To experience the passing of four years is to collect countless memories...

Each one of us is a treasury of individual emotions and personal experiences. By exploring this treasury, our years at school can be remembered and represented through the images that are Eidos. As we glance through these pages we recall the moods, feelings and ideas that have molded our existence here. Looking back, we realize how some experiences which were once very meaningful are now insignificant, although they have contributed to our growth and maturity. It is this maturity which enables us to look back on high school with humor tinged with regret. These poignant memories are...
... the awe and bewilderment of incoming freshmen... thousands of swirling bodies sweeping past
... crisp autumn-Saturdays... flashes of red and white dancing... waiting for glorious victory, or a Shattering defeat... voices merging into united cheers...

"Hurrah for Cougars!"
... endless lines of buses; friendly giants resigned to their fate... the finale of another day
...regimented routines...
late passes, early dismissal passes, passes for passes... locker clean-out...starting the morning—"May I have your attention, please,
for morning announcements?"
sneaking a butt in the lavatory... pulling fire alarms... swapping centerfolds between History and English... cutting... we look back upon these misdeeds with guilty amusement... yet they too form an integral part of the high school experience...
... seniors at last... driving
... P.S.A.T.'s, S.A.T.'s, Achievements, college applications
"Anticipation"... a look to the future, but still "Spirited
We of '73"
...four years have ended...joy, yet sadness...high school...
Nevermore.
We are the last of a most memorable beginning. Our three predecessors, who graced these halls, were here such a short time, yet are never to be forgotten. To us, they left a brilliant legacy: success in the classroom, a heritage of victory on the athletic fields and active participation in all facets of school life. To them, the classes of 1970, '71 and '72, whose accomplishments have served as a source of inspiration, we, the class of 1973, dedicate our Eidolon.

The Class of 1973 is to be highly complimented for its interest in numerous student activities and scholastic achievement.

Many of you have made early decisions concerning the paths you will follow through life’s numerous adventures and others have indicated the direction of their objectives.

Your experiences will be many and varied. Your choices will be tested, tried, and retested again and again.

I take this opportunity to express the pleasure I have shared with you during the past four years both as student and friend.

Follow your endeavors living them with a strong spirit of participation, full respect for your family, community, state, country and yourself.

Best wishes in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Thomas N. Cannavo

NO MORE PENCILS . . .

Sometime in the space between childhood and adulthood, we experience something experts call maturity. We feel the need for someone’s guidance, respect and love.

NO MORE BOOKS . . .

Each September, we are thrust into a teacher’s arms with the assumption that an amiable relationship will develop.

Sometimes a teacher disappoints us, abusing our trust.

Most times, we do get along; although often the relationship is an impersonal one. Teachers help us to explore new ideas, attempting to trade their knowledge for our enthusiasm.

But once in a while we may encounter a special teacher:
One who knows the secret of mixing restriction with freedom.
One who knows how and when to discipline us.
One who cares about us.

And someday when we look back, we will realize how much we appreciated those special teachers, how much they added to our learning experience, how much we matured . . .

AND NO MORE TEACHER’S DIRTY LOOKS.

EAST SIDE, June, 1972: "Michael Perzin, John Toothman, Arthur Bartolozzi and Dolores McCargo were elected as officers of the Class of 1973 . . . ."

"849,160 paper napkins were discovered today in an attempt to smuggle 60,000 'What's Up' buttons into Cherry Hill Stadium. The napkins were disguised, informed sources said, as a homecoming parade float. Senior officers declined to comment . . . ."

“What do you mean you didn’t bring us any cigars?” . . .

“Pst . . . Hey—you wanna buy a used Crucible ticket?” . . .

So it began—so it ended. Senior Room nevermore.

We are freshmen... oh, I thought this was the boys' locker room; gee it was nice of that kid to sell me an elevator pass; that's right, turn left after you pass the swimming pool... what's that strange sound at the end of every period?... general science... Miss March, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Kim, and Mr. Saulnier... who cares about learning the names of all these dumb rocks... A Separate Peace... who's Mr. Grasso?... what's Up?... What's a Paper Lion?... our first dance is a huge success... of course, I'll pay my dues... "We'll Do One Of a Job: Perzin, Berman, Horrow, Banks... fantastic football season: 8-1...

We are seniors... finally... F = ma... that should give you an answer somewhere in the ballpark of... oh no, there's another Grasso in the world... only 150 days until graduation... 230? That's a pretty low SAT score! What did you get on the other half?... What do you mean 'the other half'?... Beowulf is a fairy... You say you're applying to Princeton, Yale, Harvard and Camden County... NOTICE! OCCUPANCY BY MORE THAN 500 PERSONS IN THE SENIOR ROOM IS UNLAWFUL AND APT TO GIVE MR. GRASSO A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN... only 110 days until graduation... trashrags “get it on”!... those New Jersey State tests were ridiculously easy!... I wonder why?... I think we got the fourth grade version by mistake... what do you mean, I have to pay for my yearbook?... the end is approaching... I've been accepted at my first choice school... count the days... pomp and circumstance... “And now I present the Class of 1973”

“... may I graduate well and earn honors in life.”

Congratulations to you and to each of your classmates for whom graduation day is a very special occasion.

We wish you success and happiness in the years ahead.

As you seek new goals and conquer the problems you will face, perhaps you may benefit in sharing a motto which has helped guide us since 1873:

Inveniemus viam aut faciemus...

“We will find a way or make one.”

We need more paper.

Hey... Mr. Berryann!

Monday

Erk! Erk! Will you help me with these layouts?

Carry you get more vertical features on a double-page spread?

What about awards?

Erk! Erk!... E... r... c! Thank you for your stamina, creativity and dedication.

Well, staff, here it is—tomorrow and it’ll all be done. 376 pages of team shots, senior portraits, and your hard work. For us, it’s never been less than great. Thanks for all you’ve done.

Lori and Dave
Our stay was marked by little things,
The youthful trivialities
That lent our time here flashing wings
And turned dreams to realities...

For us, the learning here is done.
These halls will echo no more.
But learning's like the rising sun
That shines beyond an open door:
We've learned to walk; it's time to run
Towards boundless knowledge...

...Evermore.
