What We Will Miss About East...

We will miss the mass hysteria of "Back-to-School Night" and the confused looks our parents had when looking for our classes.

We will miss our dedicated East Marching Band who performs in rain, sleet, and snow.

We will miss our monthly EASTSIDE issues with the good stories, comics, and coupons.

We will miss the Homecoming Games, complete with sleet, rain, cold, and hopefully some hot coco.

We will miss the uproar of Spirit Week.
We will miss our red and white lockers. Specifically, we will miss trying to remember our locker combinations.

We will miss the large-scale photo sessions.

We will miss the early morning bus rides into school.

We will miss being with our classmates for all kinds of school events!

We will miss our comfy East apparel... always fashionable!

We will miss cramming into the DiBart Gym for school-wide events.

We will miss when our Cherry Hill East Cougar comes out to play.

"My advice to incoming freshmen would be to stay organized! High school is an extremely fun but stressful time, so it is important that you keep everything organized and controlled. Also, try your best to get your work done early and not to procrastinate. If you stay organized, you will have a better high school experience, and you will have more free time to spend with your friends and make great memories. Good luck and have fun!"

- Taylor Beatty

"Don't be afraid to challenge yourself. High school is your time to figure out how much you can do. If you ever stumble, there is always someone at East who is willing to help."

- Marielle Austin

"My advice to incoming freshmen would be to get involved in as many things as you can. High school can be the best time of your life if you want it to be. There are so many different things to do at this school, it would be a shame if you didn’t get involved at all. It’s a great way to make new friends and build better relationships with old friends."

- Seth Levy

"Join as many clubs and athletic teams as possible. It is a great social outlet for making new friends and easing the transition from middle school to high school. It is also a great way to release stress from the school day. Lastly, have fun in high school! You are only in high school once in your lifetime."

- Gary Reiff
"High school is a drastic transition from middle school, and you have to learn how to adapt very quickly. Each year, freshmen think that taking all honors classes is the best way to achieve. My key piece of advice is to balance your schedule with classes of all levels to achieve the highest GPA. Taking all honors might give you too much work, while balancing your schedule will allow you to have time for sports, extracurricular activities, and friends. Just remember to have fun."

- Max Silverberg

"You make your high school experience what you want it to be. Join clubs and play sports, but make sure you work hard in school, too. Most importantly, remember that you only have four years of high school, and then, you will be left with the memories, so make them good!"

- Julie Wilkins

"Be yourself! Don't be afraid to get involved into anything that interests you. The more you get involved, the more friends you meet, and the more fun of an experience you will have in high school. Be a leader by showing school spirit, like participating in dress-up days and going to dances. It's up to you to stick up for what inspires you and what you believe in."

- Courtney Workman

"As a freshman, you just need to be yourself. Friedrich Nietzsche once said, 'At bottom, everyman knows well-enough that he is a unique being, only once on this earth, unity as he is, ever be put together a second time.' You cannot live your high school years, trying to be someone else. Remember, why try to be someone else when you as a person are already spectacular?"

- Eric Zaun
Dear Class of 2011,

Whatever your Individual plans are for the future, you all share the same common experience of membership in the East Class of 2011. It is a unifying bond and one to be treasured. Yet with your East graduation, you have reached one of life’s major “stepping stones” and will transition to the next stage of life. It is a unique transition and an important one. East has provided you with the foundation to meet the challenges of life after high school with success.

Each of you has worked hard and changed significantly during your four years. I remember many of you being young and, at times, overwhelmed freshman who quickly adjusted to the rhythm and demands of high school. You got involved, mastered the flow of the hallways, worked hard in your classes, and realized there was no third floor B wing. You began to come together as a class during Spirit Week and the Freshmen Dance which were enjoyed by many members.

How quickly the transition from freshmen to seniors happened. Sophomore year, you continued to grow, applied yourself to the academics and held the 90’s Funk dance enjoyed by all! As juniors, I remember how proud I was of each and every one of you as we stood shoulder-to-shoulder in front of our school on Kresson Road. It was a cold winter day, and we honored one of our very own and his family, an East graduate, who gave the ultimate sacrifice, serving our country and protecting us. The genuine respect you demonstrated reflected your maturity and your deep understanding.

You truly have matured into a vibrant, hard working, focused and unified class. Over one hundred members of our class participated, and as I write this note, three hundred members of our class have signed up for Disney another East record.

