TABLE OF CONTENTS
To The Class Of 1972:

Your educational and social maturity is evidenced through the sincerity of purpose and attitudes demonstrated in the atmosphere of Cherry Hill High School East.

The administration and faculty have recognized the challenge that this spirit offers and the potential which the future holds for each student.

I now charge you with the responsibility of continued preparation for life experiences as a sound foundation for service to your country, fellowman, family and self.

Sincerely,

Thomas N. Cannavo

The bond between teacher and student is strange. Undefinable. It is constant yet with each passing year it is different. For the student, intimidation becomes respect, uncertainty—independence, and mistrust—friendship. An antagonist becomes a mentor. For the teacher, frustration becomes success, exasperation—understanding, coercion—guidance. Did they grow or did we? Did they change or did we?

THE BEST IS TRUE
OF ’72

Mrs. Saltzman—

To our class advisor and referee . . .

We give, in grateful recognition of services rendered:

Three years’ supply of runoff ballots.

Three hundred leftover cougar cushions, and three boxes of cream-filled Clover doughnuts.

The Best is True of ’72!
Many people don't realize it
BUT

Senior Officers do exist: they plot and plan how to raise money and how to spend it (for our benefit).

THANK YOU:
Dave Harrison, Vice-president
Scott Switzer, Treasurer
Glenn Willsey, President
Daryl Sharp, Secretary
Senior Senate—
An informal collaboration of students.
Administering and organizing.
Manufacturing memories for a hallmark year.
Once we were children,
Our lives made of pretend.
We played our games,
Dreamed our dreams,
Built our castles in the sand.
But the tide came in and
They were no more.
And time, like the tide,
Has washed away our childhood.
Put away your toys.
It is now but a memory.

BRIDGE TO
To many, high school seems like a game. Ours is one that can be played by as many as 650 people. There are rules to follow, too many to be explained, yet, one is obvious: everyone MUST start in ninth grade.

Dark gray blocks are self-explanatory: light gray blocks, although empty, do have a purpose. They represent such activities as study halls, gazing out the window in English, or sleeping through Calculus.

Good luck in the game (you'll need it) and we hope you graduate!

Colouring the world in a rosy glow:
a prism.

Scattering, once more, the light of a more romantic past;
Diverging and reflecting to form a theme:
"Colour My World"
Homecoming—
for East, a premiere.
Beauty and floats—
and gridiron victory—
Molding into a shiny whole:
    a mirror of our four years.

. . . reminds me of the happiness and good times I once knew.
... footsteps in the hall
to tell me I've been this way before . . .

... nevermore.

Are we ready?

We have been given all of the components for existence; education, security, encouragement and insight. Can we take these tools and weld a world of our choice? Let us look deep into our own beings and question whether we want to be a reflection of yesterday or the promise of a new tomorrow? The answer . . . . . .

“... may I graduate well and earn honors in life.”

Congratulations to you and to each of your classmates for whom graduation day is a very special occasion.

We wish you success and happiness in the years ahead.

As you seek new goals and conquer the problems you will face, perhaps you may benefit in sharing a motto which has helped guide us since 1873:

Inveniemus viam aut faciemus . . .

“We will find a way or make one.”

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is with the joy of freedom and the sadness of leaving that we end the book, this year. We wish success and happiness to the members of our class. We hope that in the past four years there has been growth, experience, good times, and that these years will always be memorable.

We wish to thank everyone who has contributed the fragments of time, energy, and thought that have made a unit of the 1972 Eidolon.

Special thanks to:
Mr. Robert Potts for his enthusiasm and confidence in us
East Side for sharing the "room"
Night custodians for their good humor even at midnight
All of the staffs for their indispensable and varied services
63 people who donated their rings
Mrs. Jean Feltus
Guidance counselors and secretaries
Chauffeurs and caterers
Stuart Weiss, Karen Hamburg, Phillip Austin, Richard Withers
Our patient photographer, Mike Deitsch
Our #1 spot-toner, Sally Parker
Assistant literary editor, Joanna Balcarek
Assistant art editor, Lillian Lochanko
Business advisor, Mrs. Harilee Saltzman
Literary advisor, Mr. Barry Jacobs
Photography advisor, Mr. Glenn Berryann
General advisor, Mrs. Jody Leopold—commuter, mother, worrier, most important helper
Paragon
Mrs. Helen Rockel, and Strawbridge and Clothier

The 1972 cover of Eidolon intends to create a graphic representation of the flowing transition of past experiences which will extend beyond high school, to encompass new horizons. —Lillian Lochanko
