“Cherry Hill East – A caring community of scholars with a lifestyle of respect, kindness and gratitude; striving for excellence in all that we do.”

Dear Scholars of the Class of 2015:

The memory that I will cherish for a lifetime is being your principal for the past two school years. You have readily accepted East’s new Vision Statement: “Cherry Hill East, a caring community of scholars with a lifestyle of respect, kindness and gratitude, striving for excellence in all that we do.” Not only did you accept it, you became exemplary role models for others to emulate. You have earned the noble position of “scholar” by your academic achievement and behavior.

I sincerely hope that each of you will continue to seek knowledge, skills, share with others, and live a lifestyle of kindness and gratitude. I hope you will remember my words of wisdom to you regarding your attitude and the profound influence it has on your life. Life often gives you whatever you expect from it. Hence, expect the best in everything, remain upbeat, seek solutions in any problem, believe in yourself and hold on to hope.

The quality of your life and the duration of your success depend on your attitude, and you are the only person in this world with the power to make it better. Dr. William Glasser said, “If you want to change attitudes, start with a change in behaviors. In other words, begin to act the part, as well as you can, of the person you would rather be; the person you most want to become.”

It is part of human nature to tend toward focusing on the negative, to pay more attention to what we don’t have instead of being grateful for what we do have. But here is the good news. We can teach ourselves to have a grateful attitude, regardless of the situation in which we find ourselves. A good way to start the process is to keep a gratitude journal and “count your blessings” each day. You can also teach yourself to stop during difficult times and turn your thinking toward what is good and right in the moment, even if it is something as simple as being grateful for your next meal or the clothes on your back. Training yourself to be grateful is a life skill that will help you navigate your way through life in a more positive direction.

Scholars of the Class of 2015, as you leave the East school community of scholars, please know that you have our best wishes for continued success. We, the faculty and staff, have done our very best to prepare you to be successful in the next step on your life’s journey. We hope that you will hold fast and pursue your dreams. Your dreams can give you direction, increase your potential and assist you in prioritizing what is best for your success.

Peace.

Dr. Lawyer H. Chapman
Principal

NATIONAL BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL OF EXCELLENCE
U.S. Department of Education Blue Ribbon School 2002-2003
Dear Class of 2015:

Where has the last four years gone? When a new 9th grade class starts high school, we always wonder what these new students will bring to the school. How will the class change the school for the better? When you entered four years ago, the East community looked forward to the excitement that you would demonstrate. You have not let us down! Now, as we look to graduation, we celebrate what the Class of 2015 has achieved in those quick four years! You will leave East a better place because of your presence here.

From achievements in academics and athletics, to tremendous music and drama performances, to fun dances and Spirit Week competitions, to successful Blood Drives and high levels of community service, the Class of 2015 has excelled in these areas and, like classes that have gone before, raised the bar for future classes that will pass through East!

While you may not remember every test and quiz that you took, you will remember the relationships with your teachers, classmates, and friends. I am sure you were challenged during your high school career, so use the tools you acquired to solve problems and handle whatever life puts in front of you. Find your path, discover your passion and enjoy the journey! Life is full of opportunities to learn, so never stop trying to learn something new every day!

I have been proud to serve as your Grade Level Principal and be a part of these four years of experiences with you. As you leave your high school years behind to tackle new challenges, I wish each and every one of you well in the future. Always remember that wherever your path takes you, Cherry Hill East has played a role in who you are, and what you have become. Consider these words by Nelson Mandela: "There is no passion to be found in playing small - in settling for a life that is less than the one you are capable of living." So Play Big!

Good Luck!

"Ms. Germscheid made my experience at East a fantastic one. She was always there to offer help and guidance, and she always had a contagious smile on her face. Because of this, she has had a profound impact on me. Thanks, Ms. Germscheid."

Samuel Amon

"Throughout my years at East, I have had many great teachers. However, one has had the most impact on me: Mr. Michael Brown. He is a kind and caring man who always encourages his students to 'get involved' at East. These qualities make Mr. Brown 'the best teacher' I have ever had."

Erica Evans

Michael Kueny

Your biggest challenge is the voice inside you that yells "I can't!" Do not listen. Push on. When you here the voice whisper "I can," it's the moment you discover that the person you thought you were is no match for the person you have become.
We are so very proud of you Michael!

"Man often becomes what he believes himself to be. If I keep on saying to myself that I cannot do a certain thing, it is possible that I may end by really becoming incapable of doing it. On the contrary, if I have the belief that I can do it, I shall surely acquire the capacity to do it even if I may not have it at the beginning."  M. G.

Congratulations!
We are so very proud of all you’ve done but are more proud of the person you’ve chosen to become.
Focus on what you want to do, hold your dream tightly to your heart. Now, believe in yourself. You will see yourself that much closer to your dream. Remember, we will always be by your side...

Our Amazing Blessing

We would need to buy all of the pages in this yearbook to be able to list all of the ways you have given us joy. For twelve years, every report card has made us proud, but you are so much more than grades on a paper. You have been an amazing, loving daughter and sister, and a blessing to so many friends. Whenever you have decided to reach for a goal, you have not let anything stand in your way, and you have pursued those goals with amazing passion and dedication. You have inspired those who know you, young and old, by your perseverance, leadership and faith. You are such a beautiful person, inside and out. As you prepare to leave for college, it is difficult to imagine not having you with us every day, but we know we would be depriving the world of someone truly special if we did not share you. We love you to the moon and back. May God continue to watch over you and bless you in all that you do.

All our love, Mom, Dad and Kristen
Jake Silpe

You have grown from an energetic and adorable boy to a mature, compassionate, intelligent and kind young man. We are so proud of you. You have accomplished so much. We love you and can't wait to share the next chapter of your life. May the most that you wish for be the least that you receive. Love, Mommy, Dad and Amanda.
