Time present and time past are both perhaps present in time future and time future contained in time past.
-T.S. Eliot

All that we experience today is etched upon the slate which we call memory. Traveling through the eighties, we shall draw upon this resource to shape our future and to develop our lives. Prominent among the experiences which we choose to recall will be those which we had here, in the Wild Wild East.
With the close of one decade leap the beginnings of another. As the seventies come to an end, we must reflect upon our "growing up" years with optimism and hope, for we are the spirit of a new generation; we will mold and shape the eighties.

While we are a new decade, a new force, we depend too much upon our past to forsake the traditions of those former years. In the end, we, the products of the seventies, will produce the eighties, but in creating our present and developing our future we will never forget the past.
Plus ça change, plus c’est la même chose. (The more things change, the more they stay the same.)
—French Proverb
When did we first decide to have Spirit Week? Why is Homecoming always at the Thanksgiving football game? What about the Spring Musical and early graduation? And why is the Senior Prom after the Junior Prom: The answer to all these questions is, simply, Tradition.

Customs and traditions are a large part of our lives, but why do we hold on to them so? Tevye best answered that question when he said, "Without our traditions, our lives would be as shaky as a fiddler on the roof."
This year, as in the preceding ones, we have relied strongly on custom and tradition. However, we have not bound ourselves to the ways of the past; instead, we have abandoned the old and traditional and opted for the new and innovative in many instances. Among our 1979-1980 “newisms” are a Homecoming parade down Cropwell Road, a Winter Musical, a graduation nearly as late as everyone else’s, and a Senior Prom in May. Although we still cling to some traditions, these changes indicate that we are moving ahead and making changes to fit our new times.
We East students go wild over everything. We study long hours into the night; we devote hours of free time to practices, meetings, and rehearsals; and we learn to budget our time and understand our limits. But there comes a point in every student’s life when he is faced with a science lab, a history test, or a stack of blank notecards — and a depressingly close deadline. Should he laugh or cry? We East students know that if we relax, laugh a little, and stay as wild and crazy as we are, these problems, as well as the ones that we will face in the Eighties, will work themselves out.

Keep the spirit of madness in you, just a touch of it just enough so that you don’t become stupid.
— Robin Williams

Never take a course that requires you to read Beowulf.
— Woody Allen
Perhaps you have always wanted to be a clown. Or maybe you have dreamed ever since childhood of seeing your name plastered across a playbill. Then again, you might be the most ambitious arguer on the block, the most vocal soprano, or the quickest runner.

On the other hand, you may not be the most anything. Whatever the case, whatever your field of interest or expertise, you are an individual unique among the thirty-three hundred students in this school.
Such uniqueness deserves attention. While you may not be our star mime, the lead in the fall play, our most eloquent debater, our most celebrated Madrigal singer, or our most decorated track star, you are not a lone voice in the crowd.

You are an outstanding member of our student body just because you are different, and it is your diversity of talent and interest that keeps boredom from our door.
In pursuit of success we hope, dream, plan, and more. Even now in our high school years we work towards creating a future better than the present. We "hamburger and fries to go" at McDonald's. "Cut, curl, and set" in cosmetology. "May I help you?" in the mall. "I'm sorry, ma'am but we're out of size 7B" at Lou's. "Hot fudge sundae" at Holly Ravine. and do everything else imaginable in the hope that one day all of our dreams will be realized.
Time it was
And what a time it was
A time of innocence
A time of confidences
Long ago — it must be years ago
I have a photograph
Preserve your memories
They’re all that’s left you.
— Paul Simon

Another year gone so soon! Reflecting upon our prime, we can see that we are truly a wild bunch.
Remember
when the cross-country team dressed like nerds and ran to the Gap, when goblins paraded up and down the halls at Halloween, when the pledges dressed up in their "fashionable" outfits, and when the band marched at a football game in four inches of mud-in their street clothes.

