One. Alone. An individual character, isolated from the impersonal masses which surround him. Unwillingly trapped in the inevitable passage of time, he is obliged to move along. A being who is suddenly thrust into a new environment—apprehensive of fresh beginnings, wary of unfamiliar involvements, and frightened by the haunting shadow of loneliness.
Lost within the teeming voices which encompass him, he remains apart, unapproached by others.

Empty halls are silent, save for the thundering echo of footsteps.

Each is consciously alone, clinging to the safe confines of past experience, yet anxious to extend his meager bounds. Drifting, he remains a separate body, still to be mellowed into a more perfect form.
Minds functioning separately are reassured by the presence of others. The work, though parallel, is performed without interaction.
As relationships evolve, the pace quickens. People, possessing mutual concerns, draw themselves together along common paths.
Teams of students work diligently within the accepted routine of classroom procedure. Projects, which always run smoothly (Is it raining in here?), are organized and precise.
Sound and motion blend together in a burst of enthusiasm. People, representing the diversification of a school, intermingle to create a unified whole. Through the constant exchange of ideas, aspirations, and confidences, characters unfold into broader dimensions.
Absorbed in his thoughts, the world moves on unnoticed.
Notes spill out over an otherwise empty stage. Ambition creates his only audience. Deep in his concentration, he weaves a symphony of memories.
Tomorrow the cycle begins again. He stands alone, accompanied only by his dreams. Reaching out, he extends himself to others. In return, he gains from them, adding to the completion of an ever-growing entity. The progression is eternal.

One. Alone.

Faculty is an indifferent name for a group of unique individuals. Teachers do not try to drum lessons into a student's head. Rather, they endeavor to instruct one on using the facts he has gained. Drawing students together, they are still able to add a special touch to a pupil's personal growth.
To the Class of 1974:

I look at this class, the Class of 1974, as a reflection of the total concept of change occurring in society, and the resultant influence upon the educational system during the past four years.

You have weathered this upheaval well. You have blended in the extremes of pressures with limited experience, exposure to pro's and con's, books, communication media and common sense to produce a thoughtful direction for future achievements.

Now is the time to give the paramount thought to your future. Evaluate your past, react objectively, step lightly in new paths, look for sound solutions, and call upon judgment in order to succeed.

Achievements that you leave behind as the Class of 1974 will be recorded in the development of Cherry Hill High School East. Scholastically, academically, socially, and in the realm of activities you have been successful.

On behalf of the Board of Education, administration and faculty, I congratulate you and wish you the best of life's offering for the future.

Sincerely yours,

Ugh! Getting up early again; it's still dark. I spent half the day in homeroom. It seemed like a year. Never fail, I'm with the same creeps again. Who'd ever think there were so many misfits with the same last name as me.

The climax of the day—I must have been crazy when I threw together this schedule. I got stuck with the hardest history teacher, the pickiest English teacher, and now my math teacher wants carbon copies of all my work. This is going to be a long year.

Some vacation this is going to be. My term paper took care of that.

Strange, but these past few days have been a lot of fun. So many kids have gone on vacation. We haven’t been doing too much—just sitting around talking or listening to records. You know, when I finally got to talk to some of my teachers, they turned out to be half-way decent after all.

Dolly Madison and my art teacher shared a birthday today. Naturally, we gave them a surprise party. Unfortunately, Dolly couldn't make it.
It's the end. I was so anxious to get out, but now I'm not so sure. Since yearbooks have been given out, no one is bothering to go to class. I'm coming because I realize that in a couple of days, I won't be involved with my teachers anymore. I didn't always like them, but now I don't want to leave. I've learned a lot from my teachers, and it wasn't all classroom stuff, either. I really feel like I've gained something from having known them as people, not just as disciplinarians. They put in so much time, and we gave them so much grief. I don't envy them, yet I admire them. They're such a dedicated bunch.

The opinions expressed are those of the editorial board and staff and are not necessarily the views of the faculty, administration, or the Board of Education.

Declaration of principles

Our job demands not only service to the students and community of Cherry Hill East but a sustained promise to provide an open forum of expressions for all.

EAST SIDE is more than a school newspaper. It is an outlet for all modes of expression as well as an informative medium for a student and faculty audience. We realize the responsibility which is required of any publication. In fulfilling that responsibility, we dedicate ourselves to the following principles:

1. An unswerving adherence to the Canons of Journalism and the general ethics of a newspaper.
2. A continual watch on the concerns of Cherry Hill East with special attention to problems having a direct effect on students.
3. Immediate action on any school difficulty brought to our attention.
4. Courage to publish "controversial" material even under administrative or other pressure.

