Friendship, breathing, living, growing, reaching, tranquility, dawn.
Friendship is...
The relationship between people created by the desire to belong.
I look for someone to talk with to dream with to think with to sing with to laugh with to cry with to share with to understand someone to be my friend.
Filled with joy and love;
wanting to share it.
A smile, at glance will do—
Somehow it always does.
We maneuver through life... dabbling and miring here... absorbing and mastering there... a world of variables. Friendships develop uniting our lives, meshing the good with the bad, making it all worthwhile—a world of variables.
Friendship often comes quietly, but you know when it's there. All of a sudden you aren't alone anymore. The emptiness inside is gone.
Friends
I can conquer all my dreams and weather all hardships with a little help from my friends.

ADVERTISEMENTS ....................... 333
Our school is comprised of three basic elements: the students, the faculty and the administration. Friendships between these groups improve both the quality of our education and our lives. Our successes and our failures become theirs as well.

While the student body is an ever-changing factor, the faculty and the administration remain relatively constant. They who have tried to prepare us for the complicated adult world we are about to enter, will remain to prepare those after us. To these dedicated people we owe our sincerest thanks.
Administration

To The Class of 1975:

As you complete this major step in your life and prepare to leave Cherry Hill High School East it is hoped that you will look with pleasure upon your years at East and be proud of that which you have accomplished.

As a class, you have represented your school well and as you launch upon the next phase of your life there is every indication that you are ready to accept the challenge of caring for tomorrow.

Life contains many complex pressures and anxieties but at the same time offers opportunities and challenges that were unknown a few years past.

May you find a purpose and direction that will not only provide for your personal fulfillment, but will also enable you to share with others that which you are and have, thus experiencing a most satisfying and meaningful life.

On behalf of the Board of Education, administration and faculty, I wish to extend to you our congratulations for a job well done and best wishes for a rewarding future.

Very sincerely,

Activities

Clubs, dances, pep rallies, car washes, bake sales, hoagie sales, athletic teams, concerts, bonfires, floats, meetings, proms, trips... These are but a few of the numerous activities available to East students. Each activity offers a unique educational opportunity. Substituting people for books, we become aware of others in the world around us.

When an elite group of talented people come together in an effort to develop a creative, interesting, meaningful yearbook, what results is a year of laughs, tears, anger, impatience, a couple of nervous breakdowns, and most of all the best yearbook ever to wear the title of EIDOLON.
The student newspaper has an important role to play—role that combines representation with leadership. Change always germinates with the small and grows into the large, as the pioneer breaks the ground for the road or the school. The East Side staff recognizes this need...its obligation to inform, its right to advocate, and its duty to reflect. But there is a greater task, a necessity to take the perforated segments of a fragmented school and make sense of them. Lack of communication. Alienated freshmen. A new principal. Overcrowded classrooms. The East Side staff, always striving to be infallible interpreters, amateur analysts, and "prime movers."

Variety Show Committee

Student Council consists of the people who endeavor to make our school a better place for us all. They seek to improve, to succeed, to express. They put forth an effort to find the spirit which lies somewhere within our school. Student Council is a means by which we communicate.

UNDERSTANDING . . .
That coach on the sideline;
Offering encouragement, correcting a wrong,
Commending a right.

INSPIRING . . .
Those friends in the stands;
Waving, cheering.
Pulling for you.

EMPATHIZING . . .
That fellow athlete, who knows your strengths and weaknesses;
Comforting you after a defeat,
Sharing your joy and pride after a victory.

You can always tell they're freshmen...

...They're the ones with the most spirit at pep rallies.

...They're the ones in the lavatories who are holding the cigarettes but never smoking them.

...They're the ONLY ones anxious to get into the type "A" lunch line.

FRESHMAN: How do I get to the library from here?

SENIOR: Well, let's see . . . Go to the end of this hallway and then go up the stairs. When you pass the attendance office, make a left. When you get to "D" wing, go down the stairs and follow the signs to the boy's gym. It'll be right next to the gym on your right.

FRESHMAN: Thanks, man.

You can always tell they’re freshmen...

... They’re the ones with the brand new East Jackets.

... They’re the ones with the confused looks.

Sophomore year,
When all those I's become II's,
When it's one-down-three-to-go,
When it all becomes a little too familiar.

I know my way around.
I know all the excuses.
I know how to get away with it.
And how to get around it.
I'm a sophomore now.

Finally
After a year
A chance to participate
A chance to spend an afternoon
At home
With friends
Or alone
Finally, my just reward

Junior year:
Chemistry and even Driver’s Ed.
A tux and a corsage.

Being a junior is really being almost-a-senior. We're called "upper-classmen" and are privileged enough to eat and talk with seniors in Cafeteria I. We play on the varsity teams, side by side with the seniors. In fact, we're just as good as seniors; we're merely one year younger.