These antics and more serve to prove that East is truly a wild, wild place!
We seek to know what lies behind a door within our sight; we seek...

The door knowledge stands before, a key within our grasp — forged of time, and sweat, and love, is our high school life.

... to go beyond in future time — use the key, discard, And see what lies ahead.

The guidance department functions in one of East’s most important roles, as student advisor. By assisting the student not only with academic problems, but also with personal problems and educational or career planning, this department helps to make the student’s years at East more meaningful and enjoyable.

Much maligned as the department which forces students to (ugh!) dissect, the Biology Department tries to instill within each student an appreciation of himself and the world around him. And, since biology is the study of life, Bio students gain a good perspective on the mechanisms of their own lives.
Typing is one of the many skills taught by the Business Education department. Thirty-one business courses are offered at East so that students may graduate as experts not only in typing but also in accounting, data processing, and business management.
The power of the word- the potency of language! The teachers of the English Department strive to teach their students the fundamentals of grammar, syntax, and writing so that these students will be well-prepared to function in our literate world.

One day one of the multi-talented artists from East will produce a masterpiece worthy of the time and effort spent teaching the fundamentals of art and home economics. Until that day, however, the teachers in the Fine Arts Department will have to content themselves with the knowledge that they are enriching the lives of their students by helping them to appreciate the higher pleasures of life.

Industrial Vocations is a department unlike any other at East. Here in such diverse fields as drafting, cosmetology and auto mechanics, curricula enable the student to take classroom knowledge and apply it to practical experience. Teachers recognize a growing need for practical knowledge and so emphasize this aspect while broadening the student’s entire education.

Reading is the key to the world’s knowledge, opening the minds to experience only previously dreamed. Our Reading Department strives to make the fundamental pleasures of reading available for everyone.

Our library is more efficient and our A.V. office is run smoother because of our paraprofessionals and the media staff specialists. The two departments, headed up by Sy Schwartz, are busy filing books and hustling audio/visual equipment throughout the building. We thank these fine men and women for their help and assistance.

Each student at East has his own opinions about what this school means to him. It is the task of the EIDOLON staff to incorporate these diverse ideas of school life into a complete picture of 1979-80 at East. Few people realize the magnitude of this job, but the people pictured on these two pages do. The phrases "100% sepia line," "overprint copy," and "06998" (as well as the words to the "Starblazers" theme song) became part of their daily vocabularies as they spent long afternoons in the senior lounge cropping pictures, drawing layouts, and making posters. As always, there were missed deadlines, undelivered pictures, misplaced art, and other catastrophes, but the ever-optimistic staff—under the direction of our cool-headed advisor Mr. Carr—persevered. What you have in front of you is the result of the staff's labor. Hopefully, it accurately represents your personal impressions of "The Wild Wild East."

"Job tasks change; personalities don't necessarily change as a result of job tasks," Assistant-Principal Doug Lyons commented about his new role. Mr. Lyons now takes charge of the building and grounds, organizes computer services, helps plan the curriculums of the business, fine arts, foreign language and guidance department and writes reports for the state Department of Education.

This role as Coordinator of Student Affairs, Lyons said, "I really working for kids. This job is designed for staff support," according to Lyons. The student affairs of a "paid good guy for school," according to Lyons. Contact schools fill some of that job. Contact schools, therefore, is comfortable that that is a tradeoff." Lyons said. Still, he will continue approachable. "Overappreciated," in his previous job, this educator explained, "Whenever you make a change, it's always a gamble."

"My needs right now and for the next year or two are very different," Lyons added. For him, this is a "time to move, time to grow, time to change." As a long-range career goal, he would like to be a high school Principal.

In this new role, he will gain experience in a wide range of educational services. Budgeting departmental finances, evaluating classroom performance, managing the building (room repairs), grounds and computer services (preparing interim and report card information) and writing reports are Lyons' newest duties. Lyons looks most forward to writing these reports because "It's a way of keeping issues in some of the current issues in education." More competency levels and school diploma certification will be included in the papers.

