Memories... of the way we were
Into these four years are woven unforgettable memories of the fun and the work, the games and the practices, the shows and the rehearsals, the activities and the meetings. Despite the hard work and long hours of devotion, the outcome was always terrific. Be it a championship team, first-rate play, or acceptance into the college of your choice, it has all been worthwhile and will be remembered in the years to come.
Do you remember

the times

of your life?
If we should live a thousand years
.... our time is today.
- James Montgomery
Memories are bound within the pages of this book. In the years to come we will open up this book and re-live the highlights of our high school years.
To have Friends is to know Happiness
Yesterday, the perfect vision of what every tomorrow should be. Even if tomorrow does not live up to our expectations, the memories of yesterday will endure forever.
The multitude of time:
The past is over, yet with memories it can be relived. The present is alive and fighting hard.
While the future is still a vision, a dream of what is to come.
Did you ever stop to think for a moment, and wonder what this world would be like without the love of our friends?
Cherish yesterday

Dream tomorrow

Live Today
As humans in this day and age we need Time to grow, Time to think, Time to live, Time to explore, Time to love and Time to laugh, but most of all we need Time to be a friend.

Does anyone know anyone who knows anyone in this picture?
One year condensed into three hundred pages. Ten months of fun (and school) compressed into one book. Even though putting this year's Eidolon was hard work, the job got done because everyone worked together. There were layouts to be completed, pictures to be taken, and art to be done. All of this plus a good time add up to an album of everyone's fondest memories of the 78-79 year at East. This book is ours. It is full of the times of our lives. So enjoy!
PROPOSALS FOR THE "PERFECT" EAST

"Give me study hall or give me a cut slip!" cries a book-belabored sophomore upon being asked what she felt might improve the quality of good old East. Apparently she was not alone in her evaluation of the pressing situation under which we all struggle. A petite, pink-cheeked blonde suggested "periods should be shortened to a minute and a half; that's time enough to take attendance." A tall, dark, sleepy youth requested pillows for first period classes plus fifteen minute rest breaks. A bored senior brought up the idea of a two-period day "consisting of study hall and lunch."

Of course the cafeteria did not escape criticism. A plea was made for "edible food," while a vivacious drama student demanded the administration "supply barf bags with school lunches at no extra charge." Mention was also made of "frisbee contests in the lunchroom" and "vending machines that don't need money."

When it came to classes, students were no less specific. A slender, dark-eyed member of the swim team advised "illegality of foreign languages" while a blonde actress insisted the school "prohibit any mention of the word 'geometry!'" For added interest, students proposed "movies during math," "personalized cheat sheets," and "self-taking tests."

Perhaps the area which inspired the most heartfelt comments was our beloved C-wing. An experienced senior advised "trapdoors for loiterers at the intersection;" a curly-haired musician desired roller skates for people in a hurry;" and a health conscious gymnast urged "gas masks for travel through the first floor of C-wing."

Then too, there were the miscellaneous requests. A fashionable female alluded to the need for "perfumed gym lockers" and a bored health student expressed a desire for "chairs in the lecture halls that spin all the way around instead of stopping in the middle." Discreet hints to the music department were found in appeals for sound-proof vocal rooms, ("it sounded like a cow dying") and earplugs at the football games when the band is playing.

Finally the words of an alumnus who shall remain nameless reach our ears. He suggested "minimum requirement of three study halls, no homework on weekends, half-days on Fridays and Mondays, tests only if you feel like it, and an afternoon nap class."

Really now, is one nap too much to ask?
On Friday, September 29th, in a desperate display of class unity and spirit, the Class of 1979 rallied to defeat extremely tough Junior competition and win the coveted Spirit Week Trophy for 1978-79.

As the Spirit Week competition moved into Friday, the Class of 1980 held a slight edge over the seniors. They had obtained their lead by dominating two major events—the cake decorating contest and locker decoration day. These victories erased an early senior lead, built upon hall decoration, the Spirit Queen election, and “Find the Cougar” wins.

“I think the seniors realized they were behind and they had to do something,” said Doug Lyons, Coordinator of Student Affairs.

They did do something. An emergency meeting of the Senior Senate was called fifth period on Thursday. Quickly the message was sent to all the Senior classes: The situation is desperate. We must all wear togas tomorrow or face defeat.

The response was, to put it mildly, overwhelming. ‘Toga Power’ came out in full force at East. Wrapped up in their Roman togas, the Senior Class turned the halls of the school into the Forum and the boys’ gym into the Coliseum. Each toga, exhibiting red and white added fifteen points to the class’s score. The toga idea comes from Animal House, the popular movie about the crazy exploits of a college fraternity in 1963.

The basic toga was a white bedsheet wrapped around the body, a red belt, and a ring of laurel leaves adorning the head. There were of course, noticeable variations. Gary Epstein stuck a red and white umbrella in his afro, and consequently looked like a hairy Roman version of Mary Poppins. Scott Gurst wore a red and white wool ski cap, while Mark Wakefield sported a red football helmet (with a pom-pom on top) and carried a red staff and sword at his side. When Mike Meyers heard that he was supposed to wear a toga, he wore just that. And nothing else.

