As we walk forward in time

we can't help but look back and see the impressions we have left behind us.
Some vanish before we turn our heads like footprints in sand...
...others that survive become lessons and memories that stand up to time
When our time has run out and we walk away,
We imagine our world unchanged behind us
But we can always turn around and see the impressions we have left in our paths.

INTRODUCTION
FOOTPRINTS IN TIME

Dear Senior Students:

You have earned your first educational ticket into the adult world – the high school diploma. The staff at West is extremely proud of you for persisting through your high school years.

As you enter the adult world of higher education, employment and/or armed services, you will use the academic, technical and interpersonal skills that you have developed through your high school years.

Your Footprints in Time are those experiences from which you have learned and have contributed. Continue to set goals that are healthy, productive and appropriate for you in your next phase of development. Your goals will guide your learning and contributions to an improved world.

On behalf of the staff members at Cherry Hill High School West, I wish you continued success.

Best Wishes,

Ellen Linky

Running for the Goal

SPORTS
Expectations ran high at the start of the season as many of last year’s varsity letter winners returned. The expectations were well founded, the team won the Hawaiian Classic tournament in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina at the start of the season. Tournament MVP was Chris Estilow, and Greg Gaul and Jamie Russen were tournament all-stars. The season continued to go well, highlighted by a perfect game for pitcher Nate Cretarolo and a one-hitter by pitcher Steve Chojnacki. In the playoffs, West beat Washington Township in the first round, but lost to Cherry Hill East by only one run.

6. Deep in concentration, Nate Cretarolo is ready for the pitch. 7. Coaches Murray and Sarno evaluate the talent. 8. Andrew Czerwinski gets ready to throw the ball to first. 9. Chuck Perri, Tim Hutchinson, Andrew Czerwinski, Tom Evans, Matt Todd and John McBride gather on the pitcher's mound for a pre-game cheer. 10. Steve Chojnacki gets low to field a ground ball. 11. The 1999 JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM: (First Row) Brian DelGozzo, Louis Hays, Daniel Myers, Andrew Czerwinski, (Second Row) Chuck Perri, Tom Evans, John McBride, Jason Speller, Zachary Smith, (Third Row) Eric Godwin, Marc DiSibio, Tim Hutchinson, Matt Todd, Patrick Welding, Noah Saft.
1. The 1999 Varsity Softball Team:
(First Row) Shannon Fontenille, Christina DiGirolamo, Rachel Sukinik, Missy Stahl, (Second Row) Stibbon Scullin, Alicia Reyes, Amanda McLoughlin, Julie Paul, (Third Row) Coach Inverso, Kelly Czajka, Rebecca Sonheim, Jennifer Mitchell, Tara Hrvnak, April Fox, Coach Merzynas.
2. Tara Hrvnak goes "oops."
3. Allison Brown gets ready to sprint home.
4. Julie Paul bends down low to field a grounder.
5. Hurling the ball to first, Alicia Revin gets the runner out.
6. Mandy McLoughlin's powerful hit sends the opposing outfield running.
7. Winding up for the pitch, Jen Mitchell concentrates on striking the batter out.
Lacrosse