Lyons still handles his responsibilities as activities director and will continue to do so until the new principal is filled. Currently, the position has been posted for an Administrator of Student Affairs.

The task is set on an annual basis by the Board of Education and the Conference of Principals. One thing he has noticed is the influx of a new generation of students. One reason why did he choose to come to Eastside that he really enjoyed job as activities director and that "I really am a basketball coach," and needs a lot of...

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS
To be successful, groups need guidance and leadership. In providing such services, student council encourages the participation of the student body in initiating many activities and programs.
Affiliated with the World Affairs Club in Philadelphia, the World Affairs Club endeavors to understand international relations. Cherry Hill East’s chapter participates in Council-sponsored activities such as a model Senate/Foreign Relations Committee meeting, several seminars and a model United Nations. As a result, the World Affairs Club provides a broad-based education for all its members.

SENIORS
The football season began miserably with two consecutive shutout losses; however, after beating Camden, the season got brighter. Later on, East gave highly rated Pennsauken a real battle as only eight points separated the two. The highlight of the season had to be the crushing of our cross-town rivals that rainy November afternoon. After homecoming, East's schedule closed out with a shutout victory over Bishop Eustace.

This year's soccer team was one of the most successful in East history. The booters were runner-ups in the South Jersey Conference Northern division and were invited to the prestigious South Jersey Coaches Tournament. In addition they advanced three rounds in the State Tournament, farther than any other East soccer team. The offense was the most potent ever, scoring 42 goals, and the stingy defense allowed just 23 goals. Finally, the second game of the season marked Coach Heisman's 100th win. It was truly an outstanding year for East soccer.

what a ball!
Girls field hockey has always been consistent; now they’re getting consistently better. Within conference play, the girls battled for a 18-0-1 record as they easily cruised for the title. Throughout the season, East outscored their opponents 54-10 while boasting an amazing eleven shutouts. The Courier Post rated Cherry Hill East as the number one team and they proved their strength in post season play when they went on to win New Jersey’s Group IV championship. All the girls will surely recall that amazing day when they toppled a northern powerhouse, Westfield, for the trophy.

NJSIAA State Championship Runner-up

East girls' gymnastics team swung on to an undefeated season of 11-0. They proceeded to balance sturdily on the 1979 South Sectional State NJSIAA Championship, and finished out the winning routine by tumbling into a very close runner-up position in the 1979 NJSIAA State Championship.

WINS: 7  LOSSES: 0  TIES: 7

The boys gymnastics team forged through the season undefeated in the standings. Cherry Hill East's Swinging Singles displayed many awesome feats at the bar, as well as showing much finesse at the rings. On the even parallel bars they received high praise for their great skills in doing dismount and "dat" mount.

The cross-country team is building a dynasty. For the second consecutive year, the team was crowned as the conference champions. Their other achievements included a third place finish in the highly competitive Camden County Open and a fourth ranking in the Courier-Post’s poll. In the group IV sectional meet, East placed fifth which enabled them to advance to the state meet where they finished seventh. No member of the team will ever forget that rainfilled day in October when East hydroplaned over a strong Camden Catholic squad and emerged as a Cross Country powerhouse!

South Jersey North Conference Champions

After a smashing 18-6 season, the girls' basketball team hooped and hollered enough to become the South Jersey North Conference Champions. Aided by the enormous efforts of its senior hoopers, the team owes much of its success to Betty Jane Zellers, Celine Flinn, and Nancy Davis, as well as the many other hardworking team members and of course their coach, Ms. Fitzpatrick.