The Class of 1979 was not the only class to wear togas. In fact, one sophomore, Lisa Windland, went a step further and wore a cheerleader’s shaker as a wig. But in all, the championship belonged to the Senior Class because the seniors belonged to the togas.

The French Club at East has existed for the past three years. It consists of students interested in exploring the French culture. Advised by Mrs. Petoukoff, members of the French Club enjoy visiting museums and restaurants; seeing movies; and cooking French foods in order to learn more about France and its culture.

The Spanish Club was formed this year at East for all students interested in learning more about the Spanish culture. Along with their advisor Mr. Burgess, members of the Spanish Club spend their time seeing and doing things that will increase their knowledge of the Spanish culture.

Did you ever wonder what kind of people play chess? Well, guess what. There is no particular type. Look at Glenn Hamilton, Dave Tobin, Keith Lewis, Mike Goodstein, Jeff Elkner, Mike Weisbach, Dan Cottler, Tom Monoczewski, Brett Goodman, and Brian Seitz. There's nothing peculiar or extraordinary about that bunch. They were all bad at chess once (and some still are) but now, thanks to club advisor Mr. Pinzur, they know all about pins, forks, double checks, and combinations. You could learn too, so come on out next year and be one of the bunch.

Student Council at East represents an opportunity for students to be involved in the decisions that affect all of us. Student Council holds periodic meetings which are attended by both officers and student representatives. Issues important to the students are discussed and differences of opinion are resolved. Student Council also provides the students with various activities throughout the year — like Spirit Week, Coffee Houses, Valentine’s Day flower sales, and a Carni-fest. Student Council is an essential part of East’s framework.

East's Cheerleaders play a vital part in stimulating school spirit. Forever smiling, these beauties cheer our football and basketball teams to victory while keeping spectator interest high. They are largely responsible for the support given to East's teams from the crowd. Spirit would not be the same at East without our cheerleaders.

In Memoriam

The tears come slowly
But they come.
They always come
When friends pass.

The smiles of years past
Are lost in sorrow,
Sorrow for smiles
That will be missed.

The memories will be there
But not as clear,
Memories tend to fade
Just as friends disappear.

No one says anything
The tears say it all.
The friends embrace,
As only friends can.

The sky darkens
As she turns and walks away
Each step is a tear
Each tear is a memory.

The tears will dry
And come again
But a lost friend
Can never be replaced.

A Friend . . .

The realities of life sometimes are very hard to comprehend.
The death of a loved one no matter what age or under what circumstances is always a painful experience. To those who knew Tammy Bond, she exemplified a young lady of devotion, compassion and concern for her family and friends. Although her stay at East was all too brief, Tammy will always remain in the hearts and memories of Sharon, Debbie, Andrea, Barb, Janice, Janet, Kathy and all of us.

Senior Class Officers

Mrs. McLeester, Steve Pfieger, Lynne Craft, Barb Willsey, Cindy Compton.

Mrs. McLeester,

Did you ever think you'd be "Mom" to 800 kids? And at your age! Phew! Although you became our advisor in our Junior year, we "upperclassmen" weren't quite grown up yet. We still hated school and just wanted to do our "own thing". But that changed. From Junior Jury attendance of nine (if we were lucky) to "We lost count at around 50," at Senior Senate meetings. Between 1st period gym and 5th period trig tests, no wonder the Senior Lounge looked like a can of sardines at those meetings! But, no matter the reason, we finally began to care-to care about ourselves as one, the Class of 1979. From 3rd place in Spirit Week to 1st place (TOGA, TOGA!!) ... Micky and company ... X-mas dances ... hearts and carnations ... to a Hyatt-Riot ... we have succeeded in establishing a bond between us that helps us overcome every obstacle. Yet, this success cannot be attributed only to our own realizations and maturity. You, "Betsy", had so much faith and assurance, that it overflowed, touched, and awakened us. Somehow, you knew "those rowdies" would do it. Even more, you always gave your full support and optimism to our sound (???)judgements. Yet, you were never dishonest. If you felt that we were making a mistake, you told us so, and offered a solution as to how it might be solved. And when the "roof caved in," there you were, "hobbling" down the hall ready to ring our necks!

Well, it's almost over, and now we wonder, "How could we have made it without you?" Thanks for persevering with us-the road wasn't too bumpy, was it? We wish there was more time to say what we all feel, but sometimes feelings are better left unsaid. But this is for sure-we are grateful that you became a part of our class and our memories of East. That is something we shall never lose, for it is entirely too incorporated into our lives. And, in years to come, we shall always remember and cherish that we all had a "mom" who cared.

All our love,
Your rowdy kids

SENIOR WILL

We the class of 1979, in sound mind and body (???) leave behind:
To the Juniors: SAT'S, college applications, the Senior Lounge, “Toga” parties, a book entitled “40 Ways to Acquire Wood”, the prom, and 180 more days of high school (ha, ha).

