was phenomenal. All the dancers dedicated their hearts into the dance moves and truly promoted school spirit.

ENVIRONMENTAL CLUB: Jack Tremble, Casey Dworkin, Jes Faimon, Renee Drezner, Grace Kammer, Nickee Plarsen, Karina Korneyva, Hannah Baker, Kyle Walford, Jaimie Watson, Jillian McElgunn, Katie Spencer, Brian Court, Jo Chang, Claire Stemmer, Allison McCurry, Sarah Harris. Advisor: Mrs. Boucher
Along with hosting activities for the students, the clubs are making differences in the community. Each year, the FOP Club organizes a Holiday Party for disabled children. Members of the club decorate the site of the party as well as dress up in costume. This party is a big hit and brings joy to many of the children. The students who participate in the Blood Drive help organize a drive at East. At this drive, many East students have an opportunity to donate their blood. After school has ended, the drive continues while outside community members can come to the school and donate. Many of the clubs participate in making a change to better our community.

Kaitlyn Alexander ('08) and friends decorate for the FOP Holiday Party by making posters with drawings that bring warmth and happiness.

VOICE YOUR OPINIONS

Students at East also express their hobbies and interests by joining clubs such as the Jazz Club and Inspirational Choir. Through these clubs, students are able to make friends who share the same interests. For instance, members of the Jazz Club like to share their opinions on jazz music, while members of Inspirational Choir join together to express their emotions through music. In addition, there is the Gay-Straight Alliance in which students can discuss their opinions on social issues. These clubs give students something to look forward to after school. Instead of going straight home, students can attend fun clubs after school and meet new people along the way.

Many of the students at East spend their time helping the community. For example, the Key Club performs many voluntary services to better the community. Members of the Key Club volunteer at nursing homes, as well as raise money for charities. Also, Adopt-A-Grandparent helps the community by going to St. Mary's Nursing Home and entertains senior citizens. Additionally, there are clubs such as the Make-A-Wish Club, which donates money to the Make-A-Wish Foundation to help terminally ill patients and fulfill their last wish. By helping and caring for the community, these clubs make a difference in our lives and the lives of others.

There are also environmental clubs such as P.L.A.N.E.T and Lend-A-Hand. These clubs do everything they can to provide a better and healthier earth. Aside from environmental clubs, there are also academic clubs. At the Math Club, students engage in intense discussions, ranging from geometry to calculus. They also prepare for math competitions. Other academic clubs include Model Congress and Model UN. These clubs discuss important political issues and current events. They also debate and express their opinions on certain subjects. In fact, members of Model UN went to Rutgers University this year to engage in more political debates. These academic courses allow students to further their education and learning.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB: Havisha Desai, Sydney Gore, Queenette Iwugawu, Debra Schwarzl, Carly Rothenberg, Aleksa Akkerman, Katie Maxymuk, Gwyneth Manser, Mr. Hall. Advisor: Mr. Kovnat
Apart from academic clubs, there are also interesting clubs at East such as Scrabble Club and Rubik's Cube Club. These clubs develop students' logical skills. At the same time, these clubs assist in helping students with reasoning. For instance, the Rubik's Cube develops students' hand-eye coordination and logic thinking. Meanwhile, Scrabble Club expands students' vocabulary and thinking skills. While these clubs are incorporating skills learned in school, students can see the ways those skills can be applied to the real world. Besides building logic skills, the students involved in The Greatful Runners club work on building their endurance by participating in many charity events. The Greatful Runners is a charity group that raises money in order to help the less-fortunate. Members of this charity group run to raise money to help people diagnosed with diabetes and multiple sclerosis. Because of this charity group, many people are able to seek help to cure their diseases. At the same time, the athletes participating in The Greatful Runners sends the message that a sports team can do more than just compete; it can change people's lives.

