"A teacher affects eternity; no one knows where his influence stops."
Henry Adams
“Cherry Hill East – A caring community of scholars with a lifestyle of respect, kindness, gratitude and service to others while striving for excellence in all that we do.”

Dear Scholars of the Class of 2016:

The memory that I will cherish for a lifetime is being your principal for the past three school years. When I arrived during your sophomore year, you readily accepted East’s new Vision Statement; “Cherry Hill East, a caring community of scholars with a lifestyle of respect, kindness, gratitude and service to others while striving for excellence in all that we do.” Not only did you accept it, you became exemplary role models for others to emulate. You have earned the noble title of “scholar” by your academic achievement and behavior.

I sincerely hope that each of you will continue to seek knowledge, skills, share with others, and live a lifestyle of respect, kindness and gratitude. I hope you will remember our words of wisdom to you regarding your attitude and the profound influence it has on your life. Life often gives you whatever you expect from it. Hence, expect the best in everything, remain upbeat, seek solutions in any problem, believe in yourself and hold on to hope.

The quality of your life and the duration of your success depend on your attitude, and you are the only person in this world with the power to make it better. Dr. William Glasser said, “If you want to change attitudes, start with a change in behaviors. In other words, begin to act the part, as well as you can, of the person you would rather be; the person you most want to become.”

It is part of human nature to tend toward focusing on the negative, to pay more attention to what we don’t have instead of being grateful for what we do have. But here is the good news. We can teach ourselves to have a grateful attitude, regardless of the situation in which we find ourselves. A good way to start the process is to keep a gratitude journal and “count your blessings” each day. You can also teach yourself to stop during difficult times and turn your thinking toward what is good and right in the moment, even if it is something as simple as being grateful for your next meal or the clothes on your back. Training yourself to be grateful is a life skill that will help you navigate your way through life in a more positive direction.

Scholars of the Class of 2016, as you leave the East school community of scholars, please know that you have our best wishes for continued success. We, the faculty and staff, have done our very best to prepare you to be successful in the next step on your life’s journey. We hope that you will hold fast and pursue your dreams. Your dreams can give you direction, increase your potential and assist you in prioritizing what is best for your success.

Peace.

NATIONAL BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL OF EXCELLENCE
U.S. Department of Education Blue Ribbon School 2002-2003
Dear Class of 2016,

It has been a very rewarding experience to be your grade-level principal over the past four years! I have enjoyed observing you bond as a group and “take on” the multitude of challenges that are typically encountered by every class. With a holistic vantage point, I have studied and admired your process. The results you have achieved have been unparalleled!

It will be tough to top the highly organized and effective “Powder-Puff” coaching staff, the years of impressive choreography (Spirit Dance), the meeting and exceeding the tradition of academic excellence, the Boys Swimming Team “State Championship” after a come-from-behind victory in the 4x100m relay, the Girls Tennis Team winning several Sectional Titles, the Boys Basketball “State Championship” game at Rutgers, the Countrymen organizing busses to attend the games, 1000 point milestones, the mesmerizing art work generated by the art classes, the Anti-Bullying Club enrolling over 100 members, the addition of a PEP Band, the complexity of the Marching Band show, the nationally ranked Robotics Club, the “Hack-a-Thon” becoming a reality despite numerous obstacles, the individual State Championships achieved by several athletes, the “Stay Tuned” hit on Lifetime Television, the fantastic shows from our drama and music departments, Tulsa, Lip Sync, Ticket to Ride... all this and more attest that the CLASS OF 2016 is a dedicated, passionate, focused and tenacious group of scholars!

We embraced the diversity of our class and established RESPECT as our common denominator! Together we forged an environment based on a mutual respect between peers, teachers, administrators and the system as a whole. You, the students, demonstrated “CHARACTER” and poise well beyond your chronological age.

The “Dynamic Duo” of Ms. Radbill and Mr. Gagliardi complimented the high energy your class generated on a daily basis. They worked diligently to ensure we left EAST with many fond memories. Who will forget “SPIRIT WEEK”, the Freshmen Dance, the Sophomore Cotillion, the Junior Prom and the Senior Prom? WOW – did those four years fly by!

In a bittersweet turn of events, we will establish our last bond on June 16th – as you graduate, I will retire. My decision has caused those conflicted feelings of “moving on” to resurface after being dormant for 22 years. I feel what you feel – minus any stress or anxiety related to future exams or term papers. As you step into the unknown, know that we step together. Your experiences at EAST have given you the tools and talents to achieve your goals, and the community will be better for it!

A few thoughts generated over the years:

- Understand that your actions have a ripple effect. A simple smile has more impact than you might imagine. Be generous with those smiles and strive to share them every day!
- Remember that we are all dependent – our existence or current status is not the result of independent actions. Believe and participate in the “give and then receive” dynamic!
- Nurture relationships – they have more significance than one’s status, monetary gains and the like.

Please realize that you have created so many positive and indelible memories for me. Our simultaneous departure from East could not be a more fitting conclusion for my career in education. I wish you the best and I am excited to hear of the many diverse ways the CLASS OF 2016 takes advantage of its opportunities. Thank you and see you in 5!!!!

Sincerely,

This year's show, "Tulsa," is a musical about Black Walk Street and the Tulsa Race Riots that took place in Oklahoma in the 1920s. This vivacious town was birthed from the hands of former slaves who were looking to create a booming industrious new home for migrating African-Americans. The Greenwood section of Tulsa became an economically independent neighborhood made up of over 10,000 residents who worked to develop several black-owned businesses. During the town's peak of prosperity, it grew to 600 businesses, 21 churches and restaurants, 30 grocery stores, a hospital, bank, and its own school system. Greenwood was a one-of-a-kind story that many found comparable to New York's Wall Street, which allowed them to inherit the endearing nickname, Black Wall Street. In 1921, a race riot occurred which led to major destruction and left more than half of Greenwood homeless.

For many African-Americans, the definition of "home" derives from a displaced history. The story told through Tulsa depicts the value of "home" and the attempt to regain the familiar sense of comfort and love, specifically after tragedy. This sense of belonging and security are key elements that connect people from all backgrounds.

We did it!!

Our high school experiences wouldn't have been the same without one another. From out trips to the puppy barn, THE sleepover, obnoxiously loud lunch periods, and insane amounts of food... these are memories we will tell our kids. Ride or dies, wing mans, twisted sisters forever and no matter where we go after high school the love will remain ever present and grow in strength. Thank you for 4 beautiful years, and here's to many more...