To the class of ’83: Mrs. Katz
To Mrs. Katz: earmuffs to tune out all those “rowdy frosh”.
To Mr. Lyons: all the debts we couldn’t pay-we couldn’t count them all.
To Mrs. McLeester: 1 ice skate.
To Mr. Sabin: A unanimous THANK YOU!!!
To Mrs. Carr: a candy jar that you can call your very own.
To Miss Baggs: your very own Oxford English Dictionary.
To Mr. Alderfer: a day without any mistakes.
To Mrs. Clower: a “How to Type” manual.
To Mr. Krantz: a book of new jokes.
To Mr. Gordon: a bottle of “Gordon’s Gin”.
To Bo Wood: Much Luck for a better season next year-how could it get any better?
To Mrs. Komczyk: a new wardrobe.
To Mr. Simon: a wind-up Duke doll.
To Mr. Cole: a case of used tennis balls.
To Mr. Carr: a yearbook on time (????????)
To Mr. D’Angelo: a book entitled “You CAN Stop Smoking Too”.
To Mrs. Carpenter: “Induction” before June.
To Mr. Nehring: 40 clones of Ben Kramer.
To Mr. Heisman: a chance at winning number 100.
To Miss Schooley: a broken stopwatch for timing 440’s.

Alex Gonzales leaves his good looks to Bill Gaydos.
Jack Fanning leaves that twinkle in his eyes to the Junior girls.
Joan Notaro leaves her pompoms to Miss Marcus.
Debbie Udicious leaves East for bigger & better places.
Kim Turiano leaves her mark in East Girl's athletics.
Sara Shuey leaves Miss Schooley with one less lacrosse star.
Bill Nugent leaves wrestling to the "weight watchers".
Paul Donato leaves his job as quarterback to Larry Price.
Barb Willsley leaves East with one less clown.
Greg Estep leaves number 20 to Coach Valore.
"Greased Lightning" leaves East for Broadway.
Lisa Lader leaves East with a lot less optimism.
Kathy Pio leaves her hockey stick to B.J. Zellers.
Val Stills leaves her basketball to Gebbs.
Cindy Compton leaves East with a lot less spirit.
Jill Garland leaves East with one less dancer.
Carbono leaves swimming to his brother.
Dan Phillips leaves East with one less flirt.
Greg Webber leaves his holy jeans to whoever wants them.
Kathy Foran leaves Physics to the birds.
Pete Dennen leaves half his moustache to whoever can find it.
Margo Kolb leaves her red cellophone swimsuit to the boy's swim team.
Drew Jackson leaves his car insurance to someone who can pay it.
Jacque Schillmoeller leaves EIDOLON to someone with a lot more time.
Kathy Schultz leaves Marching Band with one less leader.
Mike Gabaly leaves disco to John Travolta.
Jeff Bedard leaves his "Brooks" to Mr. Smyth.
Fred Goehringer leaves some mustard for the pretzels.
Tom Bernetic leaves his curve ball to any J.V. who can handle it.
Charles Ambrose leaves "the bug" to be bronzed.
Steve Phleger leaves the job to another "Richie Cunningham".
We all leave East with much hope for the future and many thanks for 4 super years.

Fall Sports
A Special Lady

We have decided to dedicate the Sports Section of Eidolon 79 to Mrs. Ginny Whitaker.

Mrs. Whitaker is the Coordinator of Athletics for the Cherry Hill School District. She juggles events for twenty-one sports in each of our two high schools — in addition to the programs for three junior schools.

Her awesome responsibilities include the coordination of schedules and transportation, the purchase of equipment and the hiring of officials.

If all that is not enough, Mrs. Whitaker has also served as an official in field hockey, basketball and softball. She is the South Jersey interpreter for girls’ basketball and softball. She is on the state board of hockey officials.

And, for the past five years, she has represented the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association (NJSIAA) at the National Federation of High School Athletics on rules.

We cannot overestimate the importance of Sports.

They do more than “build a sound body and mind.”

They provide a common cause for us, a focal point for our spirit, a safety valve for our dreams.

Thank you, Mrs. Whitaker.

For providing us all with a well-run and reliable program we are in your debt.
Varsity Field Hockey:
Three seemed to be the number for the hockey team this year. They were ranked #3 in South Jersey and held the League Championship as well as the Conference Championship for the third straight year. Lisa Hoffman, Patti Owens and B.J. Zellers led the team in scoring, while Kathy Piotrowski, Kim Turiano and the rest of the defense held down the scoring. Altogether it was a very successful year for the girls.

Varsity Football:
For the second year in a row Bo Wood’s Cougars were crowned Conference Champs. In addition to this the 1979 Cougars made it to the state playoffs for the first time ever. Altogether East had an excellent season with a record of 8-3, his was made possible by a great defense headed by Jeff Smith and Micheal Meyers. An unstoppable offense guided by Paul Donato with the attack of Mark Devone and Larry Hanson on the ground and Randy Noble along with Doug Cook in the air. With this talent Bo Wood and his staff were able to assemble a winning team.

Varsity Soccer:
For the first time ever the varsity soccer team captured the South Jersey North Conference title. With a 4-0-4 conference record and a 10-3-6 overall record, East booters proved outstanding. Having 29 goals for the offense and only 8 goals against the defense, Pete Dennen 1st team All-State and 2nd All-State goalie Wayne Ramsey seemed invincible. A season built on determination and strength also brought the honor of Co-champs in the South Jersey Coaches Tournament for the first time.

