The individual forms the foundation of a school. It is he who makes a club effective, a team complete, a class alive. Without him there is no group.
We are all a part of many groups. We are members of a school, a nation, and a world community. In many situations, we seem to be just another number, but every number represents another individual.
No two people are alike. The contribution each person makes can be made only by him. And the group to which he contributes — either consciously or unconsciously — would not be the same without his presence. Therefore, the 1966 RAMPANT, recognizing his importance, focuses on him, the individual.
DEDICATION

Two years ago a new advisor volunteered to guide the class of 1965; her smile has brightened class activities ever since. Under the personable influence of Mrs. Joan Katz, our class has intensified its unity, and every senior has come to feel its own significance as an individual. Mrs. Katz has been the inspiration and drive behind the many successful projects of the last two years. Bow days, candy sales, class banners and floats, refreshment booths — all have received her careful consideration. She was never too busy to offer a suggestion or to check an arrangement; the proms, the plays, and the yearbook, all mammoth undertakings, were never lacking her personal direction.

But tangible contributions tell only half the story. Far more important are the intrinsic qualities of Mrs. Katz — qualities we have admired as we have gotten to know her: kindness as she faced each problem, confidence in the ability of her students, determination to help our class realize its potential.
MRS. JOAN KATZ

Mrs. Katz has made the last two years significant to us. Because of the contributions she has made to the learning that has taken place and the enjoyment we have experienced, we dedicate the 1966 Rampant to a teacher, advisor, and friend, Mrs. Joan Katz.
EVERY TEACHER HAS A THOUGHT ONLY HE CAN IMPART.
TO THE CLASS OF 1966:
The time approaches to say farewell to the Class of 1966. The world you are about to enter is one of opportunity as well as great challenge. However, I have every confidence you will meet your new responsibilities with zeal for achievement, zest for the future, and determination to pursue your goals. As you embark into the future, my sincere congratulations and best wishes go with you.

Cordially,
Robert E. Hansen

WE ARE TAUGHT IN GROUPS; WE LEARN FOR OURSELVES.
Appropriate honor and recognition are bestowed on the three highest ranking members of each class. Membership in the Order of the Lion indicates exceptional scholarship during the past school year and gains for its members a coveted place on the Order of the Lion plaque. But only continued excellence in succeeding years guarantees a second term, or year of active membership. These, then, are students who represent the highest standards of academic achievement at CHHS.
ACADEMICS
It is not difficult to be distracted by the deluge of special events and activities that characterize our high school years. However, we must realize that our primary role is that of students and that CHHS is the climax of our secondary education. If we are to appreciate fully the value of our high school experience, we must recognize the fundamental purpose of CHHS, to educate.

Our school is constantly evaluated as an academic institution by its administrators who are aware of the responsibility to educate. Balance is the key to our program, balance between fact and theory, classroom and practical experience, curricular and extracurricular activities. The Honors program, distributive education, and diverse special interest groups are activated to achieve this balance. We are exposed to extremes so that our minds and abilities will be developed to their fullest, and so that we will be prepared to determine our futures as individuals, conscious of our responsibilities. Our high school education, the years we are now spending at CHHS, provide each of us with a disciplined and sensitive approach to answering perplexing questions.
Having expanded with revolutionary speed, CHHS is adequately equipped for the programs vital to its academic success. Business education students perfect their skills on machines identical to those found at future jobs; the science department encourages experimentation by providing laboratories identical to those found at future schools; engineering students practice in kitchens and sewing rooms similar to those they some day will use; tools and raw materials are provided for art and shop students; language laboratory facilities help to increase fluency in foreign languages. Every student has benefited from the use of either gymnasium and our growing library collection. Our sprawling school, although designed to conserve space and materials, was built with us in mind. Students benefit from these facilities, they are a necessary part of a forward-looking educational program.
A faculty committee elects members to the Robert E. Hansen Chapter of the National Honor Society on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. In addition to tutoring students who need scholastic help, the Society's members may take advantage of monthly lectures and discussions planned by the officers and advisors.

RADIO CLUB

Throughout the world messages are received from call letters W2MBC, the amateur radio station of CHHS. Licensed by the F.C.C. in 1957, the club has since become one of the largest of its kind in the nation and has increased its capacity for broadcasting and receiving communications.

Advisor: Mr. Mayo.

Invited by the Guidance Department, engineers and men of industry visit the Engineering Club to discuss opportunities in their fields. Trips, experiments, and discussions give members the chance to exchange views on engineering.

