On our way 2012
On Our Way
Rampant 2012

This year, the Rampant staff brings you a book that points to the fact that we are all "on our way" to a future filled with limitless possibilities. No matter which direction we go or what path we choose to follow, we are all headed toward an exciting future.

The Rampant yearbook staff would like to extend an extra special thank you to senior Stephanie Emore. Stephanie's artwork inspired the cover of the 2012 Rampant yearbook.
To the Cherry Hill High School
West Educational Community

Especially the Graduates of the Class of 2012

Congratulations to our graduates! You are truly on your way into the future; I am going to miss seeing your faces in the building on a daily basis.

For our educational community, this yearbook reveals so much about us and our shared experiences. It is the story of who we are and the legacy that we are leaving on our school. We have worked together, developed together, laughed together, and cried together. We have won games and championships together, and we have stunned audiences in the theater together. We have studied, we have learned, we have grown, we have matured.

Your experiences at High School West will serve you well in to the future. You will always carry a part of this school with you no matter where you travel. If you are fortunate enough to be returning for another year at West, enjoy your summer – read and reflect, dream and laugh, prepare for your return in September.

I look forward to seeing you all soon! Have a safe and a happy summer.

Fondly,

Joseph N. Meloche, Ed.D.

Summer Fun
The halls of West are quiet during the summer months. That's because the students and faculty are expanding their horizons and seeing the world. Whether attending a program at West Point, or visiting China, the members of the West community make their way across town, across the state, across the country, and across the ocean.
The first day of school is an exciting time for members of the West Community. Students and teachers meet for the first time, and many students begin to figure the best ways to move around campus. The first day of school is also a time for students to catch up with friends.
And We're On Our Way

For some students, this first day of school marked the beginning of a new chapter in their lives. For others, it signified the beginning of their final year at West before they move on to the next phase of their lives. Either way, the first day of school is filled with excitement.

Spring Musical

The 80s were back and better than ever as the students of Cherry Hill West staged the musical The Wedding Singer, based on the 1998 hit comedy. Audiences were delighted as the music and costumes of another era came to life on the West stage. The theater students worked very hard to put this musical together, and their dedication led to rousing applause for wonderful performances.
The Wedding Singer
Broadway Night was fun filled evening of singing and laughter. The magic and splendor of Disney musicals came to life at Cherry Hill West. Melodious notes and harmonies erupted from the New Auditorium stage as students from today and tomorrow put their passion on full display.
DECA Fashion Show

DECA delighted the students of West during another spectacular fashion show. This annual couture extravaganza produced by DECA students shows their dedication, talent, personality, and love of fashion.
The talents of Cherry Hill West students were on full display at the annual One Act Play festival. Students representing each grade directed and starred in one act stage plays. The competition between the grades brought out the best in all participants.
Vocal Workshop & Chansons

Vocal Workshop is the first step in the prestigious vocal music program at West. It is different from many of the other choir groups at West because it is a musical fresh start. Chansons is a vocal group comprised of only girls. As a step up from Vocal Workshop, they work and sing together in preparation for the concerts that are held throughout the school year.
Concert Choir is the group of vocal students just a step below West Singers. Concert Choir vocalists sing and perform songs to learn more about vocal techniques. West Singers is a highly skilled group of young vocalists at West known for having highly developed voices. Their melodic abilities delight audiences at each vocal performance.
Men of Note and Fermata are Cherry Hill West's award winning contemporary a capella groups. These extraordinary groups are well-known throughout the community and at local and national competitions. West's Men of Note have held the title for champions of the Best of High School A Capella in many recent competitions. The ladies of Fermata represent their talent at West with their title of "Superb."
Chamber Singers & Symphonic Choir

Chamber Singers is another one of West's beloved, prestigious choir ensembles. Chamber Singers' repertoire is extensive and varied, ranging from classic holiday tunes to modern arrangements. Often, they venture off school grounds to perform at various area locations. One of the rarest treats is when the Symphonic Choir performs. Not an official ensemble, the Symphonic Choir combines the talented voices of Concert Choir and West Singers.
The Symphonic Band meets 8th Period each day, and any student that plays a wind, brass or percussion instrument in grades 9-12 can take the class. Some of West's top instrumentalists at the school perform in the Jazz Ensemble, a co-curricular group that meets after school one day a week. Members of this prestigious ensemble are selected via an audition process.
The 2011-2012 West Orchestra is a talented group of merry musicians who practice their craft on a daily basis to perfect the arrangements of the master composers of the past and present. The Wind Ensemble plays the best of the concert band repertoire that is both challenging and exciting. These groups delight audiences with each masterful performance.

Spaghetti Bridges
The sound of cracking pasta filled the air at the annual Spaghetti Bridge contest. The Physics students of Cherry Hill West assembled together for a day to break their creations and compete for best ratio. A month of research and preparation culminated in an afternoon of testing the strength of the student creations. This year's winner was constructed by Zohra Ahadi and Shreya Patel.
International Dessert Night
Lion's Pride
We are West! You can't hide the pride! Everyday, students and staff members can be found sporting West colors and showing their Lion's Pride.
For some, the 2:30 bell is just a suggestion. Whether they stay for sports, music, clubs, or extra help, the students of Cherry Hill West fill the halls with youthful exuberance after school. Teachers, tutors, coaches, and advisors offer all sorts of guidance after the final bell sounds.
Tom Rebecchi - Mrs. Millili is a passionate and compelling teacher who skillfully grabs the interest of her students through her dedication and fervor for Physics. She has made my later years at West enjoyable by teaching Physics in a practical and creative way.