S.J. Group 4 State Champs

Girl's Tennis:

Girl's Tennis was a strong area for East this year as it has been in the past. The girls won the Conference Champs title as well as becoming South Jersey Group 4 State Champs. In the N.J.S.I.A.A. preliminaries East beat Atlantic City 5-0. In sectionals they defeated West 3-2. Throughout the year they played with power and consistency and their overall record reflects that. They won all but one match, losing that one by only a small margin.

Boy's Gymnastics:

Despite the regular season record, the boy's gymnastics team produced many outstanding individual and team efforts. Sectional finalists, Tony Bruno, Glinnie Elmore and Jim Jones placed in the vault, tumbling and side horse. The many seniors on the team will be missed, but next year the team hopes to improve.

Cross Country:

The 1978 Cougar Cross Country team had a very successful season. Led by seniors Mark Censits and Jeff Bedaro they finished with a 7 - 5 season overall. Their outstanding conference record of 7 - 0 captured the title of South Jersey North Champions to cap off the season.
Cross Country
Our wrestlers had a great year. The varsity won 12-lost 2 and captured the South Jersey Conference: Northern Division Championship. Seniors Tom Rubino, Bill Nugent, Bryan Coolahan and Bob Goodman won individual tournament titles. The J.V. won 13 out of 14 matches as the freshman wrestlers won the tournament championship in completing a 12 win-3 loss season. The teams were coached by Mr. John Semar, Mr. Don Kohlhaas and Mr. Lou Frank.

Mrs. Katz,

Well, after four years of blue passes, white cards, and detentions (let’s not talk about suspensions!), what can we say but “Thank you!” Not only did you bail us out when we were down to our “tenth” cut, but you were also there to listen when someone had a problem. As freshmen, we really needed encouragement and support, and you understood that. You never gave up hope, but always knew that “eventually” somehow we would become a class of which you could be proud (??). Now it is 1979, and we’re no longer the “worst freshmen ever at East,” but rather “those rowdy Seniors who run around wearing togas.” Part of this is due to you. You have watched us grow into mature men and women (sort of, anyway), while still holding onto us so that we would not go astray. Your support has been tremendous— you always knew that each year was going to get better. We even began to quiet down when you spoke to us on our first day of school Sophomore year. What an accomplishment! And we took second place in Spirit Week. And we thought of new methods of cutting without getting caught. Somehow, though, we never accomplished that one. By Junior year, we were “upper-classmen.” Driving, the prom, and finals—well, 2 out of 3 ain’t bad!

Now, as graduation slowly becomes more of a reality, we reflect on these four years and really begin to appreciate the impact and significance East has had on our lives. Although we complained, we now know that it wasn’t all that bad. Actually, it was pretty great! Oh well, we guess you have to become a senior before you realize that. But, now that we do, another point comes to mind. What a great person you have been!! Thank you, Mrs. Katz. How can we ever repay you for all the love and time you offered us? Maybe we cannot, but this is for certain—never will we forget you, for you will always be a part of our lives.

All our love,
The Class of 1979
Mr. Lyons

Mr. Lyons,

Doesn't three years seem like an eternity? We wish it was, Mr. Lyons, for you have been a part of our lives that we shall never forget. When you became that "wild and crazy guy" three years ago, all the fun began. First- it was Spirit Week, and we held a close second to the Seniors-by the way, did you ever get "your" cheerleading outfit? Then onto Great Adventure-it was a blast . . . "upperclassmen" finally . . . Emily's here . . . Spirit-Week and 3rd place . . . valentines and carnations . . . Junior Prom . . . and Seniors!!! Now we've got it all! But we couldn't have done any of it without the "Big Man" in A-Wing. Always something new up his sleeve so that East would never be boring. The best accomplishment is that East has become a community, a place where individuals come and grow together in order to make this a very special place to be. And you, Mr. Lyons, have done that for us.

Not only are you responsible for making East a great place to be, but you have also been a pal. We all know that "Lyons will bail us out," yet we respect and never (well, almost never) take advantage of your willingness to help us, even when we are in a bind. Countless numbers of passes, "good times", rowdiness, loads of pictures, and tons of other things that would take us months to mention. But when all combined, they add up to the happiness we shared with you.

Mr. Lyons, words will never express all the appreciation and admiration we have for you. When we remember these past years at East, we remember all the enjoyment that has opened and changed our lives. We now realize the joy we received in attending East, although at times it seemed as if we took for granted the fun you provided for us. In some ways we did. But we can never take for granted the lessons and experiences gained through them, for they have made us become better human beings in some ways. You are responsible for that, Mr. Lyons, and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts. We'll never forget you!!!

All our love,
"Those rotten teenagers"
Intro. to Photo.
Of my four years as a teacher I have found this to be the most exciting and challenging one. The students have shown a great deal of enthusiasm for "Intro to Photo" and their above-average work demonstrates their abilities. I have been given outstanding equipment with which to work — the students have access to a full line of 35 mm Cannon cameras and an ultra-modern darkroom. The course teaches the basic techniques of taking, developing, and printing black and white prints; mounting; graphics; and special photographic effects. It is designed to move at the student's own pace and to give him a wide variety of subjects to work with. On the whole, Intro to Photo has been a rewarding experience and has fulfilled all of my expectations.

MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1979

Congratulations on your graduation from Cherry Hill High School East. Your four years in high school have been exciting and filled with interesting experiences for all of us at East. You are leaving our school a far healthier place than you found it four years ago.

When you arrived at East, your teachers and administrators were unsure of the direction in which our school was headed. At that time East was attempting to outlive a history that included a large measure of disorder and a public image that left much to be desired.

To your credit, you chose to attempt to make your school a proud one with traditions of excellence in a wide variety of student endeavors. Your leadership has been of a consistently high quality.

It is my fond hope that you will always remember your years at East with the same warmth and pride with which your teachers and administrators will remember you.

May you enrich everyone you meet in life as you have enriched those of us at East. My best wishes to each and every one of the Class of 1979.

Sincerely,

Guidance

Cherry Hill East's guidance center is a well-staffed facility designed to aid students as they progress through their four years of high school. The students receive assistance from their counselors not only in areas concerning academic studies, but also in areas pertaining to college planning and social problems. The department exists to serve the students and its efforts are geared to helping the students through this most meaningful time of their lives — the years here at East.

Biology

Biology is one of the most fascinating fields of study available at East. The wonder of life is studied in depth at all levels, from elementary to advanced. Specialized electives in Vertebrate Anatomy, Microbiology, and Histology, among others, give the interested student a chance to experiment with the newest ideas in some of the fastest growing fields in science. We are just beginning to unlock the mysteries of life, and as great advances are made in this newest of sciences, the East Biology student has a unique opportunity to learn.

Business Education

The Business Education department offers a variety of courses for those students contemplating entrance into the business world. Programs of study include orientation in topics ranging from Clerical Typing and Bookkeeping to the principles of Business Law. Also included is one of the greatest advantages of East's business program — Distributive Education. This program concerns itself with work experience, designed to initiate East students into the business world. Business Education — a valuable preparation for those who aspire to be an integral part of the business world.

Fine Arts

East's Fine Arts department is an ever-improving entity as it expands yearly. This year’s course offerings in art, graphics, and home economics are more diversified than ever before, in addition to the always rich array of choices in music. In drama and dance, East offers an ample assortment of options for the performance inclined student. It appears as if students at East will have no trouble finding exactly what they're looking for in the Fine Arts.

English

One day, a Nobel laureate will mount the podium at the ceremonies in Sweden and proudly proclaim to the world, “I owe it all to my English teachers at East.” Until that day, however, East’s English teachers will have to content themselves with the knowledge that the tools of language which they so diligently strive to teach us will serve all of us throughout our lives — even those of us who never receive a Nobel prize.

Reading

Reading is the golden key which opens the doors to the world. At East, the reading program offers students a chance to broaden their literary horizons. In a relaxed, unpressured atmosphere, they are able to expand their reading abilities through careful instruction, that for some reason they may not have received previously. In addition to comprehension improvement, the student may also increase his reading speed. The informed student will agree that the Reading Department offers a valuable chance for self-improvement.

Mathematics

Mathematics is an intellectual discipline which develops the ability to reason clearly and effectively, providing a powerful tool to be used throughout life. The Math Department offers a variety of courses, each meeting the needs of the individual student. These range from Basic Math to Honors Calculus. The diversity of courses offered by this department provides a strong foundation for careers in science, engineering, teaching, or other related professions. The opportunities are limitless.

Physical Education

The Physical Education department at East took on a new look this year. Students chose one of nine unit packages when they scheduled courses for this year. The new system eliminated the need for taking activity time to schedule phys. ed. electives. Packages which emphasized dance, team sports, individual sports, and physical fitness were developed. In this way, a student was able to choose an assortment of activities more closely paralleling his or her interests than was previously possible.

Physical Science

In today's ever-changing world, it is essential to have a basic knowledge of science and technology. Under faculty guidance, students have the opportunity to explore the realms of science, not only through reading material, but also through experimentation. East's Physical Science department offers a wide variety of excellent courses including Physics and Chemistry. Course offerings include both elementary and advanced levels.
Social Studies

This year the History department has more to offer than ever before. New electives, both semester and year-long, have been introduced, covering a multitude of subjects from Urban America to the Third World. Under the direction of department chairman Fleischman, the department has expanded to provide challenging study in diverse areas. The new choices offered the students of East have served to create a new and vital interest in the past, present, and future of our world.

woods. Love, Ellen
Tommy- We have experienced infinite joys: April 2, July 15, Christmas, Young Life Ski Trip, Our Special Dinner, Junior Prom, Ocean City, Frontoise Ranch, but we have also had several sorrows. Though, somehow together we have managed to avoid all of these obstacles, overlook the sorrows, and savor the joys. While we are together everything is in har-momy. I shall always treasure the key which symbolizes love, the key of togetherness. Whether we stay together or not, it does not matter, we will love each other for eternity. Love always-Tacie
BM- Hope you liked your freshman year- Love CM.
Hoggy Woggy Lulabelle. MB Pigface- What does BM stand for?

