Four years ago our paths crossed
You came into my world
And I into yours
Together we shared new experiences
Along the winding road

WINDING

ALONG THE SHARE

The routes we took were often different
Each going our own way to explore
To search for and discover our own identities
But always we reunited
To travel together
Along the winding road.
TRY

It wasn't always easy
I often stumbled and wanted to give up
But, caring, you were always there
To help me up and lead me along
Sometimes we both fell
But together, we always endured.
LEARN
I have grown and learned a great deal
From teachers, books and friends
I have created a great deal, too
From artwork and essays to ideas and goals.
It is now time to travel on (and try them out)
Along the winding road.
AND THE ROAD CONTINUES ....

For now we are parting, my friend
Until the day we meet again
I shall often look back.
And cherish the times we spent together
Along life's winding road.

The Cherry Hill Board of Education congratulates the Class of 1983 upon their graduation and for their many accomplishments.

We wish you every success for the future.

Best wishes,

Cherry Hill Board of Education
To: The Members of the Class of 1983

There is no easy way to capture the memories of your high school experiences. Before you know it time slips by, graduation comes and goes, and you are looking back at Cherry Hill High School West as the last stop of your young years.

I would like to think that somehow when you glance at the photos, facts and sentiments captured in this book, your remembrances are touched with warmth and friendship. You, our graduates, and we, the faculty, have spent a great deal of time together. Our hope is that by having known one another, each of our lives has been enriched.

Fondly, and with best wishes for a bright tomorrow,

Joan Katz

JOAN KATZ, PRINCIPAL
With the conversion back to the four-house plan, in which each class has its own principal, West's assistant principals once again returned to prominence. Forming a better student-principal relationship, this new system of administration allowed the assistant principals to work creatively with their students, rather than execute disciplinarian role played in the past. The effect of the move was felt by all, as many students were able to form valuable friendships with their principal.
With patience and perseverance they work. Day after day, these dedicated instructors attempt to teach the fundamentals of education. Whether it be Reading, Writing, or Arithmetic, the basic skills teachers are able to guide their students along the road of knowledge with an unusual proficiency and an extraordinary sense of caring and understanding.
In the beginning God created Atom who wore the latest designer genes. Along the road of Biology, Atom traveled, studying cells, bones, proteins and enzymes. He did experiments, went to labs and learned that he himself is the base for all Biology.
The road of business can often be a bumpy one for those students with aspirations of entering the business world. Thankfully, we at Cherry Hill West have the business department to look to for guidance. Whether it be typing, recordkeeping, accounting, or general business education, the teachers of West's business department are qualified to teach any student the basics. For those who enjoy getting out of the classroom and into the actual world of business, the distributive and cooperative education courses provide a mixture of classroom learning and valuable work experience.

With a choice of Spanish, French, Latin, or Italian, 68% of the student body took part this year in the foreign language program here at West. Stressing the importance of a good understanding of foreign nations and their languages, the department not only educated its students in the classroom, but also carried on several programs outside to aid in the teaching process. Spanish students spent time working at several child day care centers and hospitals in a bilingual setting. Latin students participated in a banquet held at Cherry Hill East and an educational field trip to New York City. In addition, for the first time, West students travelled to Italy and Spain in a student exchange program. This was added to the already successful French exchange program in which students travel to France.

The art of directions; Follow and you won’t get lost
Right to left
Are the elementary number lines;
Rise over run
Are the ever famous slopes;
Through twists and turns
One goes to get a proof;
Scribbled every which way across the board
Is the teacher’s explanation.
And the mind,
Where does it go?
In circles of course,
Worried only about
Whether the “pi” is apple or cherry.

Physical Education and Health is one of the few courses at West that everybody is required to take. Not only that; it is required of all students to take not one, not two, but four years of this course. What it boils down to is a lot of fun. Activities in physical education range from volleyball to weight training, and from football to aerobic dancing. There seems to be something for everyone, and it all keeps West students in great physical shape. In the classroom, the road to good health begins with freshmen who spend time studying personalities and methods of coping with problems. Sophomores receive Driver Education, climaxed by the written examination required for a New Jersey license to drive. Juniors receive a unit on first aid which is fully backed by the Red Cross, while Seniors deal with family living and drug education. Through the Physical Education and Health classes, students have been able to keep their bodies in shape while learning how to live a safe life in the environment around us.
Journey along the road of physical science.
Travel through time and meet our greatest scientists;
Newton, Einstein, Mendeleev and more.
Travel through a microscope and see the building blocks of life.
Travel through space and see the sun, the planets and the stars.
Travel the earth and learn how it was formed.
Travel and learn upon the road of science.