Your class brings a smile to my face whenever I think about you. I will miss you deeply. You are well-prepared to leave East and posed to reach your potential. East has given you the foundation for success and continued growth. Remember your years here together fondly, and use the knowledge gained to achieve your dreams.

Love,

PRINCIPAL’S MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 2011

Dear Members of the Class of 2011,

As you leave East, please know that we wish you well in the challenges you face. It is our hope that our faculty and our community have helped all of our seniors to chart a course in their studies, and that all members of the class cherish the value of the East education which they have received.

In the years ahead, it is our hope that members of the Class of 2011 recognize our efforts to teach our students well and to support their efforts within the classroom, in athletics, and extracurricular activities. As students move to their new schools and to the workplace, may they do so confident that they come from a high school which offers a rigorous curriculum, celebrates diversity, and challenges the students to excel. It is our hope that the graduates of the Class of 2011 will continue the rich tradition of excellence fostered here at East.

Best of all in the years ahead: may your lives be filled with purposeful works, loving families, good friends, and fond memories of Cherry Hill East.

Sincerely,

John O’Breza

"I always drink plenty of water to keep my brain juices flowing."

Aryeh Brill

A strong work ethic is my most valuable key to success, but a good memory definitely helps, too.

Michael Hollander

I attribute my success to being well-balanced rather than well-lopsided.

Tony Chen

I can't live without internet, music, my dad's cooking or my Walcom tablet.

Danielle Hu

The key to my success has been the support from my mom, dad, and little brother, and my snooze-less alarm clock.

Chandani Desai

Harry for his never-failing bravery; Snape for his never-failing love; Dumbledore for his never-failing wisdom; Harry Potter; and J.K. Rowling for never failing.

Allison King

Work hard and enjoy high school.

Sandra Goldlust

High school is like a game of Monopoly. It helps to be smart, charismatic, and confident. But sometimes, you just need to roll the dice.

Benjamin Kirby
Never procrastinate.

Dahlia Klein

I would advise East students to join a sport, write for EASTSIDE, and basically get involved.

Anisha Sehgal

Stay nerdy.

Ethan Klein

Don't take your eye off the ball. Remember what it is you're working to accomplish.

Jonathan Silverstone

My parents... they motivate me, and they gave me great genes.

...another successful year!
We Are Events

On their winter break, Dr. John Vivone invited his former seniors from the last 2 graduating classes to present lectures on "College Life". On January 7, a total of 14 Alumni returned to East for Doc's annual event, and on-going tradition for the last 34 years.

Mark Barbagallo '09 participated in the 2011 "College Forum". He is a biomedical engineer major at The University of Maryland, College Park.

Peanuts,

You came into the world determined to make people smile! You taught me how to be a good Mom while I was teaching you how to be a good kid. Our lives took a couple of turns we didn't expect and look where we are now! How wonderful! You have been and will always be my most precious gift. When you were born, everyone said, "Enjoy this time; it goes fast." They were right. Now it's time for you to go on to the next chapter in your life. I know you are ready. You'll learn a lot and you'll make a difference in this world. I love you, your Dad loves you, Ralph loves you. You are a bright shining light in our family. Congratulations on this incredible milestone. I can't wait to see what happens next.

LIFELONG FRIENDS!

KENNY SOLL

SAM ROSE
Many people go through different best friends throughout life. However, some people have that one real, true best friend in all that time. A best friend is not only someone you have a good time with, it is also someone you believe you can trust your life with. A best friend is the first person you call when the most amazing things happen in your life, and even the bad times too. A best friend is the one who tells you the things you absolutely need to hear regardless of whether you want to hear it or not. A best friend is the person you usually can be around always and never get sick of. A best friend is the one who will forgive you always, even when you’ve screwed up so bad. True friends are those who are there for you unconditionally. Never do they question, but always offer support no matter what the circumstances are. Best friends are the people worth living for.

A daughter is the happy memories of the past, the joyful moments of the present, and the hope and promise of the future.

A daughter is the love you can't explain, the heart you can't measure, the beauty you can't see, but the feeling you can't pretend.

A daughter is someone you can talk to, someone who will always be there for you, someone who will always love you.

A daughter is the light that shines in your life, the smile that brightens your day, the laughter that fills your heart.

A daughter is a gift from God, a precious blessing, a treasure to be cherished forever.

A daughter is a reminder that life is beautiful, that love is real, and that dreams can come true.

A daughter is the love of your life, the joy of your heart, the pride of your soul.