Terry McGovern who luckily lives close enough so we could drive our first color deadline in and who's visits kept us going.
Mr. Lyons who put up with our fits of rage and really helped us morally.
George Jackson who opened our office, and by the way there is a rabbit in our office looking for you.

Coaches and advisors
Class '79
Mike Deitch
In turning these last few pages we leave behind our high school experience. Soon we will be opening a new book. As we enter the world of post-high school we will be experiencing a new beginning.
As Ben Johnson put it "True friendship consists not in the multitude of friends, but in their worth and value"
Yesterday is already a dream and tomorrow is only a vision but today well lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope ... Sanscrit
We realize the time has come when we must let go of our time in East, but in parting let always remember the special friends we have made and the unique experiences we have shared.
As we close this book, we come to the end of four truly wonderful years in our lives. This book is the key to the times of our lives. Throughout these pages are the memories of tears and fun, hard work and laughter.
We hope that as you flip through the pages of this book each one of you can see some of the times of your lives. The time spent preparing this book was time well spent if years from now you can again look through this book and remember the sad, happy and frustrating times of your high school days.

To Mr. Carr our one of a kind advisor. We thank you for pulling us over the rough spots and holding it all together until the end. Your guidance and help were an essential part of our book.

To the staff, congratulations for the accomplishment of what seemed an impossible task. Devoted hours spent in our cubby hole, phoneless office. Hours of insanity that produced a tribute to our school and a symbol of our success. In putting this book together we worked with some great people with which we would like to pay special thanks . . . Debbie, Frank, Mindy, Debbie, Kathy, Steve, Fran, Phil . . . Missed deadlines and mounting days didn’t seem to discourage you. Thank you all for your help and strength. Sincerely we say it wouldn’t be done without you.

All we have left now to say are the thank you’s and good-byes but this book will make our memories all more real. As we depart may you carry on the responsibility and learn and grow as much as we have, this past year.

With our deepest felt thanks from this year, we offer you good luck next year and in all the years to come.

Love always,
Jacques Schillmoeller

FACULTY
An Apology:

In the main section of the yearbook, the Performing Arts Department was inadvertently grouped under the heading of Fine Arts. Mrs. Barbara Solly, of course, is the chairman of Performing Arts — the department from which we have come to expect such polished and exciting faculty and student efforts. Our apologies for this embarrassing error.

Mrs. Barbara Solly
Teachers Of The Year

Mark Pinzur

Mr. Mark Pinzur’s reaction to being named Teacher of the Year was, “WOW, it feels great. It feels fantastic! The reason you teach is because you enjoy it and you hope that you can effect enough kids in a significant enough manner that you will have made a mark on the future. And this is what we’re in it for — the kids.”

This member of East’s fine, upstanding mathematical department was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. Many people cannot believe that this is true because he does not speak with a noticeable accent. The reason is that, at the young age of six, Marky — er — Mr. Pinzur and his family moved to Long Island. It was here that, at the age of seven, he derived the formula for the distance between two distinct points.

After finishing high school, Mr. Pinzur went on to attend Temple University, where he received a Masters Degree in Education, and Colgate University, where he received a Bachelor of Arts Degree. With a superior education, he said to himself, “Self, you must go out into that large world of ours and find that one high school which you can call your home.” He found Cherry Hill East and the rest is history.

Mr. Pinzur has enjoyed every minute of his nine years here at East. This year, he taught three Algebra II classes, trigonometry, and East’s first Probability and Statistic course. Although one might know “Old Lean and Mean” (as his college pals called him) as a “wild and crazy guy” out of class, he gets down to business in class. He teaches his classes the way he feels they should be taught, not copying any other teacher’s style. He is there because that is what he likes to do the most and if anybody gives him trouble, he reprimands him the way he sees fit. He is unique!

For those of you who have had Mr. Pinzur, you must agree that he has some of the best jokes in the world. Whenever he feels that the class is becoming tense or active, he breaks away from the mathematics for a second and either comments on a current event, discusses a bizarre television show, or tells a famous math joke. Of all his jokes his personal favorite is that of the wide-mouth frog.

Mathematics is not the only thing which Mr. Pinzur does. Many students think that math teachers go home at 2:30 and read word problems all night. Not so for Mr. Pinzur. Most of his time is taken up by the Mendelssohn Club, a semi-professional choral group in Philadelphia which sings with the Philadelphia Orchestra. When not singing, he is either watching the suddenly victorious Rangers on television, playing with his 2½ year old daughter, coaching the Chess Team, or playing one mean game of tennis. Watch out, Jimmy Connors!

Mr. Pinzur is a man of a thousand words. He has a unique style of teaching which can not be duplicated by any other teacher. This man has marked all of our lives in one way or another and he shall be remembered for his “Pinzur-approved Methods” for doing anything imaginable.
Dale Wiltsee

If you have ever been walking down C wing near the biology rooms, you’ve probably heard the high pitched scream of “Hi Wilts!” and seen a big man with a big grin yell “Hi!” back. This is Dale Wiltsee.