In Ms. Robin Schwartz’s second year as coach, the team improved from last year’s record to go 6-11-1. One of the leading scorers, Marianna Zilberman, scored her hundredth career goal during the last game of the season against Camden Catholic. In addition to reaching this milestone, Marianna was selected to the first team All Conference and the Senior All Star team. Other honors went to Karen Brummell for second team All Conference and the Senior All Star team and to Jen Sapp for her first team All Conference.
1. Marianna Zilberman, Tara O'Neil, and Jan Sapp congratulate each other after a goal. 2. After scoring her 100th career goal, Marianna Zilberman cools off under the cooler. 3. Fending off the double team, Jen Sapp flies by the defense. 4. 1999 VARSITY LACROSSE TEAM: (First Row) Kim Stout, Debra Amon, Carolyn Peluso, Marianna Zilberman, Kathy Lo (Second Row) Jessica Lovinsky, Katia Janes, Jodi Kagan, Stephanie Zhukovsky, Jen Sapp, Laura Topp (Third Row) Jamie Giblin, Morgan Lang, Karen Brannell, Susan Tily, Tara O'Neil, Amanda Sargent, Rachel Rzepski, Dominique Bono 5. Jessica Lovinsky beats a defender to a ground ball. 6. Kathy Lo finds herself face to face with a defender. 7. Laura Topp cuts wide for a pass. 8. Full of determination, Morgan Lang charges toward the goal. 9. Dodging a defender, Karen Brannell attempts to avoid a check. 10. 1999 JV LACROSSE TEAM: (First Row) Diana Melitz, Gladys Santos, Brynn Davis, Betsy Lipoff, Meghan Gandy, Michelle DiFedele, Andrea Satisky, Katie Herrero, Danielle Sipple, Margaret Kavanaugh, Jen Pelczarski

With his powerful forehand, Steve Ronn sends the ball flying over the net. 4. Binh Le prepared to score a point.

Under the leadership of seasoned coach Dr. Walter Brown, the boys' tennis team went 16-9. The first doubles tandem of Bill Bachelor and Mike Zietz were selected to the first team All Conference, while team MVP, Erik Bigornia, was selected to the second team All Conference.
1. Yoon Hong chips the ball onto the green. 2. THE 1999 GOLF TEAM:
(First Row) Matt Maggio, Coach Paige, Shannon Shaw, Tom Clarkin, (Second Row) Joshua Masters, Mike Dalbey, Yoon Hong, Andrew Maggio, Rory Bryne, (Not Pictured) Anthony Owings, Zach Masters, Michael Foster, Jason Joseph. 3. Concentrating on the ball, Shannon Shaw gets ready to take a shot. 4. Andrew Maggio takes a practice swing.

Dedication is the name of the game as the golf team was only able to practice once a week. Since the team had no bus, Coach
Paige had to transport them in his van to practice. Despite these hindrances, their record was 6-14. Yoon Hong garnered first team All Conference honors, and Matt Maggio earned a spot on second team All Conference.

After ending the season with a 8-1 record, the boys cross country team ranked 13th in South Jersey. Senior Gurvinder Mathoan and junior Dan Levy earned First Team All Olympic Conference honors. Senior’s Phil Jacques and Mike Lajkowicz, who was the team’s Most Valuable Runner, were named to the Second Team All Olympic Conference.
Cross Country

Despite injuries and difficulties, the Girls' Cross Country Team, although small in number, was large in heart, finishing the season with a respectable 4-5 record. Junior Caitlin Fletcher had an outstanding year, running faster than any Cherry Hill West runner in the history of the program. She finished 10th in the South Jersey Open, 6th in the Cinnaminson Challenge Cup, and made First Team Olympic Conference National Division. All runners return next season and are poised for a fantastic year.

The Boys' Basketball Team finished the season with a record of 6 wins and 17 loses. The record does not indicate how hard this team played. Every game from start to finish, the team gave its all. Norman Ingram was named to the First Team All Conference for averaging 19 points per game. Hamisi Tarrant and Rafeeq DeWar were selected to play in the Senior All Star Game. At the Colt Classic, Norman Ingram was selected player of the game in the semifinals and Hamisi Tarrant was selected play of the game in the finals.

Swimming

The beginning of the swimming season was hindered by the lack of a swimming facility. Rather than remain fish out of water, the team rallied together and practiced before school. While the 6 AM practices were to have lasted for only two weeks, the team sacrificed over a month of precious sleeping time. The dedication and determination that developed during the first month of the season stayed with the team throughout. Both teams finished with outstanding records, proving that hard work and team spirit is the path to success.