Advisor: Mr. Younger.

ENGINEERING CLUB
CHESS CLUB

This year's Chess Club has been instrumental in forming a chess league among eight South Jersey schools. CHHS has defeated such teams as Pitman, Collingswood, and Pennsauken and placed seventh in the seventeen-school South Jersey Invitational Tournament. Chess Club members meet once a week to practice and perfect the intricacies of the game.

Advisor: Mr. Butler. President: Bill Oberle.

ACCOUNTING CLUB

Training students in business practices is the objective of the Accounting Club. Members attend workshops and lectures to develop their accounting skills and to obtain information on job opportunities.

Advisors: Mr. Andreassi. Officers: Joan Schallenhammer, Jeanne Bemucci, Evelyn Dunlevy, Beverly Purzycki, Nancy Copley.
To help obtain the knowledge and techniques necessary for biological study, members of the Biology Club conduct original research in school laboratories. The projects for this year included making microscope slides for use in the biology classes and keeping a fifty gallon salt water aquarium.

Advisors: Mr. Rubinstein, Mr. Wallach.
President: Mike Hannum.

BIOLOGY CLUB

To promote interest in the medical field, the Ars Medica organizes trips to hospitals such as Hahnemann and Cherry Hill and to universities such as Pennsylvania. Frequent lectures by doctors from Cherry Hill Hospital have stimulated individual investigation by club members on the topics presented.

Advisors: Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Reed.
Officers: Robert Boorstein, Christopher Picard, Barbara Federlin, Alan Weitburg, Janet Horstein.

ARS MEDICA
The Russian Club provides its members with a comprehensive view of Russian civilization by means of bi-monthly language classes, lectures, and films. This year’s special activity was attending a concert by the Moscow Philharmonic Orchestra.

Advisor: Mr. Butter.

Regular meetings of this club feature German songs and conversation. Later in the year, time is devoted to preparing the German Banquet and organizing a field trip to the Pennsylvania Dutch region.

Advisor: Mr. Wermuth. Officers: Eleanor Leibstuch, Lenore Pashkov, Susan Taft, Diane Veach.
The intensity of the Gallic joie de vivre has permeated French Club activities this year. Splintered into several interest groups, club members have been able to follow their fancy: guitar, theater, singing, or conversation. By presenting what they have learned, each small group has helped to acquaint the entire membership with interesting information. This past Christmas, caroling in French was enjoyed as much by club members as by their audience.

Advisors: Mrs. Haworth, Mr. Milby.
Officers: Tina Holland, Valerie Wolf, Judy Jolie, Kathy Gilligan.
The gaiety of sunny Spain is relocated for one February evening in CHS' "Fiesta," which climaxes the calendar of the Spanish Club in CHS. Members enjoy a burst of color and excitement. An evening of fun is guaranteed with the singing Mariachis, folk dances, Spanish food, skits, and the breaking of the piñata. A second major project is a trip to New York where members enjoy a theatre performance and Spanish cuisine.

Regular activities are varied, but all emphasize aspects of the Spanish culture.

Advisors: Miss Yampell, Mrs. Effross
Officers: Nina Eisenfield, Mary Lou Bemiller, John Steedman
Greek Club

Ancient Greece is the fascination of this scholastic club. Greek is studied so that the masterpieces of classical drama and philosophy might some day be read in the original. Every phase of Greek civilization is approached in an attempt by club members to appreciate the foundation of Western civilizations.

Advisor: Dr. Fischer.

Classical League

"Handing down the torch of classical civilization in the modern world" is the purpose of the Junior Classical League as stated by its officers. Members study classical cultures and plan the annual Latin Banquet. This year's activities were climaxed by a convention of the associated Junior Classical Leagues of Southern New Jersey.

Advisor: Dr. Fischer.

Officers: Dorothy Sanny, Paul Sonstein, Harvey Bem, Morris Siegel.
"A Day on Mt. Olympus" was relived this year by members of the Latin Club. A Roman-style dinner was served by toged-clad Latin "slaves" and eaten at foot-high tables. Another important activity in which the club participated was the Latin Week sponsored by the Philadelphia Classical Association. Members also competed in a regional Latin test and in an essay contest on a classical subject.