Junior year—an abrupt realization that high school is fleetingly becoming a part of the past and the future is suddenly becoming the present.
Yesterdays
A hundred of them filled with the joy and
Wonder that a thousand tomorrows may never bring.
The events of yesterday take their final form
Between the pages of a book.
Such a little thing
To hold the accomplishments of men;
Such an important thing
To hold the key to memories.
The historic day was September 9, 1971. On this date we first entered the labyrinth of corridors known as Cherry Hill High School East. As Freshmen, we were the youngest, the meekest, the weakest, but cutest underclassmen in the entire school.

As Juniors, we saw the light . . . but not until the middle of first period. We were finally upperclassmen, beginning our days in total darkness. Whenever the subject of money was brought up at a class meeting, the meeting was adjourned. Somehow, we did manage to have our Junior prom, "Sunshine." The hard work and planning led to a successful and memorable evening.

As Sophomores, we became acquainted with what high school was all about. There were the pretzel sales, with the Pretzel King, our President; the candy sales, which were somewhat less than successful, but fun for the few who peddled those chocolate bars; and the very first Fifties Dance at East, when all the girls went crazy as Sonny "did his thing."

In September, 1974, we realized that we had finally made it. Our friends and classmates were now the captains of the athletic teams, and held respectable positions within the school. The class officers were constantly working to please us with activities. The bonfire was a psyche session which brought forth Spirit . . . nonexistent before this event. We anxiously awaited our last activities together as high school students: a class trip, our Senior prom, and finally, graduation.

As we look back on these past four years, we see not a nightmare but a dream; a dream filled with happiness and sadness, victory and defeat, smiles and tears. Yet most of all, we look back upon the friendships, which will remain with us forever.
The Beginning:

ELECTIONS ... END OF JUNIOR YEAR ... SUMMER VACATION ... PLANNING ...
BATTLE OF THE BANDS ... HOMECOMING ... BONFIRE ... SKI TRIP ... SENIOR
SENATE MEETINGS ... FUNDRAISERS ... CLASS DUES ... CAPS AND GOWNS
... SENIOR ROOM ... DOWNINGTOWN INN ... BLOOD DRIVE ... CHERRY HILL INN, MAY 30th, SENIOR PROM ... Four special people have tried to make the class of '75 one which will not be forgotten at CHHSE. They have endeavored to enable their classmates to enjoy what it is truly like to be a SENIOR ...

Class Will

The class of '75 being of sound (?) mind and body, does hereby bequeath the following:
To Miss Bruno—the last word.
To Mrs. Kooperstein—straight edges, straight edges and more straight edges.
To the Chemistry Department—a mole of green peas.
To the Juniors—SAT scores, college apps., senior teachers (Oh, boy), the prom, class trips, troubles, aggravation and Billy Budd.
To East Side—a Ken Stutz doll; squeeze it and it says, "I don't understand."
To the Biology Department—A manual entitled, "How to Repair Everything Broken by a Clumsy Lab Aide."
To Mr. D. Smyth—a one-way ticket to Bayonne, New Jersey and a broken compass.
To Mr. Terranova—an enormous "Tootsie" Roll.
To Mr. Grinnals—one lemon!!
To Mr. Loscalzo—a bottle of freckle remover and the 2nd edition of, "How to Aggravate your Students," by Dr. Mole.
To Mr. Wiltsee—a lot of sheets!
To Mrs. Seidel—a years supply of report cards, interims and absentee notes.
To Mr. Cole, from last year’s 1st period History IIIA class—150 copies of "Future Shock" to burn.
To Mr. Serfass—2 points. Nice show!!
To Mr. Miles—vending machines in every room.
To Mr. Simon—free rights to the U of P microfilm reader of all pre-1900 newspaper documentaries.
To Mr. Kovaliech—a collapsible full length mirror.
To the hall monitors—"I'm not cutting. I'm conscientiously abstaining."
To Mr. Brunner—a thousand notecards.
To Mrs. Grippi—eleven openings in the Kay Amore Grippi Wooden Spoon Association.