George Ramming
This year's Cougar Basketball team had a fairly successful season. Junior George Ramming led the team in scoring with an average of 16 points per game. Leading rebounders were Senior Scott Baggot and George Ramming. Senior Greg Deighan was the best defensive player and senior Steve Stewart served as an excellent leader in assists and on the floor. Off the bench, to aid in many key situations came seniors Mark Drowsdowski and Tim Udicious. With the help of these and other team members, they advanced into the South Jersey semi-finals. They also won the Christmas Tournament played each year here at East. The highlight of the season was when J.J. Phillips scored 52 points in one game breaking the Cherry Hill East scoring record of 38 points set in 1971.

South Jersey League Champions

Although the boy's swim team was dethroned as New Jersey's State Champions by North Jersey's St. Joseph's of Metuchen, their season was by no means average. They rolled to their sixth straight South Jersey crown en route to a 19-1 season. The lone loss, a 10-point nipping by the same St. Joe's team, ended a 74-dual meet winning streak that spanned the 1978-79 seasons. But the team totally dominated the South Jersey Invitationals, beating out their nearest rival by nearly 200 points. Seniors Jim McGlone and Steve Goldhirsh, juniors Dan Molotlay, and Gary Thomas, sophomores Jeff Mead and Jeff Clemens, and frosh Glenn Hartkopf and Bob Garrity were all multiple-medal winners, as well as being major contributors during the regular sea.

On the road to a third State Championship title in four years, East's water wonderwomen rolled through their South Jersey league schedule, with a 298-245 dominance over the same Poultry Clan to capture the South Jersey Invitational crown. The Cougar's 12-2 overall record was a triumph for first year coaches Irene Genther and Cheryl Dreyer, and fine individual performances by freshman Leslie Pike; sophomores Martha Bell, Sue Wolfe, and Kim Wilkinson; Juniors Lori Pike, Cindy Beier, and Sue Roth; and seniors Sue Ball, Kathy Cherbinsky, Michele Peters, Ricky Petersen and co-captains Joan Buehler and Sue Rybak highlighted the East 1979-1980 season.

South Jersey League Champions
The bowling team enjoyed a fine season this year. The girls' Varsity finished a solid 4th in the league, and 12th in South Jersey Sectionals. Brenda Koehser represented East at the State Meet bowling as an individual. Finishing 5th was the boy’s Varsity.

The J.V. boys came out on top this year with an excellent record, while the J.V. girls finished in 5th place. The only thing higher than Howard Goldberg’s league high game of 255 were the number of “unrepeatable jokes” told on the way home from the matches.
The Wrestling Cougars did it again! South Jersey Champs for the third year in a row, Lenape Tournament Champs and a 14 wins and 4 loss dual match campaign were some of the accomplishments in this very fine 14 and 2 record. The freshman team was undefeated in 17 dual matches and winners of the East Freshman Tournament. The wrestling teams were superbly coached by Mr. John Semar, Mr. Lou Frank, and Mr. Don Kohlbraas.

The Incredible Hulk!

UNDERCLASSMEN
Though Steve's days at Cherry Hill East were few, he touched the lives of many of us with his courage and determination. His love of life and people had a special effect on all who knew him. In return he had the opportunity to experience a special love and caring from friends, teachers, and classmates. His life will continue in our memories as an example of what it means to live life fully no matter how long or short our lives may be. As one friend said, "I received more from Steve than I could ever have given to him".

Sue Steinberg, President

Well, we finally made it through our first year at East - and what a year it was! Naturally, some upperclassmen made plenty of cracks at us, but there were those mature students who were kind enough and tell us about the short-cut to B-wing by way of the pool. But we showed them that the Class of '83 can take it.

Just as we began to find our way around this massive school, we were hit with "Spirit Week!" Of course, it took us quite a while to figure out what "Spirit Week" actually is, but once shown how it works, we became the winner of the cougar T-shirt contest. However, by that time, the sophomores, juniors and seniors had already beaten us in the other contests. We may have come in fourth place in the overall contest, but we certainly were first in spirit.