“Wilts” highly deserves this honor because he is REALLY interested in his students. As one teacher put it, “He is very dedicated as a teacher, and as a coach.” In a school as big as East is, it is difficult for all the kids to know a specific teacher. But almost everyone knows or has heard of “Wilts”.

Mr. Wiltsee’s “niceness” started early. Graduating from Paulsboro High School in 1960, he was captain of his football and track teams and, during his senior year he received the Spiritmanship and Brotherhood awards for being an “all around nice guy”. Mr. Wiltsee then continued his education at Kutztown State College where he got his B.S. in teaching and biology. After he got out of school, he went to teach at Sterling High School for five years. Deciding that he wanted to get his Masters, he went back to school, this time at the University of Idaho.

Mr. Wiltsee likes it here at East. He likes the great facilities and also the variety that you can get here. He is much different from most teachers. He feels that each class should be handled separately, so if there is a problem in one class he doesn’t carry out his frustrations on the next. “Each class can create their own problems. They don’t need any help.”

Wiltsee is a very understanding yet demanding person. He wants students to try their hardest to be the best they are capable of being. This is evident in his teaching as well as in his coaching. Ask any of the girls on the winter and spring track teams and they’ll tell you what a great guy he is.

The Teacher of the Year award goes to an outstanding teacher. Mr. Wiltsee deserves this because in a school of really good and dedicated teachers he radiates with happiness and really tries to help his students grow into mature, understanding adults.

Teresa Komczyk

This is Teresa Komczyk, one of East’s most popular math teachers. She has taught Geometry, Functions, Algebra II, Analysis, and Trigonometry here for the past 11 years. She also leads the Teacher’s Negotiating Team and Building Liaison Committee for East. But Mrs. Komczyk’s personal life is one thing her adolescent admirers want to know about. The girls admire her extensive wardrobe while the guys ogle at her Annette Funicello resemblance.

Mrs. Komczyk loves beautiful clothes, but she also welcomes a hearty game of racquetball, plays a grueling match of tennis, and looks forward to the next time she and her husband Ed will fly their plane (she’s the co-pilot) to the Poconos. When she is on the ground and settled in her West Deptford Township home, Mrs. Komczyk enjoys peaceful trips to the ballet (Nureyev and Baryshnikov are her favorites). She and her husband have traveled throughout Europe, and have also flown to the Jersey Shore and the Florida Keys.

Mrs. Komczyk grew up in Philadelphia, where she once dated Frankie Avalon’s cousin. She swears that this is the only thing she and Annette have in common, but the guys disagree!

Mrs. Komczyk’s popularity as a teacher and a friend makes her a natural choice for Teacher of the Year.
Michael Caputi

One of the nicest and best teachers at East is Mr. Caputi. Known for his caring and understanding, Mr. Caputi has become a favorite among his students. He has taught just about every Social Studies area since he began teaching at East in 1974. He is presently helping his students understand such History courses as “American Immigration and Minorities” and “Adventures in U.S. History”.

Mr. Caputi attended Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Studies. He continued his education at Glassboro State College where he received his MA in Student Personnel Services. Before he came to East, Mr. Caputi taught at St. Joe’s in Camden for four years. Besides teaching, Mr. Caputi coaches athletic teams here at East. He has been a football coach for nine years (four of them at St. Joe’s) and for two years has been a coach for East’s baseball team.

Mr. Caputi enjoys his work as a teacher very much because he feels that it helps him continue his interest in the subject and at the same time talk about things he enjoys with other students. He especially likes teaching because, he says, “every day something nice happens in some class.”

Mr. Caputi considers teaching to take up a lot of time in and out of the classroom. It also gives him the opportunity to include his family. (His wife is a schoolteacher and they have two daughters aged 2 and 5.) He feels that there is a lot in common with teaching and every day activities. His sincere caring for his students along with his kind sense of humor and excellent teaching ability has earned him “Teacher of the Year” along with the appreciation and thanks from his students.

Betsy McLeester

When someone hears the name Betsy, who does he think of first? Mrs. Elizabeth McLeester, of course! A member of East’s History Department since 1974, she is known to sophomores and juniors for the “concerned and caring attitude” which she displays in class. But this is not the only contribution she has made to East, for she also plays “Mom” to 800 seniors. (She can often be seen checking up on the Senior Room or doing the twist with Mr. Belchickoff.)

High school, Betsy studied in Belgium for one year. Upon returning, she attended Douglass College, where she majored in History. After graduating from Douglass, she joined the East faculty. Yet she was no newcomer to East, having completed her term as student teacher here under the direction of Mr. Howard Boulden. Since then, Mrs. McLeester’s face has become familiar to almost every student in East. Teaching both “Evolution of U.S. History” and “International Relations,” she is always busy thinking of new ideas which will liven up her classes even more. Does anyone miss decorated bulletin boards? Well, with Mrs. McLeester, you won’t, for she can be found on rainy afternoons cutting and hanging up various pictures to brighten up the classroom.