Lisa Lochanko leaves the school with one less pianist.
Pat Moran leaves his high heels in the trash can.
Our twins, Jocelyn and Vicki leave their mark in the Music Department.
Penny Wright leaves a vile of fruit flies to Wiltz.
Jill Sabin leaves her dad with Guidance.
Slade leaves a broken chair to Miss Hagan.
Mike Calvin leaves Perkins Pancakes to Perkin’s Pancakes.
Jeff Toll leaves the job to Howard Cosell.
Rich Glassman leaves the cooking to the girls.
Tricia Foran leaves her red wholly sneakers in locker number C-522.
Jeff Smith leaves Cherry Hill East for better places.
Gail Newman leaves her sexy walk to no one.
Cory Rust leaves his football shirt to Mr. Wood.
Laura Nelson leaves her individuality as an inspiration.
Dee Morrissey leaves her red & white pom poms to Miss Gorman.
Margo Ellis leaves yearbook with General Grippi.
Linda Giard leaves Chemistry for the birds.
Chuck Gaydos leaves his schedule at Guidance.
Jeff Leute leaves the school with "a lot of luck."
Gretchen Farenbruch leaves a present to the nurse for all the times she cut class and slept on the cots.
Susan Guastavino leaves Mrs. L. Reed a 450 page book, on "How to Decipher Hieroglyphics."
The class of '75 wishes success to all future classes, and with us will remain the memories we shall cherish forever, and how we got by:
"With a little help from our friends."
Days At East

Class—due to over-crowding, I'm afraid we must adjust to our relocation.

I'm late for my English class, but I forgot the combination.

Check this book out... or else!

Do you have an I.D. card?

Err... No.

Put the book back!

I told you it wouldn't work!

Just up!

Ring!

Hahahaha!

Shame! Shame!

Fire pull

Warning: pulling alarm causes unnecessary punishment.

Fire pull

Warning: pulling alarm causes unnecessary punishment.
DAYS AT EAST

Some People Regard
School As A Prison.

This Attitude
Must Be Stopped!

What We Need
Is Trust!

I Think
I Wounded
Him!

We Must See School As An Institute
Of Learning.

DAY AT EAT

This is number 41.
It has to work!

Hello, Sue,
was...

What am I
going to do?

Something Wrong, Max?

The proms
A week away
And I still don't have a date.

Don't worry I'll take care of it.

Thanks,
you're a real friend!

The next day

Don't worry, everything is taken care of. Your date's
name is Pat and you'll meet at 8 o'clock.

Yes Prom Night!
Excuse me,
Have you
seen Pat?

Oh, Sam,
Pat!

HA!

HA!

HA!

New Principal Arrives at East January 1975

Cherry Hill Public Schools

Member of the Class of 1975:

Congratulations to you on the occasion of your graduation from high school.

You will someday look back upon the year of your high school graduation as a time of serious national stress.

Present economic conditions are unstable as unemployment and inflation rates continue to remain at high levels. World peace and security continue to be elusive ideals with tensions building among people in many continents.

There is much to be done in the world, and you are about to share in doing it.

My best wishes to each and every one of you as you pursue your role as a contributor to the community of mankind.

Bernard D. Shapiro
Principal
John Dotti Retires

Six years ago John Dotti first arrived at Cherry Hill High School East. Since then he has distinguished himself by his warm friendship, his keen sense of humor, and his genuine interest in all who make up the school community. These qualities have earned him the friendship and respect of students, parents, and his colleagues. We extend our thanks for his years of dedicated service, our congratulations upon his retirement, and our wishes that he enjoy much good health and happiness in the future.

Yesterdays
A hundred of them filled with the joys and wonder that a thousand tomorrows may never bring.
The events of yesterday take their final form between the pages of a book.
Such a little thing to hold the accomplishments of men.
Such an important thing to hold the
Key to memories.

Acknowledgements

Our deepest thanks to:

Mike Deitsch, for just being Mike Deitsch when we needed you.
Terry McGovern, for the donuts, your 1959 stories, finding our finger pictures, and putting up with ripped shirts, popped buttons and the . . . CENSORED.
Mr. Goldman. Literary cannot not describe our thanks to you, but you'll think of something.
Miss Bruno, for your last word, and we hope that's it.
Mrs. Alessandrino, for padding our FIGURES.
Josten's American Yearbook and Betty Lose, for making our yearbook. Hope to hear from you soon!
Vantine Studios, for your talents. A job well done.
Mrs. Dallas and the senior class, for the use of the senior room.
Mr. Berryann, for his efforts.
Mr. Jackson, for his typewriter and humor.
Mr. Sabin and the guidance office, for opening their files to us, and all their guidance.
Art Classes of F-15, for being creative despite our interruptions and noise and laughing and yelling and whimpers and confusion and . . .
Mrs. Grippi, for her patience and humor, her accent and wooden spoons, and for her guidance and talents. Most of all, for giving us the inspiration needed to create an EIDOLON that will live forever.

A special thanks to Gregg Bannett and Ken Van Dyk for contributing their skills in photography.

Yea, what about them?
Where are they?

How does one begin to express a warmth deep within oneself... a warmth kindled by each of you on staff.
You met a stranger one August morning. Her accent was different. She voiced new ideas and goals. We have learned from each other, each contributing some form of expertise.
This book represents the combined efforts of many long, hard hours of work, frustration, laughter, tears, creativity, and a fine sense of responsibility to oneself and to each other.
Thanks to each of you this stranger feels very much at home, here at East.