Connor Schuck - No one has impacted my life more than my wrestling coach, Mr. Semar. He taught me how to work to my fullest capabilities. I would not be as successful as a wrestler or as a person if it was not for Coach Semar.

Lynn Juan - I have had the privilege to know Mr. O'Donnell for many years. He is committed to preparing students for life beyond high school. I know that wherever I go, I can keep several of his most important lessons in mind.

Jeffrey Ng - Mrs. Bass always provided an atmosphere of excellence in her classroom. The enthusiasm and confidence that was instilled in me translated into something that has affected me beyond any musical boundaries.
Ephraim Gittler - My high school career has been marked by excessively hard work and some stressful times, but the one person who has made my time at West more fun than it would otherwise have been is Dr. Meloche. We have known each other since I was a student and he was the principal at Carusi. I found out that he is fun, great to be with, smart, and a one-of-a-kind guy. I will always be glad that I met him.
Maya Wittman - Mr. Munday is extremely passionate about teaching and his dedication is strongly evident. Through all of his corny jokes and repetitive stories, Mr. Munday has made Latin one of the most enjoyable subjects and a memorable component of my high school experience. His class helped shape who I am as a student and as an individual, and I am very thankful for it.

The top 1% of the Class of 2012

Edgar Aliferov
I can't tell you how many famous rappers are going to come out of Cherry Hill West, but I can tell you that there’s going to be at least one happy kid graduating. As I look back at my days spent within that purple haven, I can’t help but realize that this school allowed me to not only pursue a higher education, but also to pursue happiness. The experiences that I truly remember are not those spent doing homework, it’s those that were spent on the wrestling mat, on the tennis court, on stage, with some of the most amazing people one could meet. West brought together a combination of teachers and peers that taught me how many great things could be achieved if you simply try them. With the motivation of amazing friends and family that never left my side, there is nothing more that I could ask from my high school experience. Lions, ROAR.

Wendy Cheng
Looking back on the four years that I have spent here at West, I now see that the most memorable experiences are the ones that have allowed to me to grow not only as a student, but also as an individual. The reminiscence of smearing peanut butter and jelly to make sandwiches for the homeless, with scores of other volunteers, brings a smile to my face. Here, I found kindheartedness. I can almost still hear the liveliness of our students during DECA award ceremonies, applauding our chapter’s success. Here, I found achievement. I treasure all of the teachers who have devoted so much time and effort into helping their students succeed. Here, I found dedication. I believe that I’m on my way to a promising future – because of the wonderful opportunities that I have been offered thus far.

Johnny Kang
In the blink of an eye, what seemed like a long four years of high school has quickly come to an end. In my time spent at West, I’ve experienced many things that have left a lasting impression on me. From grueling track practices to all-nighters, all of it has shaped me into who I am today. I entered high school with the belief that stellar grades and performance were all that mattered, but I’ve come to realize that’s far from the truth. What matters most is the process of growing and understanding what it is that’s important to you in life. The end of high school marks the beginning of college, and I look forward to the changes that will bring about the next chapter of life.

Jeremy Rotblat
Hemingway once wrote “All I wanted to know was how to live in it. Maybe if you found out how to live in it you learned from that what it was all about.” Having found out how to live through both the peaks and valleys of my time at Cherry Hill West, I’ve come to learn that my experience has been all about the interactions and friendships I have shared with those around me. High school is a medium through which we discover who we are as individuals, as friends and as a community. The moments spent with my classmates and teachers have been most instrumental in helping me learn more about myself and who I aspire to be. I am deeply grateful for these meaningful moments. Congratulations Class of 2012! May we fulfill our goals and find happiness in every situation we face “on our way.”
Cherry Hill West Alma Mater

High upon ol’ Chapel Hill stands a school I call my own. How I love to see her flags unfurl whenever I may roam. Royal purple majesties and white crusaders thrill. So pledge your love and loyalty to dear old Cherry Hill. So pledge your love and loyalty to dear old Cherry Hill.
Congratulations SGO Seniors!

PATRICK NORRIS

Where have all the years gone? With the blink of an eye you have grown into a fine young man. Congratulations on your achievements and much success in the future. We are so proud of you!

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Amanda
Congratulations To Our Beautiful, Resilient, Extraordinary Daughter

It seems like just yesterday you were in pre K reciting John 3:16. So it is time to learn to fly. Reluctantly as we are to let go, this is part of the cycle of life. So our words of wisdom are to be based in Christ, dream big, set goals, work smart and diligently and be confident because you have already shown you are the best of the best. This foundation will allow you to be successful in anything that your heart desires.

Love Always,
Mommy, Daddy, and Shahidah
Congratulations to West’s Class of 2012!