Then came elections for our officers who, when settled in, got fund-raisers underway. First were pretzels - one for fifteen cents, two for a quarter. After quite a few of these successful sales, we decided to go for the sweets - candy of all kinds. This, of course, went over just as well. Other activities came along and we filled our treasury pretty well. Finally, the year came to a close. As we say goodbye to our freshman year, we are not sad, for we have done a good job and have shown others the power of the freshman and of the Class of '83.

Jane Schilmoeller, President

Our sophomore year has finally come to an end. Good times, fun, and success are only parts of the yellow brick road which has guided us through these past two years and which will guide us through the years to come.

In the past, sophomore classes haven’t had the best of success, but we struggled and pulled through. Our main objective was to raise money, especially for next year’s prom. Always alert, the class of ’82 got the spirit of school going by selling “Cougar Country” buttons. This was a big success and got us off to a great start. Our next idea was a movie. School movies were the fad last year; it’s only a shame fads die out. For our next fundraiser, we decided that the only way to a class’ treasury is through it’s stomach, and donuts and orange drink were the hot items.

Our dream is to have a successful junior year. Let’s all follow our dreams over that rainbow where the dreams that you dare to dream really do come true.

Of course, every year is supposed to be "the year of the seniors," but this one, perhaps more than any other, has also been "the year of the juniors." The Class of '81 has demonstrated a high degree of unity through its spirit, determination, and involvement.

We started the year with a close second in Spirit Week, tying the seniors in the number of individual events won. We showed our creativity in a "spirtited" hallway with the haunted house winning first prize. Additionally, we won both the dance competition and color-day dress-up, but the seniors ultimately accumulated enough points in the cake contest to win the overall trophy. However, we wreaked revenge later in the homecoming-float contest.

Homecoming was untraditionally traditional this year in that it combined the best of a good old-fashioned parade with the best of a lively bonfire. It also provided the Class of '81 the opportunity to become the first junior class ever to win the float competition.

A tremendous effort from many enthusiastic juniors was needed to construct the winning float — a re-enactment of New Orleans' Mardi Gras, complete with its own live "Preservation Hall Jazz Band."

Continuing our activities, we sold holiday candy canes with personal messages and delivered them individually to homerooms. This fundraiser provided the class with revenue, and provided the entire school with a little bit of romantic frivolity. Throughout the year, class members worked towards our May 30 prom by selling refreshments at various athletic events.

The prom was a tremendous success. Held at the Cherry Hill Inn "Starlight" Ballroom, it was the culmination of a year of dedicated fund-raising by the junior class.

This year may have been great, but next year will be fantastic as we enter "the year of the Class of '81."

Life! I know not what thou art,
But know that thou and I must part;
And when, or how, or where we met
I own to me's a secret yet.

Life! We've been long together,
Through pleasant and through cloudy weather;
'Tis hard to part when friends are dear—
Perhaps 'twill cost a sign, a tear;
Then steal away, give little warning,
Choose thine own time;
Say not Good Nght, — but in some clime
Bid me Good Morning.

It seems like yesterday that we entered this place and the years went by at such a rapid pace. We have shared so many things as the class of 80; we are known as the class with the get-up-and-go! The years have been exciting, each with it's separate qualities, but what we'll remember most are the great times we all have shared. We can remember in our junior year, almost winning Spirit Week, and then we came in second in the Homecoming Parade, by just a little squeak. The Junior Prom was the biggest the East has ever had, and that's why Greg and Sharon were so very glad. We went to Great Adventure, and had a great time, even though there weren't many of us - only 39. The summer went so fast that we didn't realize, in September we'd be seniors, in front of everyone else's eyes. We started the year like cowboys by winning Spirit Week; then we tried to figure without being meek, what day we would graduate, so we all had a seat. The outcome of the meeting was not to keen, but the School Board decided it would be June 15. Steve and Joan started a new tradition; Homecoming Parade without a football game; it was a huge success even though our float was not the best. Giving blood seems very strange, but Mindy and Terri made everything fine. We got 182 pints which isn't bad, so they were glad. Our Hyatt Riot encompassed the class. Sharon and Robin did their best, and that was certainly a great success.