CREATIVE ARTS

COMMON INTEREST, THE CREATIVITY OF AN INDIVIDUAL IS REALIZED.
THE SOUND OF MUSIC

"When you know the notes to sing, you can sing most anything."
For four evenings, April 2, 3, 9, and 10, 1965, the stage of Cherry Hill High School was alive with the Broadway hit THE SOUND OF MUSIC. Produced by the Classes of 1965 and 1966, the play reenacted the story of the singing Von Trapp family's escape from Austria early in World War II. The most striking feature of the play was its music, a combination of famous Rodgers and Hammerstein songs as "Do Re Mi," "Climb Every Mountain," and "My Favorite Things." The professional casts of the leads and chorus, combined efforts of the cast, production staff, and business staff made THE SOUND OF MUSIC a magnificent achievement for CHHS.

Director: Mrs. Matlin
Musical Director: Mr. Barley
Production Advisor: Mr. Riley
Business Advisor: Mrs. J. Katz.
"Climb every mountain, ford every stream, follow every rainbow, till you find your dream."

"How do you solve a problem like Maria?"

"I simply remember my favorite things."
"A dream that will need all the love you can give."
FOLK MUSIC CLUB

The Folk Music Club, rapidly developing into a major organization at CHHS, highlights many meetings with entertainment or informative talks. Officers Gary Goldman, Tyler Schwartz, Mark Greenfield, and Sue Horneff frequently perform or lead group singing. Mr. Eugene Rubinstein and Miss Frances Abrahamer are the club's advisors.
The newly-organized Cherry Hill High School Orchestra rehearsed twice weekly for its debut at the 1966 Music Festival. The group of forty-five performers mainly classical and semi-classical music. Incoming talent and increasing interest in a new organization forecast another fine musical organization at CHHS.

Director: Mr. Butler.
COLOR GUARD

The colorful half-time performances of the band are enlivened by the spirited routines of the majorettes and color guard. The majorettes’ captains introduce new routines to the rest of the squad and coordinate drills with the band’s formations. The nine-member color guard, the largest in South Jersey, presents the flags of the United States and CHHS. Both the majorettes and color guard are traditionally part of pep rally programs.

Advisor: Mr. Burley.

BAND

A dash of purple, a precision formation, and a series of stirring marches are the halftime fare presented at football games by the Cherry Hill High School Band. Later in the year, the one hundred ten-member ensemble masters more serious music; with the Choir and Chorus, the group entertains at the Christmas assembly and the Music Festival. The Band also gives concerts for other schools and provides music for commencement exercises.

Director: Mr. Burley.
A varied repertory of classical and popular music and the careful cultivation of the essentials of choral singing have made this year's Choir the finest in school history. Last spring fifty assorted voices were chosen after the junior and senior classes. Auditions were held. Daily rehearsals during a regularly scheduled period have enabled this year's choirs to gain the professional polish that distinguishes it from the once-a-week groups of the past. Their performances at the Christmas Assembly, the Music Festival at township schools and the malls have been noted for their exceptional quality and have been well-attended and appreciated.

Director: Mr. Barclay.
All-South Jersey Chorus: Joan Rex, Robert Collier, Vivian Egizi, Berna Leonard.

Sandy Alvin accompanies the Choir at rehearsal.

Bringing in the wayward tenors.

"Go song of mine, break the hardness of the heart of man."
ART CLUB

To stimulate participation in the field of art, the Art Club organizes exhibitions of paintings and sculpture created by students. Members make posters to announce coming events; they also help beautify the school with original decorations at holiday time. The Club sponsors field trips to galleries and museums in New York, Philadelphia, and Washington.

Advisor: Mrs. Hansen
Officers: Sue Burns, Robert Mick, Brenda Losey
PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Snapping shots for school publications such as the newspaper and the yearbook, the members of the Photography Club devote much of their spare time to attending all school functions. The photographers meet every Monday afternoon to develop film and master the techniques of creative photography.

Advisor: Mr. Grossman.
Officers: Josh Bernstein, Al Matz.

ASPECTS

Aspects, the school literary magazine, devotes its biannual issues to works by students. Considering qualities of style, content, and suitability for publication, the staff reviews material at weekly meetings. The next step in producing the magazine is designing the cover and layout. Aspects provides a means by which outstanding student literature may be presented to the student body.

LIONS ROAR

Who? What? When? Where? These are questions answered monthly in the school newspaper, The Lions Roar. Since its founding, The Roar has progressed as a service to students and administrators, and as an educational experience for those who publish it. During this past year the editorial board has presented editorials on issues of international concern and articles on community news as well as school activities. All issues of The Lions Roar exemplify the growth of Cherry Hill High School.