Perfection is the artist's curse
Draw each line, smooth each curve,
Paint each stroke,
All with painful precision
Yet when the masterpiece is complete
Stand back and indulge in Pride

Clara Barton, Dr. Joyce Brothers, and Marcus Welby are all medical legends, but can they compare with our nurses here at West? Of course not. Each day, students journey upon the long road of life, only to find a detour sign pointing to the nurse’s office. In that office, one can often find headaches, stomach aches, sprained wrists and ankles and once in a while a serious illness or two.

To a special friend of the students of Cherry Hill West. We thank you Mrs. Morris.
The Media Center at West is used by a vast majority of students. Whether it be doing in depth research or leisurely reading, almost everyone uses it to some extent. In addition, Cherry Hill West's Media Center is the home of The West Report which is taped every Tuesday and shown on the air every Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. The fifteen minute news program is filmed and edited right at the Media Center.
On the road to maturity
There are many rough spots.
Sometimes we do not know what to do or where to go.
We often need a little push or shove to get us going in the right direction.
Then we turn to B-2.
An office full of men and women
Ready to help in any way they can.
Quite comforting to know that they are always there
To guide us along the winding road.

For those students who desire a college education, the Air Force Junior R.O.T.C. program at West provides a great opportunity for you. Major George Filer awards a full four year Engineering College Scholarship to any one of 400 major universities. All tuition, fees, and an allowance of $100.00 per month are paid to a deserving senior honor student in the R.O.T.C. program. Also Major Filer and our Principal, Joan Katz, may nominate five students to the Air Force Academy.

The other seniors in the program may compete nationwide for an additional 7,500 Air Force scholarships.

Unlike university R.O.T.C. programs, participation in the high school program does not result in any military obligation. However, many of our students decide to join and receive two stripes for the three years of participation at West. We invite you to join this dynamic program.

FRESHMEN
The class of '86 had a very productive first year at West. They not only had a magazine drive and T-shirt sale to raise money for their own class, but joined in with West's other three classes in making both the Halloween and Homecoming weekends a success. Class advisor, Mr. Casto, Governor, Ken Hastings, Lt Governor, Scott Harris, and all the rest of the freshmen class proved that they could be proud of being a freshman at West.

FRESHMAN 75
The class of '85 displayed their school spirit throughout the year in a variety of ways. On October 8, the sophomores presented John Eddie and the Front Street Runners in concert at West. Another concert presented by the sophs, on December 4, was perhaps the most exciting concert West has ever hosted. Much to the surprise of all of us at West, the sophomores were able to lure Robert Hazard, who recently signed a contract with a national recording company, to perform a one time only concert. Of course, the concert was a huge success. Those sophs just never cease to amaze us! A T-shirt and hat sale, a Halloween candy sale, a Valentine's Day flower sale, and a spring trip were just some of the other fundraisers and events performed by the class of '85 this year. With a class like this, we know that West is alive!

The class of '84 got a head start this year by holding a pair of successful fundraisers over the summer. Both a bake sale and a carwash provided important funds for the class and helped pay for the extravagant prom which climaxed the year. The class also ran concessions stands at the basketball and football games and sold candles for the holidays. Not only did the juniors prosper this year, but they looked forward to their upcoming senior year. Members of the Class of '84 searched throughout the school to find recipes for the "Class of '84 Cookbook" which will be on sale during next year's holiday season. In the time to come, these students will be West's seniors, and this year the Class of '84 proved that they are ready.

Performing music such as “Pictures of Spain”, “Tiger of San Pedro”, “They’re Playing Our Song”, and the “Theme from Ice Castles”, this year’s marching band not only pleased its audiences at the football games, but did very well in several local band competitions. Led by drum major Charles Muggleworth and directed by Mr. Williams, the Marching Lions placed first in competitions in Middle Township and Sun Valley. The band also performed in Glassboro and Pennsville and it seemed that they were able to captivate their audiences almost anywhere that they went. We at West realize that our marching band is more than just a halftime show.