We'll never forget the years at East, and we wish every senior a great future.

Greg, Kurt, Bernie, and Carolyn

TO "THE CLASS OF 1980"

The past four years was an experience I will never forget. I have come to know many of you in a variety of circumstances; the orientation to a new school, the hurried efforts to prepare for your first Spirit Week, chats in the office, at games, plays, in lasses, and award programs. Through it all, you have done an outstanding job of fulfilling both academic and non-academic goals.

Many changes have occurred since you entered East. On one hand, the school has changed several policies, policies which you have helped modify and improve, to aid others in becoming better citizens of the East community. On the other hand, you have matured to the point where you help freshmen find their way to class and not via the swimming pool.

I am sad to see you leave, knowing that East will never be the same; but I am proud to see you as young men and women who have an awareness of your responsibilities and the responsibilities to attain the dreams of your lives.

I thank you personally for the things you have contributed to East, and wish you life's best in the future.

Sincerely,

Mark P. Miles
Assistant Principal camden county's junior miss

"I never expected that my initial interest in Junior Miss would become such an adventure! I felt especially proud to represent Cherry Hill East in the county pageant and then to represent Camden County in the state pageant. The girls that I had the opportunity to meet were all very special and I hope that next year's Junior Miss will experience some of the same feelings I have had. It was a truly valuable experience for me."

In competing for the title of Camden County Junior Miss, Katy Kwo first needed to become East's representative. After winning our school contest, she competed with twenty-two other senior girls from different high schools throughout Camden County. After again winning, Katy went on to become Camden County's representative in the statewide Junior Miss competition. Although Katy did not become New Jersey's Junior Miss, she did dazzle the judges enough with her poise, scholastic achievement, and talent to be named second runner-up and win twelve hundred dollars in scholarship money.

miss teen new jersey

Valerie De Pena, musical dramatic senior, represented New Jersey in the "Miss Teen U.S.A." pageant in the fall of '79. To become New Jersey's representative, Valerie competed against many other talented seniors in a competition held at the Hyatt House last summer. The selection of "Miss Teen N.J." was based on scholastic achievement, poise, personality, talent, as well as a personal interview. As the winner of the "Miss Teen N.J." pageant, Valerie received a five hundred dollar scholarship and an opportunity to compete for the title of Miss Teen U.S.A." at the national pageant in New Mexico. Although Valerie was not chosen "Miss Teen U.S.A.," she did become the second runner-up in the talent portion of the national competition. Among the many opportunities provided Valerie by this experience is the chance to travel throughout the country to help m.c. other state pageants. As Valerie summarizes her feelings:

Entering the "Miss Teen U.S.A." pageant and being chosen the "Miss Teen U.S.A." from New Jersey was by far a most rewarding experience. I was able to travel, meet many new friends from all over the country, and perform at the many other state pageants I attended.