Advisor: Mr. Peper.

Mr. Peper, advisor, and Karen Quay, editor-in-chief, examine a recent issue.
Sports Editor, Brent DeMesquita, proofreads his pages before they are sent to press.
RAMPANT

The Rampant is a chronicle. It is an essay on the past school year and on the high school experiences of the Class of 1966. Its pages capture the excitement of games and pep rallies, the enjoyment of classroom study, the exhaustion of long afternoons at club meetings, and the frivolity of that last day before a vacation. Because the yearbook is a record of our school, each of us has in some way contributed to the Rampant's story.

However, it is a small staff of seniors that oversees the actual production of the yearbook. This staff must regard the fundamentals of a quality yearbook: unity of theme, creative photography, original layouts, and imaginative innovations. To say that each page represents hours of hard work is no exaggeration. The copy, headlines, pictures, captions, and layouts that constitute a single spread are produced by the cooperative efforts of many people. Each page must be integrated into the section, each section into the book. The result of this effort, a tangible account of vibrant experiences, is the Rampant, the yearbook of Cherry Hill High School.

WE ALL TAKE: THE DECISION TO GIVE IS PERSONAL.
A night in Shangri-La was the social highlight of the spring season for the Class of '66. Decorated in an Oriental motif, the Cherry Court of the Mall was filled with elegant couples as guests passed from the receiving line to the dance floor. Shangri-La, the theme song of the Prom, was the first played by Allen Sussman's Band. Junior girls promenaded in the Grand March; the Queen and her court were chosen. As the evening ended, the music lasted for hours. Present concluded that Chairman Sue Snow had planned a memorable Prom for the Class of '66, a night as wonderful as any in Shangri-La.
STUDENT COUNCIL

For CHSHS's Student Council, 1965-66 was a year of traditional excellence and unprecedented success. Council activities commenced with a Freshman orientation program and a school-wide sale of activity cards. The annual Halloween, Alumni, Holiday, and Valentine dances were planned by Council members whose creative innovations made each affair memorable. Frequent sock-hops and pep rallies were among the other Council-sponsored events.

Advisors: Mr. Jordan, Officers: David Hooper, Scott Condello, Lynn Bobb, Kathy Dunleavy.
Easily identified by purple and white booster hats, the CHHS Booster Club leads the student body in supporting our teams and directing school spirit. Booster Club membership includes seniors and the underclass executive councils; these members are often hidden by purple-white shakers and pep signs at football games and pep rallies.

Advisor: Mr. Riley.
Officers: Terry Shapiro, Marc Cooper, Sid Tabak, Robin Conover.
The Officers Club is an organization designed to provide a coordinated and cohesive government for the entire student body. Formed this year, the club's membership is composed of the officers of the four classes and of the Student Council, and their advisors. It has framed a model constitution for class government and has planned joint projects which have made student government more efficient and representative.

Advisor: Mr. DiBart.
Boys and Girls States, sponsored respectively by the American Legion and its Auxiliary, convene annually on the campus of Rutgers University in New Brunswick to acquaint student leaders with the principles of state government. Both groups elect officials of a mock government and attend lectures on the duties of a citizen. Delegates for 1965 were Karen Ahlquist, Celeste Anderson, Dorothy Bass, Kathleen Mullely, Elliot Davis, Paul Feldman, Edward Kruse, Cliff Lyons, Timothy Root, Terry Shapiro, Michael Wilkes, and Robert Yarrish.

Margaret Miller and Beth Teitelman, selected for their participation in school activities and their fine scholastic achievement, represented CHHS at the Girls’ Citizenship Institute last June. The five-day conference at Douglass College, sponsored by the New Jersey State Federation of Women’s Clubs, was devoted to discussing civic responsibility and the role of women in public life.
FTA

To promote interest and provide experience in the teaching profession, the Future Teachers of America Club visits colleges, aids needy families at holiday time, and supports a scholarship fund for Senior members. For two days or more during the spring, upperclass members have the opportunity to teach any grade or subject in one of the township schools.

Advisor: Miss DeKay
Officers: Susan Lat, Robin Jacobs, Carol Burke, Sharyn Bussemer, Mary Pennell.

GYM AIDES

Providing a valuable service, the Gym Aides assist physical education teachers in the maintenance of the gymnasium. In addition to this duty, each day the aides set up equipment and take inventory of supplies.