Striving for the day when they will have their chance as professionals is what Theatre Workshop is all about. Made up of students with a common interest in theater, Theatre Workshop has a wide range of activities. Not only do the students learn about the theater and go on several field trips to see top shows, but they actually practice among themselves and after several months of practice, perform for West's students. This year's musical, "Bye, Bye Birdie", and drama, "The Diary of Anne Frank", were huge successes. By educating West's theater enthusiasts, Theatre Workshop gives some valuable experience to anybody interested in the theater.
This is the second year that the International Thespian Society has existed at West. Induction into the society is currently the highest honor achieved at the high school level for performers and non-performers in the theater area. A student is nominated for induction only after compiling a set number of points that are given for work done in the theater area. The select few are then inducted and become a part of the International Thespian Society.

The students comprising West’s Italian Club had a chance to do their thing in several different activities this year. Trips to the Italian Market, the Art Museum, and the opera allowed students the educational opportunity necessary for a full understanding of Italian culture. Students also got the chance to see Italian folk dancing, and some tried their luck at an Italian recreational activity such as bocce. The pen pal system allowed West students to make everlasting friendships with students in Italy.
The Spanish Club took part in a variety of different activities this year. With a record number of students involved, the club was able to find something for everyone to enjoy. For a cultural experience, the Spanish Club took a trip to the Mexican Ballet. The epicures traveled to a Mexican restaurant, and almost everybody took part in a very special Christmas party at a day care center in Camden.

SPANISH CLUB

Living with a family in another country can often be a rewarding experience. Students in both Cherry Hill and Spain had the rare opportunity to do this sort of learning through West's Spanish exchange program.

Studying the cultures of many lands, the International Culture Club is able to enrich students’ basic understandings of the world in which they live. This is done by combining education and fun through several field trips and exhibits during the year. This year’s club travelled to New York City where students viewed the displays in the United Nations and the Art Museum. Students also got a chance to eat at a Chinese restaurant. A few Culture Club members travelled to Quebec, Canada in order to witness the amazing winter carnival which takes place there. Closer to home, West students sampled various types of food at both the Greek Agora and an International Banquet. A trip to see the Nutcracker Ballet, a chance to see foreign films and exhibits and the opportunity to listen to various guest speakers from all over the world are just some of the activities an International Culture Club member can experience in just one year.
The Black Culture Club was formed to help the black students at West become more aware of their heritage. Programs included films on black history and current career opportunities. Last year a black female employee of Getty came to discuss the educational requirements of various jobs. The club also went to a Broadway style show, had a family picnic, a car wash, a dance and went on an outing to Great Adventure. The BCC is an opportunity for fun and for finding out about what’s around the next bend in the road.

The Junior Classical League is a national organization of high school Latin clubs. Along with the annual national convention and the many state-wide activities, such as banquets and meetings, West's chapter also organized its own activities. A trip to Princeton University gave students the opportunity to investigate the many educational opportunities found in Princeton. Students also traveled to New York City. Late in December, J.C.L. students gathered to celebrate Saturnalia which commemorates the Roman festival supplanted by Christmas.

STUDENT STORE

Under the leadership of Mr. Davidow, the school clerks served the students and staff at West every lunch period and before and after school with a great variety of items. The profits from the store enabled us to purchase additional plants, shrubs, and trees for the beautification project in front of our school.

NAUTILUS

Under a revised constitution in which a more governmental format was employed, the Student Activities Organization continued to serve the public while planning numerous activities for West's student body. Throughout the year, S.A.O. organized dances, concerts, and movies for students of West. A Gong Show, a carnival, and all of the activities associated with Spirit Week were arranged and run by S.A.O. In addition, West's government sponsored a child in India, and helped organize a Christmas party for the retarded children of Cherry Hill. Dedicated to assisting the public and providing entertaining activities for students, S.A.O. proved to be a valuable part of the West community.

a new beginning.
"The Lions Roar", West's award-winning newspaper, had another successful year of presenting the news to interested West students. Editor-in-Chief Mitch Feinman, along with his talented staff and advisor Miss McMenamin, added many new and interesting ideas to this year's version. One major addition was the feature spread in which an important topic was highlighted in several articles. Other changes included the name which was converted from "Lions Roar", a special News Briefs column, and a new classified section. All of this was the result of a lot of hard work, and we thank "The Lions Roar" for their time and dedication to West.