Vocal Workshop is an entry-level group for students wanting to participate in West's music program. This choir is a mixed group with male and female voices, of widely ranging skills and musicianship. Students aspiring to progress to the upper level groups learn the basics of vocal music in this choir through a multitude of vocal warm ups, scales and repertoire.
As a choir of all female voices, Chansons is very distinct from the other curricular choirs. Chansons is made up of experienced singers who have grown musically and have progressed into this choir of upperclassmen. Chansons rehearses in a classroom setting on a daily basis and performs during the winter and spring vocal music concerts.
Concert Choir is a curricular mixed choir of upperclassmen. These students are experienced musicians, who rehearse on a daily basis under the co-direction of Mrs. Bass and Mr. Boeckle. With the musical balance and tonal blend of voices, Concert Choir always gives an impressive performance in the winter and spring vocal music concerts. Concert Choir also performs several pieces jointly with West Singers, forming the Symphonic Choir.

West Singers is the fastest-paced curricular choir in West’s music department. The musicians in this choir are upperclassmen with a strong understanding and appreciation for music. This choir not only prepares for the winter and spring concerts, but also for choral competitions and entertaining events such as the annual International Dinner. West Singers is a memorable experience, for both the audience who listens to the music of these young musicians and the members of the choir who make music.
An auditioned group of eleven members, Men of Note is an extracurricular group of highly skilled musicians. With their endearing antics and crowd-pleasing talent, Men of Note is always a highlight on West’s stage.

Chamber Singers is a mixed extracurricular group with the balanced blend of highly skilled musicians. Chamber Singers is a versatile group, singing music ranging from early madrigals to songs by The Beatles. In addition to performances on West's stage, this group performs in the community, such as serenading patrons during the December holidays at Café Lamberti's and The Mansion. The success of the holiday music led to the recording of Chamber Singers' debut CD, "An Evening in December".

PERFORMING ARTS
With enthusiasm and hard work, West's choral program put forth a memorable Broadway Night. Dancers and soloists performed all the loved Disney songs from The Little Mermaid’s “Part of Your World” to Mary Poppins’ “Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious”. Amidst the sold out shows, and great audiences, Broadway Night '99 turned West’s auditorium into “the happiest place on Earth”.

SPECIAL EVENTS
All of West's singers, dancers, and musicians come out of the cracks and display their individual fortes at the annual Talent Show. This year brought a wide variety of acts such as a Hawaiian dance, a baton twirler, a bond girl, and Mike Dalbey as the coveted boy in "The Boy is Mine." There was the usual familiar gang of Melanie Gaskins and Jen DeSanto dancing, Garrett Miller and Lindsay Lipsman singing, Greg DeTurk on piano, Matt Robinson on drums, and Gene Pool trying to smash their old guitars after a lengthy jam. New comers like Allaine Cueto and Lindsey Burbank wowed the audience with their talent. The Santana ensemble rocked out—it's too bad the curtain closed on them...

In the annual East-West Thanksgiving football game, the Lions gave their fans their most impressive performance of the year, defeating East 29-0. The Lions physically dominated both lines of scrimmage and held the explosive Cougar offense scoreless. Butch Beri, Shaun Dolan and Ed Broome all found the end zone behind some bone crushing blocks by the offensive line. The game marked West’ first back-to-back victories over their cross-town rivals. Congrats to the team and staff!

When green tights, leather pants, and angel wings appear on the same stage, you know you’re in for a wild night. Ten talented contestants competed in the categories of formal wear, casual wear, swim wear, talent, interview, and audience support to win the esteemed title of Mr. West 2000. Mr. Barbie, senior Adam Rosenzweig, proved victorious as our new Mr. West. It’s too bad that high heels were optional...
Faculty Talent Show
If you think your math teacher has no dramatic abilities, think again! If you believe your psychology teacher is musically inept, take a closer look. The eccentric substitute you once had in freshman English? Yes, even she has a special hidden talent to reveal to us all. West’s Faculty Talent Show made its welcomed comeback appearance this year, giving all your favorite teachers a chance to experience their 15 minutes of fame in the limelight.