Language Lab Aides are necessary for the efficient operation of the foreign language lab. They supervise lab activities at all times and make minor mechanical adjustments when needed. Lab aids are privileged to use the lab for additional hours of training.

A common interest in homemaking brings together the members of the Future Homemakers of America Club. Working in the home economics kitchen, members learn the fine points of homemaking. Activities have included frequent bake sales and teas.

PEP RALLIES
FOOTBALL

The '65 football team, having only one returning varsity player, was inexperienced; a 0-3-1 record after the first four games proved it. But four games were sufficient for the newcomers to acquire the know-how, and for the team, the coordination that led to a smashing finish for the season and a 5-3-1 record. As the strength of the team jelled, a phenomenal defense clinched our late victories. The new team, which included such outstanding players as Rick Becker, Dick DuBois, Wayne Huntsinger, and Dennis Rodio, came through in the end and together the boys secured third place in the South Jersey Group IV League.

BASKETBALL

The effort contributed by individual team members is at the root of the success achieved by Cherry Hill High School's basketball team. Lacking the single "superstar" of our past teams, the coaches have relied on a balanced squad for a winning season. CAPTAIN BILL WILEY WILL BE RETURING NEXT YEAR.

Winky Evans is an invaluable part of the team.
The 1966 swimming team has made favorable waves in the South Jersey Swim League for the third straight year. A mid-season triumph over Moorestown gave the team its fortieth consecutive victory and clinched its claim to league supremacy. The outstanding contributions of record-breakers, Jack Player and Cliff Lyons, as well as Bill Semaless, Mike Benner, and divers Rick Semaless and Joel Medgebow led the team to an 8-0 record, another great season for a superior team.

Coach: Mr. Rhea.
Captains: Cliff Lyons, Bill Semaless.
Dave Meyer and Bill Schmidts, two of the Lion's freestylers.

Joel Mudgebow and Rick Sennalas, South Jersey Swim League's number one and two divers.

The Cherry Hill High School wrestling team's 1966 season was the most successful in the team's four year history. Our mat-men placed second in the six team Christmas tournament. Outstanding competitors in the Delaware Valley Wrestling League were Jerry Licata, Jeff Hill, and Mike Scheer.

Coaches: Mr. Neiman, Mr. Stricker, Mr. Stock.
Captains: Arch Brown, Jeff Hill.

Gaining an advantageous position, Henry Betchen drives for points.

GYMNASTICS

In its second year of interscholastic competition, our gymnasts have concentrated on building a championship team for future years. The team boasts several outstanding members: Richard Tobin has scored 100 points, Ken Gerber, 65, and Doug Kay, 40. A predominance of sophomores indicates that in two years the CHHS team will be a top contender in the league.

Coaches: Mr. Meihan, Mr. Daugherty.
Captain: Richard Tobin.

BASEBALL

One of the many number one teams at CHHS, our baseball squad earned a 15-5 record to tie with Pennsauken for the championship. The strong hitting team defeated such powerful opponents as Atlantic City, Vineland, and Pennsauken. Returning internment Dick Dubois, Brad Bekamps, Elliot Davis, and Jim Hackbarth promise a repeat of last year's performance is the least that can be expected in 1966.

COACHES: Mr. Gerstle, Mr. Hartman, Mr. Alderfer.

Captain: Harry Gilbert.

Two years ago, the tennis team won the championship of the South Jersey Group Four Conference. The players on the team have continued to win the title. The experience of seniors Jan Stahl, Bruce Kimmel, and Dave Friedman has enhanced the team's prospects for the state championship.

GOLF

The 1965 golf team earned an average of 41.7 points for a nine-hole match. The team placed second in the South Jersey Group Four League and fifth in the State Regionals. Through the efforts of first man Austin Kennedy and other members, the team earned an average of 41.7 points for a nine-hole match.
In its usual fine form, the 1965 track team won the Camden County Invitational Tournament and placed second in the South Jersey Group Four competition. Four new records highlighted the season; Mike Wilkes broke the discus and javelin records. Despite an excellent 10-2 record, an unusually large number of returning lettermen predict that the 1966 season will be even better.

HOCKEY

Let's bubble our way to victory" was the slogan of one of the most enthusiastic hockey teams ever to play for CHHS. From an unforgettable week at hockey camp to the end of a 5-2-1 season, these girls have shown unusual unity and team spirit. The Junior Varsity team earned its third consecutive undefeated season while the Freshmen boasted an impressive 6-1-2 record.