RAMPANT

Rampant: where is that anyway? Just come down to F27A one afternoon (that's right, there is an F27A) and you will find the yearbook staff working hard to bring you your yearbook. If you happen to pass by our office the week before a deadline, be careful: you don't want to get in the way of our special brand of pre-deadline mayhem. This year's publication is led by Editor-in-Chief Howard Masters, Copy Editor Steve Harris, Photography Editor Tina Hwang and Art Editor Cindy Petrowsky. In addition, a talented staff of underclassmen provides the helping hands needed to make this the best yearbook that we can put forth.

Cross Country is one of the more individualized sports at West, as each runner is placed into a situation where he must compete with himself and others. In this competition, West’s runners fared very well. In the Frosh Meet, Brandon Hamilton was able to place second, while Ellen Forbes placed sixth. West had four runners compete in the Olympic Conference meet. Bill Madara got a second, Sue Pockell placed third, while Ellen Forbes placed sixth and Greg Farnum tied down an eighth spot. In the Camden County meet West’s Sue Pockell placed fourth, while Bill Madara got eighth. These same two runners competed in the Group 4 sectionals, and repeated their Camden County performance. Finally, in the South Jersey open, Pockell was able to place fifth. Congratulations to all of Cherry Hill West’s fine runners for having the stamina to compete in a grueling cross country race.
Cross Country Girls: K. Dean (Manager), T. Casdia, A. Pockell.

THEIR WAY TO HONORS
The 1982 version of West's hockey team proved itself one of the most successful West squads in recent years. A record of ten wins, seven losses and three ties allowed the team to reach the semi-finals of South Jersey Group 4 playoffs. Captain Diane Mancine; Sue Bard who scored thirty-two goals, the second highest number in South Jersey; and Lisa Drummond, who recorded ten shutouts, all made the first All Group 4 team. In addition, all three girls were chosen for the first team of All-Olympic Conference American Division. Sue Bard received the additional honor of being All-South Jersey. Congratulations to all the girls on their successful season.

FROSH HOCKEY . . . 4-6-2 SEASON
FOOTBALL ... CAPUTI'S LIONS REBUILDING ... UNDERCLASSMEN GAIN EXPERIENCE ...
DETERMINED TO WIN IN '83
With only two varsity starters returning from last year, and nearly three times as many underclassmen as upperclassmen comprising the team, West's football program was forced into a season of rebuilding. Despite the varsity spots in the season, Chris Chiaro led the team in both scoring and rushing. In addition, both the junior varsity and freshmen teams had winning records.

J.V. FOOTBALL ... A NEW BEGINNING
The Freshman football team showed its determination to win in its hard fought game against previously unbeaten Washington Township. The score was 6-0. With a 4-5 season's record the Freshmen players can look forward to adding their talents to West's football program.
A record of four wins and six losses was good enough for this year’s team to place eighth in the state competition. The gymnastics team truly competed up to its potential with outstanding individual performances turned in by Carey Cunningham and David Kaye in the South Jersey Sectionals. Cunningham placed first in the pommel horse while Kaye and Cunningham tied for fifth on the rings. Gymnastics is a grueling sport; we congratulate Coach Meehan and his team on their achievements.
This year's gymnastics team was led by senior Linda Sapp. Sapp, who was a South Jersey Gymnastic League All-Star and qualified for the sectionals in vaulting and unevens, was voted team MVP by her peers. The team also had some young stars on whom the team's future depends. In the league novice meet, tenth graders, Jennie Weiss and Sarah Scofield both tied for a third place medal. Since several key members of this year's team graduate in '83, the Lions will have to depend on younger members to perform next season. All of the girls on this year's squad should be commended on a successful season.
It seems that every year West turns out a winning soccer team and this year was no exception. In fact, it wasn't even a surprise when this year's squad ended its season with an incredible record of seventeen wins, three losses, and one tie.

The team couldn't have done it without center Alan Ziskin who led the team in scoring. Ziskin, along with goalie Kevin Bordner, who recorded a new school record of fifteen shutouts, and fullback Steve Brownell were selected to the first team All-Conference.

Fullback Scott Canter, and forwards Marshall Jackson and Alan Orman were voted to the second team All-Conference.

After tying for first place in the Olympic Conference American Division, West went on to the Courier Post Coaches Tournament. The Lions were able to reach the quarterfinals of that tournament while they made it to the semifinals of the South Jersey Group 4 Championships.

Congratulations guys - you're the best!