FEATURES
This year's Spirit Week was as successful as ever with events galore. For one week in September, the halls of East came alive with spirit. Classes were pitted against one another in contests including Find-the-Cougar, Color Day, Hall Decoration, Banner Construction, and Cougar Shirt Purchasing. The final event of the week was a pep rally with entertainment provided by the Cougar Band and the presentation of the Spirit Cup to the winning class.
Naturally the senior class of 1980 won Spirit Week by capturing first places in the Cake Decorating, Banner, and Cougar Hunt events. The contest was close, as the junior class almost won, but of course the Class of '80 pulled through.
Every school has its traditions, and one which is common to all of them is homecoming. At East, the homecoming ceremonies are usually composed of an array of colorful floats and smiling queens circling the field at the season's final home football game. This year, East's homecoming was a little different. Of course the floats and queens were there, but instead of parading around Cherry Hill Stadium, they were parading up Cropwell Road along with the marching band and the fall sports teams. This year's theme was "Great Moments in U.S. History," and the float entries were The Gold Rush, Mardi Gras (which won first place for the juniors), The Boston Tea Party, Washington's Crossing of the Delaware, The Moon Landing, and a DECA float. The queens were Jodi Graham, Robin Garland, Katy Kwo, and Carolyn Corbi for the seniors and Patti Owens, Michelle Arndt, and Lynn Goodman for the underclassmen. The procession, which was organized by seniors Joan Buehler and Steve Marks, began at Beck and ended in the back of East. Students then gathered for a pep rally, the presentation of awards, and a bonfire. The 1979 Homecoming was a break from tradition, but hopefully it marked the beginning of another.
On December 12th, many Cherry Hill East students took part in the annual F.O.P. Christmas party for the retarded citizens of South Jersey. This year it was bigger and better than ever. The Ballroom of The Hyatt House was filled with colorful decorations and volunteers dressed in costumes. Events included eating the 100 foot hoagie, listening to various music groups, enjoying the acts up on stage, and Santa’s visit with gifts for everyone. The many special schools taking part enjoyed themselves very much. Other groups like the Rotary Club, the police department, and other contributors were vital to the success of this event. It was truly a day many East students will remember.
valentine's day

The carnations were red!
The carnations were blue!
The carnations were white, orange and yellow too!
Thousands of carnations flourished throughout East on that day of lovers in the middle of February. Students exchanged flowers to give each other a 'hello' or that special personal message. Other festivities of the day included the hanging of the countless number of inscribed paper hearts in the main wing and the Valentine's Day valentine contest which Tacie Fox won.
the gong show

What is so special about February 22? To some, it is Washington’s birthday; to others, it is the date the U.S. Olympic Hockey team beat the Soviets; but for hundreds of Cherry Hill East students, February 22 was the date of the annual senior class gong show. Coordinators Maryanne Garry and Michele Schenk put together this sell-out show, which included acts such as female impressionist Ron Halpern, “Peanut Butter and Jelly,” a magic act, and rock music. Hosting this extravaganza were senior class clowns Maryanne Garry and Bob Skinner. Judges Betsi McLeester, Howard Boulden, David Cole, and Fred Belchikoff chose “Saturday Night Live” by Jodi Graham and Ramona Bregatta as the winning act. But even those people who didn’t win had a great time because the gong show was a time when the typical East student could live out his hidden fantasies:
to stop being just another brick in the wall and become punk singer Pink Sid ...

to make a singing debut...

to hold hostages

or to protest the draft.
During the year there are several concerts where musically inclined students have a chance to perform in front of an audience. The directors of the instrumental department are Ronald Robinson, Eugene Magill, and Roy Hough. The teachers in charge of the chorus groups are Barbara Solly, Donna Cable and Claire DeKrafft. There was outstanding talent at East this past school year. Several of our students received recognition for their talent and hard work by being able to participate in higher organizations such as South Jersey and All State.

DEATH OF A SALESMAN

by

Arthur Miller

Directed by

THOMAS R. WEAVER

Set and Lighting Design by

ROBERT D. NATION

On November 29 & 30 and December 1 & 2, the Performing Arts Department set a dramatic precedent by presenting Arthur Miller’s class “Death of a Salesman”. Never before had Cherry Hill East attempted a play of such mature subject matter, but the play’s success proved the talent and capabilities of East’s students. “Death of a Salesman” focuses on the life of Willy Loman, a tragic character who spends his entire life searching for the “American Dream”. Willy, unable to find his ideal, ends his search with self-destruction.