A Teacher, Mother, Mentor, Saint, Devil, Confidant, Jokester, Enforcer, Looney ... all of these describe the woman ... the yearbook machine ... known as KRUGER. Wow, it was a crazy four years: Missing croppers, dropped phones, death music on the radio, pictures stolen, pictures folded, pictures with fingerprints, pictures so dark that we had to identify people by their teeth, soda cans next to layouts, and always the impending DEADLINE. We will miss the woman who made A-9 a second home to all of us.

The Varsity team had a big improvement from last year to this year. Although their record wasn't too good it was still an improvement from just one victory last year. The team did win a holiday tournament over the winter break. They played hard every game with all their heart, and it really showed. They struggled to bring up their record by going into each game with a winning attitude. They were also known around the league for their good sportsmanship.
West's Junior Varsity squad consisted of many talented players. The team proved to be one of the stronger teams in the South Jersey Interscholastic Ice Hockey League. The JV team had a much better season this year with a record of 7-9-4. The Lion's defeated and tied number-two ranked Washington Township during the regular season, and advanced to the semifinal playoffs with an exciting 6-4 victory over cross-town rival Cherry Hill East in the opening round. Most importantly, the JV players were well respected around the league for their quick skating and discipline on and off the ice.

Adam Ross Rosenzweig

Adam,
You are one of a kind!! Just remember—on the roads of life there are smooth curves, rough curves, and even dead-ends; however, no obstacle should ever keep you from traveling. Keep up the good work.
We are proud of you and we love you,
Mom, Dad, and Harris

Kelly Ann Ford

It seems like yesterday you quietly but somehow raucously came into our lives with your infectious laugh and adorable little wink. It has not always been easy for you to grab all that life has to offer. We hope we have helped you to reach out and open some new doors. With your persistence and quiet determination we know you will succeed wherever your path leads you. Raise your voice in song and let everyone hear your beautiful music. “Give the world the best you have, and the best will come back to you.”
You’ve come a long way, baby!
All our love always,
Mom, Dad, Amanda, Lindsey, and A.J.

And the memories of times gone by
Remember we're proud
And that you are loved
As you reach for the stars in the sky.

Congratulations!!!!!
Love,
Dad, Mom, Eric, and Tipper

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight."

Proverbs 3:5-6

To think that our little girl has already grown to be a nice young woman ready to graduate high school is still hard to believe. How can we describe all the happiness you have brought us? How can we measure all the joy you have given us? How can we tell you how much we love you?

We are so grateful and proud to have you for a daughter and you have been a wonderful joy in our lives. May God’s Grace be with you always.

Love always,
Mom, Dad, and sister Sarah
Dana Schaffhauser

You have given us so much...joy, laughter, happiness. We wish you all the best. We are so proud of all you and all you will become.

We love you,

Dear Philip,

Parents give a child his roots and his wings. Your roots are evidenced by your commitment, responsibility, discipline, and unending love. They are so deeply planted that nothing will disturb them. Your wings are steadily forming to carry you to unlimited heights and dreams yet to be fulfilled. We love you, with enormous pride in your character and accomplishments. May you go from strength to strength with G-d’s blessings.

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Ben

The Star

You were born on the night of All Hallows Eve
When witches and goblins will beg and receive
From the time you were three, we started to know
As we were summoned to watch your fabulous "shows".

Singing "Goodnight" became our nightly ritual,
But that darn Annie, such a disruptive individual.
In spite of all the interference by Mom and me,
Your school years have been perfect with hardly a "B".

Always willing to help, no matter how hard the task,
When it needed to be done, no one need ask.
No longer a child, such a hard pill to swallow,
You've set a high mark for all who will follow.

Hold steady your course and you'll never flounder,
Be true to yourself and defy all the doubters.
Wherever you goals take you, no matter how far,
Our pride is only surpassed by our Love for the Star.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Catherine, and Kelly
Amanda Marie McLoughlin

To be a star,
You must shine your own light,
Follow your own path –
And don’t worry about the darkness.
For that is when stars shine brightest!
Mandi,
Congratulations!
We love you,
Mom, Dad, Ian, and Shane

Leah Teresa Pente

Leah,

Although parents don’t need a special occasion to reflect on the lives of their children; as the memories play so often in our minds. We look back now from another century, a new beginning. Thinking about a beautiful boy. The uncontrolled fits of laughter. The accidents waiting to happen. The little man and the lessons to be learned. Our hopes and dreams for the future.