J.V. SOCCER . . . 14-4 SEASON

S. Cooper, Captain.
Congratulations go to West's girls' tennis team which finished its season with thirteen wins and five losses and the Olympic Conference American Division Championship. Not only that, but the girls were able to advance to the second round of the State tournament and Jennifer Shomer was named All-Conference and All South Jersey Group 4. The conference championship was West's second in a row, but certainly not their last.

For itself... Lions roar

As the clock ticks down the final seconds of the game, the basketball player dribbles up court. His team is down by a point, and he knows that the outcome of the game depends on his final shot. Beads of sweat form on his forehead as the now exhausted player searches for every ounce of energy that remains in his body. The road to victory is a hard one, especially for this player who must bear the entire weight of his team’s success as he prepares for the last shot of the game. The crowd begins to chant. “Ten, nine, eight...” He hears the crowd, but tries to ignore his vibrating nerves. “Seven, six, five...” He sets up for his shot, and raises the ball over his head. “Four, three, two, one...” The player shoots. As the ball rolls off his fingertips, he turns his back, too frightened to see the outcome. Just as the buzzer sounds, one quiet swish is heard and the crowd roars. A hero has been made.

“MARVIN” MOFFETT “THE HUMAN
"What is a beautiful girl like you doing playing a man's sport?" said the high school stud to the female basketball player. The girl then proceeded to shut the boy out in a quick game of one-on-one basketball, to which the boy exclaimed, "I don't believe it!" To that, the girl explained, "What is a good looking guy like you doing playing a woman's sport?" The beginning of a high school romance.

Time after time, game upon game,
All I can do is mutter;
It must be the ball that gets the blame
'Cause it only hits the gutter.

Another practice, another day,
Time to play once more;
Please, dear ball, go my way
And give me the highest score.

Down the lane I aim my ball
Toward these same ten pins.
Smack! Crash! Tumble! Down they fall
And I'm the one who wins.

All year round they practice. Runners, jumpers, and athletes of all sorts prepare along the road of physical fitness for their shining moment in competition. Indoor track brings together those athletes who otherwise would have nowhere to train during the cold winter months, and gives them a place to practice while gaining valuable competition experience. Many of the student athletes look upon the indoor track season as an opportunity to get a head start on the competition for upcoming spring track. Without it, many of West's finest athletes would be letting their bodies go, as they settle down to General Hospital after a tough day at school. With it, they are able to stay in tip-top condition.

Throughout the history of Cherry Hill West, what sport has been the most consistently successful? No, not soccer. Wrong again, not baseball. It is a little known fact that Coach George Rhea and his boys' swim team have had more victories than any other team at West. Not just for one season either, but consistently, generation after generation. Here is some long overdue congratulations to Cherry Hill West's winningest team.

... SWIMMING ... WINNING WATER WAYS

WARRANT WET AND WILD WINS!
The final event (free-style relay) would decide the meet. Could the CHHSW girls finally beat Moorestown? The relay team of Captain Kelly Dean, Debbie Laux, Laura Ergood and Karen Veil said “we can” and THEY DID! Final score 65-61. Another win in a winning season because the varsity veterans were joined by a strong freshman team. Water wise '83 was a very good year along the winding road.

VARSITY WRESTLING TEAM LED BY

CO-CAPTAINS MIKE HESSER
What could possibly motivate two boys who do not even know each other, suddenly, to meet in the middle of a 24-square-foot mat and wrestle? Perhaps it is simply a boy's nature, for one of the first sports a boy always attempts is wrestling. What boy has never gotten into a friendly wrestling match with a school mate? High school simply turns the natural masculine instincts into a harmless sport. In addition, wrestling is an excellent exercise, as it uses every muscle of the body to achieve the goal of bringing an opponent to the mat. Here at West, the wrestler is given the opportunity to learn the art of wrestling while having a good time and letting some of his natural boyish behavior come out.

In 1982 Dan DePasquale placed in the top third of the field as he represented West in the Olympic Conference Golf Tournament. With a strong finish in the 1982 season, Dan shows potential to be the number one player in 1983. Mike Muller, after coming off of an injury during last year, should be able to improve his record. Coach Ted Page is also looking forward to a new group of freshmen who show promise as well as the continued efforts of his other underclassmen.