SWIMMING

A double victory by last year's swimmers demands a double defense by this year's team. Swimming to maintain first place in the South Jersey Girls Swim League and in the Interscholastics Meet, the girls are hitting the water at more practices and in more play-offs and meets. Formidable opponents, such as New Jersey and our perennial arch-rival, Moorestown, have rallied the girls to what promises to be another victorious sweep. Blessed with outstanding individuals and a solid back-up line, Varsity predicts success in that double defense; Junior Varsity, undefeated for five years, is doing well enough to defend both those titles next year.

"Ready or not . . ."

"You can't have it."
The 1965 softball team completed an 8-2-0 season in third place in the Delaware Valley Girls' Sports League. The girls, mainly underclassmen last year, were encouraged to develop a potential which will be fully realized in the 1966 team. The junior varsity also had a successful season, and many of these players will soon fill varsity positions.

"If you think you're going to tag me, go for it..."
The Class of 1967, next year's Seniors, has prepared itself for its new role as the leaders of the school. It has combined its spirit and ingenuity while setting as its goal unifying the class and raising funds to finance Senior expenses. Advisor Miss Richey, energetic officers, and an active Junior Assembly have been instrumental in the class' success.
JUNIOR ACTIVITIES

Operating the refreshment concessions at home football and basketball games has been a major source of revenue for the class treasury as well as being a service to hungry spectators. The Junior float at Homecoming was a work of spirit and devotion. But, it was the '67 football jerseys—clever, colorful, and unique—that typified the flavor of this class. Spring fever was accompanied by work on the Junior-Senior Pajama Game production. And finally to end this memorable year, Juniors devoted a lovely May evening to throwing "Three Coins in a Fountain."

GO GET 'EM '67... THE PEPSI GENERATION
The Class of 1968, next year's upperclassmen, spent 1965-66 strengthening its image, intensifying class spirit and unity, and encouraging members to become more active in general school functions. To help achieve these goals, communications were improved between Executive Council members and homeroom representatives.
The football season found the sophomores selling programs and late in the season cheering for a conquering Lion atop their award-winning float Fantasia. Seeing every sophomore pinning with a Go Great 68 button is adequate proof that 68 has gone great during this past year.

The Class of 1969, entering as the largest class in school history, quickly lost the inhibitions natural to newcomers and became an integral part of Cherry Hill High. Welcomed officially by Student Council, the class was honored at the Hospitality Dance, only two months later the tables were turned and the Freshmen found themselves welcoming returning alumni with a float they had designed and constructed.

FRESHMAN FORUM
FRESHMAN ACTIVITIES

Efficiently organized in the early fall, the Freshman Forum set class standards. Freshmen sold more activity cards and PTA candy than their more experienced schoolmates; class members and guests marvelled at a maze of fishnets and mermaids at the class dance, Deep Sea Ecstasy. It is evident from their first year that three more years of excellence will follow.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Characteristic of the four Senior Class Officers is their willingness and ability to work together. President Terry Shapiro is the pace-setter; his ideas and policies direct our class. Serving as Vice-President for a second year, Sue Snow plans each activity with special care and enthusiasm. She is class spirit at its best — bubbling with excitement and proud to be a Senior. Working quietly behind the scenes, Treasurer Jean Leppert performs her job with exceptional speed and efficiency. Pat Morrison, our smiling Secretary, has been invaluable in coordinating the diverse class projects. The four officers have among themselves a special comraderie; it is their close relationship with the class that has made them excellent executives and outstanding class members.

The crowd in and around the Senior Room is usually the Senior Senate. Reporting daily to the Senior homerooms, the Senate members have spanned the gap between class officers and committee members. They have headed and manned committees which plan such activities as snow days, dances, our Christmas party for underprivileged children, a candy sale, and the Prom. Their dedication is matched only by that of Mrs. Joan Katz, the officers, and the Senior Senate as a whole. A potent group working to make their class the best at CHS.
HALL OF FAME

An assembly filled with suspense, excitement, and high hopes climaxes the long process of choosing fifteen seniors for the Hall of Fame. This tradition, designed to give honor and recognition to seniors who have contributed to the curricular and extracurricular programs of CHHS, has become a highlight of the senior year. Members are chosen on a point system considering four areas of achievement: scholarship, athletics, school service, and in doing so have set high standards for CHHS. The Hall of Fame is an honor bestowed by all seniors elected.