We wish you success, as you take your spirit, determination and persistence on the road to becoming the man that you want to be. But above all else, we wish you joy.

Love always,
Mom, Dad, and Mare

Old Friendship
By Eunice Tiejens

Beautiful and rich is an old friendship
Grateful to the touch as ancient ivory
Smooth as aged wine, or sheen of tapestry
Where light has lingered, intimate and long.
Full of tears and warm as an old friendship
That asks no longer deeds of gallantry,
Or any deed at all—save that the friend shall be Alive and breathing somewhere, like a song.

There are those who pass like ships in the night
Who meet for a moment, then sail out of sight
With never a backwards glance of regret
Folks we know briefly then quickly forget.

Then there are those friends who sail together
Through quiet waters and stormy weather
Helping each other through joy and through strife
And they are the kind that give meaning to life.
Congratulations

In September, more than 300,000 Japanese are checked for radiation exposure after an inadvertent nuclear reaction at a uranium processing plant.

EgatAir Flight 990 crashes into the Atlantic Ocean on October 31, killing all 217 people on board. Although suspicious actions of a pilot are under scrutiny by American and Egyptian officials, the cause of the crash remains a mystery.

On October 12, the world's official population hits 6 billion. The designated 6 billionth human is a baby boy born in Sarajevo.

In an October coup, the Pakistani army dismisses elected Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif and his government. After Sharif announces the removal of his powerful military chief, General Pervez Musharraf.

Nearly a million ethnic Albanians flee Yugoslavia and thousands are killed after Serbs begin a violent ethnic cleansing campaign in 1998. Seventy-eight days of NATO bombing bring the war to an end in June. An international tribunal later charges Yugoslav President Slobodan Milosevic with crimes against humanity.

Britain's Prince Edward marries longtime girlfriend Sophie Rhys-Jones on June 19.

Cuban Elian Gonzalez, 6, becomes the center of a bitter citizenship debate after surviving a November boat wreck off the Florida coast in which his mother dies.

In India, two trains collide head-on in August, killing 283 people and injuring more than 300. It is one of the worst train disasters in the country's history.
In June, Thabo Mbeki succeeds President Nelson Mandela, South Africa’s first democratically elected president.

Leonardo da Vinci’s “The Last Supper” is unveiled in June after 21 years of restoration. The centimeter-by-centimeter rehabilitation cost $7.7 million and involved electronic microscopes.

After almost nine years in power, Russian President Boris Yeltsin announces his resignation in January 2000. Yeltsin names Prime Minister Vladimir Putin acting president pending elections in March.

In September, Russia begins a military campaign against Chechen nationalists to regain control of the breakaway republic. More than 200,000 people flee the region, but a fierce rebel resistance stays to fight for control of the capital, Grozny.

In September and October, powerful earthquakes strike around the globe, killing 15,000 people in Turkey, 1,450 in Taiwan and at least 122 in Greece.

Archaeologists excavate 165 mummies in a 2,000-year-old underground Egyptian tomb believed to contain a total of 16,000 mummies. The necropolis will shed new light on the Greco-Roman era and will allow scholars to chart demographic data and the incidence of disease.

On December 31, the U.S. returns control of the Panama Canal to Panama. Opened to the world in 1914, the canal is considered one of the greatest construction achievements in American history.

A tropical depression producing heavy rain hits Mexico in November. The resulting floods kill more than 350 people and cause 100,000 to evacuate.

In August, the U.S. pays $4.5 million to victims of NATO’s accidental bombing of the Chinese embassy in Belgrade. Three Chinese are killed and 27 are wounded in the May 1999 bombing.

In December, torrential rains cause Venezuela’s worst natural disaster of the century. Mudslides and flash floods kill up to 30,000 people, while damage estimates run into the billions of dollars.