SPORTS DEBATE CLUB: Jared Weiss, Brian Libes, Charlie Feinerman, Max McGee, Steven Whaler, Lee Dobkin, Jake Stark, Sam Missan, Steven Cetel. Advisor: Mr. Gagliardi

Aside from using skills learned in school, the Sports Debate Club at East gives students an opportunity to talk about the sports. By joining this club, students are given an opportunity to discuss the sports they have grown to love rather than just playing the sport. In this club, many sports are talked about. Students are able to freely discuss their opinions in a stress-free environment. They can also meet students with similar sports interests.
There is a lot of blood, sweat, tears, and hard work that goes into the development of strong muscles. This is an activity that takes a lot of time and dedication. In Weight Lifting Club, students do not only build muscles, but also friendships with their lifting partners. Lifting is about knowing what your body can do and how your body functions. Weight lifting is also a learning experience. Students will typically learn different types of exercises and workouts from their lifting partner. Therefore, the lifting partner has the ability to encourage others to continue lifting.

"Modern bodybuilding is ritual, religion, sport, art, and science, awash in Western chemistry and mathematics. Defying nature, it surpasses it."

Another group that uses a great amount of teamwork is the yearbook staff. Throughout the year, students on the yearbook staff work together on their assignment section. They are in charge of getting pictures and names for their section. By working on the yearbook, creativity is required. This creativity ranges from page layouts to creative writing. Many staff members spend days after school working to meet deadlines.

You grew up so fast! We still remember you as a little, energetic and cheerful baby and now you are a beautiful, caring and thoughtful young lady!

We love you so much! We are so proud of your academic achievements, your spirit, sportsmanship, determination, dedication, kindness and readiness to help others.

Eighteen is the time to dream big. It is the time to set goals high. It is the time to believe that you can achieve anything you want.

We wish all your dreams come true!
Good luck in college!

To My Brothers,

Thank you for all the memories, for making me smile, for making me laugh, for always making doing nothing into doing something, for all the retarded things I've done for you, for forcing me to throw parties, for making fun of me 24/7, for lasting for these past 4 years or longer, for never fighting with me (some exceptions), for making every time we were together a good time, for standing up for me, for helping me, for looking out for me, for always being there for me, for caring about me, and for being my family.

Through the years we have grown up, and now we are about to split up. All the times that we've shared, all the good times and even the bad, the laughs, the tears, the fears, have built up through the years. So as our senior year comes to an end, well carry in our hearts our true friends; and take with us all the memories that were made as the cover closes in the final days of this chapter and begins to fade. These past four years were as amazing as they were because I had all of you; and even though its time for us to part ways I'll survive all the pain from missing all of you because its not goodbye its simply I'll see you later!

I LOVE YOU ALL SO MUCH!

Over the years our brother sister relationship turned into a great friendship. We used to tattle tail on each other and now we keep each other out of trouble. Good luck in college. I know you will do great. I will always be there for you and will always be watching out for you even if it is not with my own eyes.

Brian,

Congratulations on all your accomplishments. You've worked hard and earned all of your success. We are all very proud of you and wish you good luck and happiness with everything you do.

All our love always,
Mom, Dad, Jason and Stephanie
As childhood friends, we grew up together,
Swearing to be friends forever and ever.
Sometimes we would argue and fight,
Other times we would laugh and stay up all night.

We went from playing with games and toys,
To talking and dreaming about different boys.
My thoughts and feelings, to you I would confide,
Never having anything to hide.

Friends we do remain,
Things changing, and things staying the same.
To each other we still listen and share,
About each other, we will always care.

Pride is an emotion which refers to a strong sense of self-respect, and a joy in the accomplishments of oneself or others.

You should be proud of all you have accomplished as we are proud of you. You have a bright future ahead of you filled with so much promise and potential. We are certain that you will make your mark on the world as you have on all who have come to know you.

We love you with all our hearts and wish you much success as you move on to college. But above all, we wish you a life filled with joy and happiness.

Hayley,

It is hard to believe you are already graduating from East! Your ability to balance a rigorous synchronized skating schedule, excellent academic achievement along with your passion for community service attests to your determination, special abilities and sense of humor. You are a truly a special person, as well as a great daughter, sister and friend.

We are so proud of you and the person you have become in life, a true source of pride to your family and friends in everything and anything you do!

We only wish you the best of everything in life and remember your potential is limitless.

Congratulations!!

As we walk our path of life, we meet people everyday. Most are simply met by chance, but, some are sent our way.

These become special friends whose bond we can't explain; The ones who understand us and share our joy and pain.