Currently residing in Haddon Heights, Mrs. McLeester enjoys bicycling, gardening, and daily romps with her Puppaw Lilly. She loves Italian food, vegetables and fish. One thing that we’ll never forget is that we are fortunate enough to have a teacher as dedicated as Mrs. McLeester, for she has given us more than knowledge. She has given us caring and that is the ultimate gift for any teacher to give.
Jeanne Clowar

Many people know this face from the last Gong Show. Others know her as the cheerful English teacher in B247 who always has a good story to tell. For those who don't know her, introducing... Mrs. Jeanne Clowar of the English Department. Mrs. Clowar is a graduate of Temple University with a B.S. in education. She also received her M.A. at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Clowar took her first teaching course on a "dare" while intending to enter a career in medicine. She became "hooked on kids" while student teaching and then decided to make education her future. In college, this talented lady majored in Art, History, and English!

Mrs. Clowar, wife of Mr. John Clowar of the History Department, is the mother of three grown boys and the grandmother of two grandsons. Hopefully, in the future she will be blessed with a granddaughter to add some diversity to her male-oriented family. Her hobbies include reading (anything she can get her hands on), history, needlecrafts, and portrait work.

A true initiator of kindness in all forms, Mrs. Clowar's favorite quote is: God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference. Her most humorous memory of East was when she was imitating the principal to one of her classes to get a point across. Little did she know but he was standing outside the door listening. When she finished, he stuck his head in the door and she nearly died of embarrassment!

Rumor has it that Mr. and Mrs. Clowar met while teaching in Audubon. Football Coach Clowar never paid any attention to her. Being the schemer that she still is today, she devised a plan that would make him notice her. As director of the Senior Class Play, she conned Mr. Clowar into agreeing to let his dog, Tuffy, appear in the play. This way, they could get to know each other during rehearsals... Tuffy stole the show... wedding bells rang!

For an interesting 42 minutes, stop by one of Mrs. Clowar's literature classes. When we remember East in the years to come, we shall always remember our dear and wonderful Mrs. Clowar. She always had time to listen and to guide us. Sharing her love and humor she has made our stay at East more enjoyable. We all thank her.
Chi Kyong Kim

Mr. Kim: "Great guy. "His jokes are so predictable." "One of the best teachers I've ever had." Well, to his surprise, he was voted the Freshman Teacher of the Year.

Originally from Korea, Mr. Kim majored in Physics at the Korea University. In the United States, he attended the graduate school of Rutgers and received an M.A. in curriculum development at Glassboro State College.

The year 1969 found Mr. Kim teaching at East. In 1973 he tested a pilot project of Q.P.S., a science program which originated at Duke University. Initially he established two classes of Q.P.S. The program became so successful that it expanded to five classes the next year, all of which were taught by Mr. Kim. There are now more teachers and more divisions of the topic, allowing students of lesser potential and background to participate. He is writing the student laboratory manual which will be published by our school.

Mr. Kim comments about the students at East: "There are many brilliant people at East. polite and I have a good rapport with all my classes." He also compliments the students on their artistic and musical talents.

Regarding the highest reward as a teacher, Mr. Kim finds that the success of his former students and the appreciation they show for the solid scientific background he provided gives him the most pleasure. "It is one of teaching's highest rewards," he explains.

What does Mr. Kim, a foreigner, have to say about the U.S.? "I came from a previously poor country. I know the feeling of being poor, of hunger, of tragedy. I know how frustrating it can be if you haven't had the opportunity to succeed, despite your efforts. But here, all have this opportunity. Americans must realize how fortunate they are and must work hard to achieve their highest goal."

Gong Shows

The Semi-Annual Gong Shows on December 5th and March 30th were both successes. The first Gong Show was hosted by Mike Gabaly and the panel of judges included Mrs. Kuhl, Mrs. McLeester, Mr. Lowden and Mr. Heisler. Some of the acts included Cody Vurguson's strip tease as Gypsy Rose Lee, Freddie the Elf, The Hockey Team, Greased Lightning, Ken Goodhew dancing in a tu-tu and strumming a guitar, and the second place act, "Doctor's Office," which included Charlie Ambrose, John Perrozzi, Drew Jackson, Pete Dennen, Sam Rosengarten, and Margo Kolb. But the winning act was Glinnie Elmore and his impressions. They included Jack Benny, Rod Serling, Walter Cronkite, Paul Williams, Tom Jones, and assorted others.

The second Gong Show held on March 30 was an even bigger success than the first. It was held in the auditorium with Mike Gabaly and Gary Kritz hosting. The crazy judges included Mr. and Mrs. Clowar, Mr. Weiner, Mr. Boulden, Mr. Pinzur, Mr. Belchikoff, and Mr. Musumeci. The list of acts included Macho Woman, Jeff Klavens, I Like Beer, Freddie the Elf's Cousin, Lisa and Kelly and more. Glinnie Elmore returned with new impressions but was abducted off the stage. But the winning act was definitely the highlight of the night. Mr. Lyons made his rock star singing debut along with Mike Gabaly, Charlie Ambrose, Drew Jackson, Pete Dennen and John Perrozzi as The Village People. These two special nights wouldn't have been possible without the help of Scott Farkas, Wendy Cook and Mrs. McLeester.

Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed.

- Booker T. Washington

If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours.

-Henry David Thoreau

Time, as it seems, is always shorter when we reflect back on the experience. To say that we have spent four years requires but a second.