Lee Brownstein, portraying Willy Loman, magnificently earned the sympathy and tears of every audience. Linda McCauley and Wendy Urban, each as Linda Loman, also captured the audience’s affections. “Death of a Salesman”, a challenge to all actors, proved the quality talent of East’s drama department.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

WILLY LOMAN: Lee Brownstein

Bob Skinner as Harold Hill with Andy Klein, who stole the show as Winthrop.

Harold Hill (Bob meets Marcellus (Scott Batti)

76 trombones led the big parade at East as the drama department produced "The Music Man" on Feb. 29 and March 1, 2, 6, 7 & 8. The show was memorable for the fine acting performances of Bob Skinner and Steve Howe in the title role as well as for the surprising climax. In the final scene, much to the surprise of the audience, the Cougar band stepped off from the back of the auditorium playing "76 Trombones", proving that Harold Hill's think system really works.

Steve Howe and Jodi Graham rehearse "Til There Was You" on the gazebo.

Take Time to think... It is the source of power.
Take Time to play... It is the secret of perpetual youth.
Take Time to read... It is the fountain of wisdom.
Take Time to pray... It is the greatest power on earth.
Take Time to love and be loved... It is a God-given privilege.
Take Time to be friendly... It is the road to happiness.
Take Time to laugh... It is the music of the soul.
Take Time to give... It is too short a day to be selfish.
Take Time to work... It is the price of success.

Dear Mindy,

The yearbook is great ~ a beautiful memory!!
In the years to come, I wish you wisdom, strength, peace, faith, hope & city: joy & laughter.

Love,
Nana & Dad
In these few months, we have witnessed crises from the national to the local level. Nationally, Abscam, spiralling inflation, the proposed draft, and the hostage crisis in Iran all contributed to the 1979-80 stress. So did the conflicts right here in Cherry Hill as we East students embarked on protests of our own. Seniors fought for early graduation, juniors negotiated for a lounge for 1981, and students of all four classes struggled to keep the Coordinator of Student Affairs. Despite the controversy over these issues, students conducted themselves with maturity and resisted the temptation to hold Mr. Cost hostage in the cafeteria.

And now the 1979-80 school year is over. As we leap excitedly into our summer activities, glad to be temporarily relieved of the tension of labs, reports, and exams, we can take the time to relax and reflect upon the last nine months.
The overall tone of 1979-80 was not one of unrest, though. Far outshining the restless times were the moments of triumph. On the national sports scene, for instance, the U.S. Olympic athletes impressed the world. As millions watched, Eric Heiden broke Olympic speed-skating records by seconds on his way to an unprecedented five gold medals. But if Heiden's feat was fantastic, the performance of the U.S. hockey team was astounding. Who could have predicted that the Cinderella team would capture the gold medal?

Meanwhile, here at East, our own athletes were putting on impressive performances of their own.
Between its times of political strife and its moments of triumph, 1979-80 also had its opportunities for diversion — opportunities to sit back and enjoy oneself. At the movies, the men of America fell in love with Bo "10" Derek while the women swooned over Richard "American Gigolo" Gere. Of course, we all know that Bo and Richard can not compare to the 10's and gigolos of the Class of 80, especially class treasurer Kurt "Bubbles" Gilson, who was a cheerleader during Spirit Week.

This year, Spirit Week, which will be remembered for the Old West showdown between the senior cowboys and the junior indians (and, of course, for Kurt's legs), was but one of the many activities held at East. Homecoming, the Gong Show, drama productions, various concerts, the Student Council Variety Show, and the proms each provided students with an escape from the day-to-day rigors of academic life. With the rowdy spirit and the crazy activities that exist here, there is no doubt that this can be called The Wild Wild East.
Truly, 1979-80 was a time for making the best of an insecure world and a frightened nation, despite the conflicts we met along the way.

We, in the true spirit of East students, persevered and, through our wild enthusiasm, made this one of the best years that East has ever seen.

Students will be assigned a detention for each unauthorized lateness.

If a note authorizing the lateness is received before the time of the detention, it will be cancelled.