Their love contains no boundaries. So, even we are apart. Their presence enhances us with a warmth felt in the heart.
We knew that a girl would bring something special into our lives ... but we never could have guessed just how wonderful you would be. You have grown up to be beautiful, sensitive and considerate. Nurture that tender heart always! We are proud of the hard work you put into everything you do. May you always find your heart's desire (even if it takes a while to know for sure what that is). You are a loving daughter, great sister and wonderful friend. We love you!

You managed to find just the right balance of work and play at your years at East and succeeded at both. It's been four years of "Go East" at the swim meets and lots of entertainment at all the different music concerts. Mostly though, it has been four years of watching you have fun, make deep and everlasting friendships, and grow into a young man who will continue to make everyone whose lives he touches enriched.

So now it's on to F&M to continue the adventure!

Yesterday a child came out to wander
Caught a dragonfly inside a jar
Fearful when the sky was full of thunder
And tearful at the falling of a star
And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down
We cant return we can only look behind
From where we came
And go round and round and round
In the circle game (Joni Mitchell)

To my son, I love you

I feel so fortunate to have you for a son. I love your bright face when we talk seriously about the world. I love your smile when you laugh at the inconsistencies in the world. I love your eyes when you are showing emotion. I love your mind when you are discovering new ideas and creating dreams to follow. Many people tell me that they cannot talk to their children, that they cannot wait for them to leave home. I want you to know that I enjoy you so much and I look forward to any time we can spend together. Not only are you my adored son but you are also my friend. I am so proud of you, my son and I love you.

We're so very proud of you, Mike, as you complete high school and begin the next stage of your life. You have worked hard to become the man you are - a man who we are proud to call son and brother. So as you look forward and go into your next "season", all we can say is - Go get'em, Mike!

All our Love - Mom, Dad & Rachel
May you always shoot for the moon and along the way dance among the stars. We are all so proud of you. Congratulations to you for all your accomplishments. Happy Graduation!

We Love You,
Dad, Mom, Jenna, Romeo and Falcon

Alex Michael Saltzburg

We would like to congratulate you for all that you have accomplished during your high school years. The entire family is so proud of your determination, spirit, enthusiasm and respect that you show towards your teachers, coaches and of course your classmates. We wish you great success in the next step of your life's journey.

Love from your family.

Chelsea

You are an amazing role model. We will miss our pajama days but we look forward to more good times ahead. We know you'll be a success in all you do!

Love.

Mom, Ethan & Jordyn

Manu Colacot

Congratulations!!
Manu, we are very proud of your success. We know that you can achieve all your goals if you set your mind to it. Always remember "you are the architect of your future". God be with you in all your future endeavors.
Love,
Dad, Mom, Rebekah, Grandpa and Grandma

Eleni

Congratulations on your graduation day!

We are very proud of your accomplishments. We love you and wish you the best in the future.

You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself in any direction you choose.
You're on your own.
And you know what you know.
You are the guy who'll decide where to go.
~Dr. Seuss

Boys,

Congratulations on your graduation! We wish you all the success and happiness that life can bring.

We Love you!

Your Families
Jaime Michele Goldstein

We admire your energy and drive.
We applaud your accomplishments.
You are FIERCE! Always, Mom and Dad
To Our son and brother, one of the most kind hearted souls.

WOW!! It seems like only yesterday we were teaching you how to walk and with every few steps BOOM!! You would fall. Not a problem, you just looked up with those beautiful inquisitive eyes and that heart warming smile would appear. The very smile that can warm up everything around you!

We have come to that stage in our lives where we must let go of your hand; but do not fear for the Lord will continue to guide you throughout your entire life, just as he has since the very beginning. You have shown great discipline as well as dedication to everything you love and we are all extremely proud of your accomplishments. As you embark on a new journey or as you like to call it playing chess, we want to give you a wise lessons and your fathers 5 motivational smacks. First always be mindful of your words and surroundings. Be sincere and compassionate to every living being, and may you never look down at anyone unless you’re helping them up; strive to learn from everyone and the world around you, for you may only cross that path once. Whatever you do, don't forget to live in the NOW, life moves so very fast. May God continue to bless you in many wonderful ways while you acknowledge him in every path you take. We are fully confident that nothing will be too difficult for you to achieve in life. HATS OFF TO YOU!!

We thank you and love you, Muuuuaahhh