As any other student organization, we cannot successfully function without student concern. We urge and invite letters to the editors. This is the only way in which your voices can be directly heard. Another demonstration of your concern is the purchasing and reading of EAST SIDE.

This is your school newspaper. We pledge our part but it requires two to participate.

Marching Band

The field throbs with the exhilarating beat of the marching band. People mesh together in intricate formations, determined to get the right step. Waving bright banners, they transform a barren field into an outstanding vision. Their hard work has gained for them the reputation of the "award-winning Cougar Marching Band."

(To the tune of the “Notre Dame Fight Song”)

Cheer, cheer for our Cougar Band
We play a tune and you give a hand
As our Mr. “R.” declares,
“We’re shaped like a dog’s hind leg.”

We never, ever stand still
Even when Mr. “B.”'s voice is shrill
“What the heck,” you toot, “who cares!
Nothing can stop our band?”
One person competes against many talents in order to gain the privilege of joining the team. Once this is achieved, he must learn to combine his strengths with those of others so that they may create a consolidated body. Although once opposing figures, the team members are now sharing a common spirit.
With straining muscles and fatigued brain, the athlete weathered tedious hours and countless late buses. To him, the midnight hours of homework and the crushing moments of defeat are underscored by the triumph and glory of victories. Success in performance, after the long months of tribulation, is the ultimate reward. To the true athletic spirit, these pages are dedicated.

"Do you think they give extra credit?"

"My chem. teacher knows a lot about moles." "Oh really, what does he feed them?"

"My rank is 1004. Do you think I'll get into Harvard?"

LEHI: Carol Swift, Eric Swift, Linda Sykes, Jeanne Szramski, Douglas Taggart, Mark Taylor, Theodore Thomason, Kim Thron, David Thurston, Jocelynn Tice, Catherine Tilroe, Patrice Todd, Marguerite Toliver, Jeffrey Toll, Kent Tomaselli, Beth Tomasoni, Patricia Toothman, Eric Townell, Brian Trent, Scott Trinkle, Donna Troiano, Jerome True, Donna Truesdell, Robert Turco, Jr., Lois Turner, Jean Twaddell, Mary Udziinski, Brian Uhlman, Barbara Ulmer, Elliott Utain, Gary Valansky, Dussen Vander, Dana Vaughan, Venise Vincek, Mark Viscidy, Nicholas Visminas, Scott Vurgason, Barry Wallace, Denise Walling, Julia Wargo.

"Ten couples signed up for the Junior Prom. I think they're all Sophomores."

The senior represents the epitome of experience. After weathering the first three years, he looks toward new opportunities with excitement and sometimes timidity. No longer to return to a familiar school, he must encounter the world knowing that graduation is only another beginning.

People so seldom say I love you and then it's too late . . . or love goes . . . so when I tell you I love you . . . it doesn't mean I know you'll go, only that I wish you didn't have to . . .

Robin
In Remembrance of Lita Sonrisa Luby

A smile is like a golden key,
That opens any gate;
It also locks the iron door
To jealousy and hate.

Be sure you never lose your key
And keep it free from rust,
Use it daily, let it shine
With the golden glow of trust.

Your smile will start a chain of smiles
And as the links grow strong,
You'll forge a chain of friends like gold
So pass your smile along.

Freshman year... Parlez-vous Espanol?... Can Miss Scanello and Mike Douglas truly find happiness?... The chicken salad seemed to have a special tang today... Half-days till Thanksgiving—I love Wednesdays!... Officers: Jewel Nelson, Andrea Holmes, Sue Palmer, Terry Hooper... I sold 450 candy bars. My mom's made Nestle's Crunch brownies, Nestle's Crunch cakes, but who ever heard of Nestle's Crunch meatballs?... I had to graph the weather for the last three weeks—if you miss a day or two, just connect the dots... Smoking transferred from bathrooms to courtyard... Drug Day was a real downer...