PAGE'S PUTTERS DRIVE TO VICTORY
Long stick with a basket on the end,
For three-and-a-half months it becomes my friend.
Check, check, check, catch-cradle-pass;
To make good moves I've got to think fast,
Working hard and running a lot,
Giving my sport all that I've got,
And even when the game isn't won,
Lacrosse, to me, is always fun.

1982 All South Jersey players Sue Bard and Jennifer Shomer were looking forward to leading the 1983 Softball team at the beginning of the season as it tried to improve upon last year’s outstanding record. Coming off of a super 1982 season, Coach Tim Sadar says, “There is no greater burden than that of having potential.”
The realization of a successful year can be an enormous uplifting for a sports program. Along the way to an impressive 11-1 league record last year, the boys' tennis team dug from within in order to capture the Olympic Conference Title. A combination of talented seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen with a will to win helped the boys play up to, and beyond, their potential. Congratulations to the boys' tennis team, 1982 Olympic Conference Champs!

BEACH PARTY
On September 25, West students got out their sunglasses, towels, and suntan lotion for the summer's last beach party. The Jones Gym was converted to Jones Beach, and teachers became lifeguards, as the students tried to make the summer last just a little longer. There may not have been sand on the floor or boats on the horizon, but West students were able to capture the true essence of a real beach on that cool night in September.

The Junior Miss Pageant is an annual event at West in which contestants are judged in several key categories. First, the student's academic and extracurricular record is reviewed. Then, there is the personal interview and, finally, a talent routine. This year's winner, Judy Spector, will proceed to the county competition and, if successful, will continue on to the state and national competitions.
On October 24, 1982, all class officers, cabinet members, and their families were invited to attend an Inaugural Banquet at which officers were sworn in, and all cabinet members were recognized and thanked for the contributions they have made to make this year a great success.
The four class governments, S.A.O., and Theatre Workshop joined together to provide West with a fun-filled Halloween weekend. A great number of students turned out to see the original award-winning version of the movie "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde". Following the movie was a masquerade party and dance complete with a DJ. In addition, Theatre Workshop set up a haunted house for those brave enough to enter. It seemed that everybody attending had a fun, if not frightful, Halloween.

On December 21, a Christmas party was held in West's library for thirty underprivileged children. The children are often neglected during the holiday season, mainly because of financial reasons. Mr. Vivone, along with his students, decided to spread holiday cheer. Refreshments were served, and gifts that were donated by the seniors were given out by Santa Claus, played by senior Mike King. The children were overjoyed with the entire party and it was, as Mr. Vivone described it, "a phenomenal success."
ROBERT HAZARD COMES TO WEST

On the evening of December 4, 1982, Robert Hazard rocked West with a concert that will long be remembered by all those who attended. Hazard brought his special brand of rock to the West stage at 9:30 after a solid show by the warm-up band, Secret Service. The local star, whose unique musical style has won acclaim in the Delaware Valley was supposed to release a new album in February. The West appearance, the first high school show for Hazard, was certainly one of the most exciting school-sponsored events of the year.
On December 10, 1982, Theater Workshop presented Cherry Hill with a collection of West's best comedians at the first annual Comedy Cafe. The cafe, which was styled after two nightclubs in Philadelphia, the Comedy Works and the Comedy Shop, was complete with waiters and waitresses serving everything from popcorn to pizza. Junior Matt Cohen and Senior Warren Sutnick hosted the program which consisted of original comedy routines performed by Rob Denmark, Seth Tishler, Dave Honness, John McCaul, Larry Maister, Ken Fox, and the comedy teams of Scott Harris and Kenny Hastings, and Carolyn Tishler and Mary Townsend. In addition, two professional comedians straight from the Comedy Works strutted their stuff much to the delight of the audience. All in all, the combination of West's jesters and the Comedy Works' professionals, along with food to snack on, provided some delightful entertainment at West.
RESPECT FOR DRUGS

Mr. Donald Murray is the instructor of West's Respect for Drugs class. The students in the class devote the first half of the year to formulating lessons for different grades at the elementary school level. In January West's students began travelling to local elementary schools to instruct younger children on the dangers of drug abuse. While the program is in progress, the teachers in the elementary schools are asked to write an evaluation of the program. Judging from the evaluations, the Respect for Drugs program has proven to be a healthy success.
JUNIOR PROM COMMITTEE

All year, the Junior class has been preparing and raising money for their big event, the Junior Prom. It will be held on May 27, at the Cherry Hill Inn in the Starlite Ballroom. With music supplied by Silver Sound the guests will dance and dine under the stars to this year's theme of "We've Got Tonight" by Bob Seger. It promises to be the best Junior Prom ever.