Sophomore year... I have 700 notecards. Maybe I should narrow my topic... Officers: Virginia Mullelly, Rip Hale, Ivy Jacobs, Michele Stark. Miss Kornberger, advisor... I was taking a speed test and caught my fingers in the keys (10 words a minute)!... Amoebas have a split personality... I can't find any books on the Middle Ages. Maybe they didn't exist... Marlon Brando's come a long way from On the Waterfront to Tango... Smoking transferred from the courtyard back to the bathrooms... Leave a Living Legacy... How did a fire ever get started in that locker in B-wing? Who cares—we got out of class, didn't we?...
Junior year... Are you wearing bobbie socks and saddle shoes for Spirit Week?—Was that name Sonny Presley or Elvis Goldfin?... Officers: Rip Hale, Bruce King, Dan Weiner (with the blonde hair), Michele Stark. Mrs. Rollin, class advisor!... I got my electron so excited that it skipped two orbitals!... Flash!... I didn’t go to the area to schedule myself; I just wanted to see the animals... Was that really a horn that Jr. Mister Jackson had down his pants?... Did anyone ever figure out what Billy Budd’s shoe symbolized?... Is it true that Dennis Smyth used to be an interior decorator?...
Senior year... Finally!... How fat is your head?... They should have made Christmas vacation 4 months longer... Isn't a first period sunrise romantic?... We're studying the heavenly bodies in Physics (what do you mean, whose?)... Which did you find more fascinating—The Twilight of the Presidency or Communism: A Narrative History?... The ski trip was cancelled due to an excess of snow... Temporary: No Student Parking... Hey, did you just see a guy with army boots and a hard yellow hat ride past our 3rd floor window?... 300 kids absent—is this a flu or senioritis epidemic?... Turning 18—as easy as ABC!... We should streak down the up staircase. The hall monitors couldn't grab us by our sleeves! (but would still ask for a pass)... What did you say was the weakest link in our government?... Tom Jones has a nice pear... They can't collect our I.D. cards—we wanted to burn them! Should we take this case to the Supreme Court?...

Special thanks to:

Mike Deitsch for not complaining when taking pictures, printing pictures, reprinting pictures, and re-reprinting pictures. For his help and advice, Terry McGovern, even though he knows everything about us. George Jackson without whom any art work in this book would have been impossible. Mrs. Alessandrino for keeping our books even when we couldn't. Mrs. Rollin and the senior class for their support. Night Custodians for cheerfully working around us, over us, behind us . . . The four freshmen who donated their names and faces. Mr. Sabin and the Guidance office. Miss Bruno, for finding our mistakes and making them public. American Yearbook and Jack Rozelle, the faceless entity with all the answers. East Side for letting us invade their room when the winter set in. Mrs. Lombardo and Mr. Pitard, Strawbridge and Clothiers. Mr. Berryann and photography for their long hours in the dark. Communications. Mrs. Starr, our substitute literary advisor. McDonald's for breakfast, lunch and dinner. The 4:30-bus-bunch for their unsolicited advice and unending criticism. Mr. Knouse and Mr. Stalcup for their correct(?) way of identifying pictures. Hope—for letting activities use her house even though they should have been at school. Roget's Thesaurus. Nancy Oken—cover design. Judy Leopold for helping us, tolerating us, and freezing with us for ten months (except for Tuesdays).
Eidolon '74 - "Let's Make a List!"
(Ta-da-da-Da-ta-Da!)

theme deadline - art editors? What are they? Where are they?
can you stage a picture that doesn't look staged?
0699806998069980699806998069980699806998
Cindy, can you develop a busline?
Well, sound it be blue or green... GRAY... now about toreador? I DON'T LIKE IT. 20-1, Sheila; you lose!

first deadline -
Ellen and Linda, all we wanted was 4 Big Macs,
3 1/4-lbers, 19 fries, 3 rootbeers, 6okes, 9 shakes,
and a hamburger without a roll....
Mom, stop. send sleeping bag. stop. yes, I am still alive, stop. send money for Egg McMuffin. stop.
But kathy, I know sales ended a month ago - but I have to buy a book - I'm Ed. in Chief!

second deadline -
Ruth-Marilyn, you mean you don't know the 19th kid in the 12th row from the bottom of the
"Ivy, I think we're going the wrong way!"
Eli, we'll get those chairs yet!
Sue, eat a word...
Dear Staff,

Although the smaller incidents like those recorded on this page may be forgotten, we hope that you will carry with you a sense of accomplishment and totality in what we have created. A part of each of us has gone into this book making it a veritable e idolon of our individual experiences, aspirations and concepts of life. We thank you for contributing your time, your effort and your thoughts, but more importantly, we thank each of you for giving of yourself.

Linda

One. Alone. The student moves away from the immediate past. The reality of the last moment and the anxiety of the future press heavily.

The cycle begins again. Once more, he must venture onto new paths and establish himself in unfamiliar surroundings. Armored with the lessons of the past four years, he pushes toward higher reaches.

The progression is eternal.