SENIOR PROM COMMITTEE

J. Spector, J. Artzi

The Class of 1983 cordially invites you to attend the Senior Prom to be held at the Halloran Plaza on the third day of June nineteen hundred eighty-three. The entertainment will be provided by Silver Sound's D.J., Paul Evans from 8:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m.
The performer walks out on stage, a nervous wreck. Despite her nerves, inside she knows of the talent she possesses. The audience's hush is felt as she reaches inside and begins her act. She knows that the first reaction to her routine will either make or break it, so she combines her talents in order to please the skeptical crowd, she hears applause, which puts her at ease temporarily, but the show is far from over. She continues, trying to hide her mixed emotions, the performance ends. A whistle from the back, and a cry for more, along with thunderous applause, is her reward.

1983 CLASS GOVERNMENT

They rule the school with pride and with honor. They are Cherry Hill West's seniors, and this year they had one of their most memorable years at West. Beginning with a beach party and several fundraisers, including an extremely successful Tupperware party, the Class of '83 set an important example for the other classes. The seniors then joined with the sophomores in bringing Robert Hazard to West for an exclusive concert. This proved to be one of the biggest performances West has hosted, and the seniors were a part of it. Finally, the senior year was climaxed by a beautiful prom, and a four day senior trip to Disneyworld in Florida. Every member of the Class of '83 will surely remember his or her senior year at West as one of the most exciting and rewarding times of his or her education.

Can students run our government? Are they capable of performing the many duties and responsibilities of a politician? New Jersey Girls’ and Boys’ State are programs designed to answer these and other questions. Students from high schools throughout the state met at Rider College during the last two weeks of June, 1982, in order to learn more about city, state, and federal governments. A wonderful way to conclude anyone’s junior year, the students who attended not only learned about their country and how it is run but also made many new friends and shared unforgetable experiences.

SENIOR TRIP TO FLORIDA

A class trip to Orlando, Florida. A haven for any senior suffering from mid-winter senior-itis. Palm trees, oranges, and Mickey Mouse contrasted the evergreens, snow, and ice that so many of us were just getting used to. With the sun's rays tanning their bodies and the sand at their feet the seniors enjoyed four glorious days in sunny Florida as their friends in Cherry Hill spent their Presidents' Day weekend digging their way out of the remains of the Blizzard of '83. The trip that every underclassmen looks forward to finally became a reality for the Class of '83.
Tara Dillon claimed the honor of becoming Cherry Hill West's Homecoming Queen of 1982. Nominated and elected by their peers, Tara and her court of Lisa Berzanski, Cathy Cunningham, Cindy Courtman, and Jean Seyler, were judged according to their beauty, poise, and overall school spirit. The girls then presided over the traditional West-East Thanksgiving day football game and half time parade. Congratulations to Tara and the entire court.

CONGRATULATIONS
From The Spirited SOPHOMORE CLASS

To the Class of '83:

There are some qualities that are wondrous about your class: Camaraderie, complaisance, solicitude, and generosity. Don't ever lose such attributes.

I thank you again for honoring me with the most prestigious "Purple Heart Award."

Although I have come to know you but a short time, the rapport we share shall be everlasting.
You know how much I'll truly miss you; but I leave you, knowing you have begun the trek to personal fulfillment.
Lastly, remember . . .
This above all: to thine own self be true.

God bless you!
Sincerely,
John A. Vivone

HAMLET Liii.78
As you walk down the halls of West
As you’ve done a million times before
Wondering if these years were really the best
Or if there was something more
It’s not that you want to stay
But you don’t exactly want to leave
So many memories, left for others to receive
No other class seems so important
As the one to which you belong
When actually there have been others whose footprints are just as strong
So it’s time for graduation
As you sit there in a daze
Proud hands clap in adulation
The class of ’83 disappears
In a cloud of purple haze.
Our four year journey is at its end ... High school with all
Its laughter and tears, silly crushes and broken hearts
Is behind us forever ... It is so hard to let go.
Though we want to so much. Yet where one road ends,
Another begins. And while I must begin this new path
On my own, I will always be able to look back at this book.
Within these pages is immortalized the short time
We spent together along the winding road.

D. Yalon
