There was a time when everything seemed so big and all we saw was the ground and what was in front of our eyes.
But as time progressed, we began to see more. Over, above, about and beyond. The monkey bars looked smaller, and the world looked much, much BIGGER!
But now,
after years of learning, experience, fighting our way through the too-crowded D-wing intersection
OUTSIDE

UP & DOWN
we're starting
(just a little)
to see things how they really are...
AROUND AND AROUND AROUND AROUND
from our own PERSPECTIVE.
And we're starting
(just a little)
to realize that our perspectives of our friends
of West
of Life
are not the only ways of looking at the world.

(Poem found in a 'tetchy' teacher's book)

And morning bells ring

and carried by a calico crowd
thru' the intersection at D and F wing
I am moved to E to the edge of someone's laughter counterpoint to someone's fear of tears.

I hear someone won today and someone lost
someone's worried
and someone's so relieved!

And I feel for my glasses-- my papers and my pens while the crazyquilt before me is pieced within.
It spreads out with hurry and confusion and then strangely comes together-- the real and the pretend

It is personal yet it is universal
It is plain to me
but is never simple folding as it does
on the principle of 'try'
on the dignity of work on the adventure of risk to be the hero of my failure or the heel of my success

The wrap of the dream without and the dream within this quiltschool crazyday:

What shall I do about . . .

Who will know . . .

Someone has to take . . .

I've lost my . . .

I need some . . .

Hand me your test

and morning bells will ring.
Dear Class of 1995:

Congratulations to you and your families upon your graduation from High School West. You are entering a world that has changed dramatically since you entered school; from the dismantling of the Berlin Wall to the fall of communism in Eastern Europe; from a technological revolution to instant communications; all of these changes make your future exciting and challenging. I hope your experiences at West, the friends you have made, the faculty who have guided you, will help you meet the challenges of the future.

Good luck and best wishes!

Sincerely,

Richard A. Simon

Practice.
The regular locker room crowd
All of us
Crammed into a space that
I swear
Was only made for three or four people.
"Is that your sock or mine?"
Ten precious pre-practice minutes
Squandered
Searching for that grimy-gray scrap of paper -
A locker combination scribbled
In an eager, first-day-of-practice flourish.
Open lockers reveal
Still-damp practice jerseys:
Leftovers from the last four weeks of practice.
And the usual struggles with knotted shoelaces
Missing mouthguards
And taped ankles --
They all disappear in the three-o'clock
We're-late-for-practice-again
Scramble.
This spring, the West baseball team had a highly successful season. Coached by Mr. Trotman, the Lions finished the season with a 15-10 record. One of the highlights of the 1994 season was a trip to the Grand Slam Invitational Tournament in Arizona. During the five day tournament, the Lions had a 2-2 record. Chris Martine and Jason Floiry won spots on the All Olympic Conference Team and Brad Napoli received an All Olympic Conference Team Honorable Mention.

1. From the outfield, Chris Ergood relays the throw.
2. On first base, Jonathan Fisher keeps a close eye on the baserunner.
5. Behind the plate, Chris Martine prepares for the pitch.
6. Frank Salerno throws for the final out against Paul VI.
7. The Lions congratulate Keith Moore as he scores a run.
8. Sliding into second, Brad Napoli moves into scoring position.
9. Matt Halpin rounds the bases towards second.
10. Robb Martine leads off, preparing to steal second.
11. Brian Carroll prepares to throw a curveball.
12. Jason Floiry hits yet another double.
13. Coach Trotman surveys his team.
With the return of seniors Danielle DeFeco and Heather Hoffman and the arrival of five promising freshmen, the Lady Lions softball team began their 1994 season prepared for the competition. Under the leadership of MVP Donna Hind, the Lady Lions showed enormous potential, beating arch-rival Cherry Hill East 18-4. Freshman Kelly Woodcock, the Lady Lions’ starting pitcher, wowed the opposing teams’ batters with her outstanding ability. At the end of the 1994 season, the Lady Lions could look back on a wonderful season filled with pride, accomplishments, and memories.
1. Lisa Lysak prepares to make an out. 2. Stepping up to the plate, Heather Hoffman attempts to advance the Lady Lions. 3. Nancy Digneo scores a run. 4. On the mound, Danielle DeFeo prepares to throw the perfect pitch. 5. Theresa Marrara makes a catch. 6. Behind the plate, Donna Hind takes the catcher's position.

Sports
With only three starting team members returning for the 1994 season, the West girls’ lacrosse team had to double their efforts in order to have a winning season. Finishing the year with a record of 10-7, the Lady Lions placed second in the Mohawk Division. Goalie Susan Back was named to the All South Jersey First Team, and Hy-Yun Rhee and Julia Dunworth were named to the All South Jersey Second Team. Winning spots on the Mohawk Division First Team were Diane Brownell and Heather Blauvelt. Julia Dunworth, with 48 goals, was the team’s leading scorer.
With five experienced seniors leading the team, West's boys' tennis team had a very successful season. Forging a solid record from a challenging schedule, the players clearly showed their devotion to success. This year, every varsity team member qualified for the Olympic Conference Tournament, and one doubles team, consisting of Metraj Mohiuddin and Hal Neeman, advanced to the semifinals of the state tournament. Congratulations to the boys' tennis team on a terrific season.
1. Hitting a powerful forehand, Casey Marshall defeats his opponent. 2. In the backcourt, Muraj Mohiuddin returns a tough forehand. 3. Rick Hohmann prepares for a backhand return. 4. Following through on his swing, Gary Bergman effortlessly deflates a shot. 5. During a warm up, the team prepares for an intense match. 6. Watching from the bench, Coach Dr. Brown encourages the team. 7. 1994 BOYS' TENNIS TEAM: FRONT ROW: Maron Man, John Conwell, Hal Neuman, Majid Mohiuddin, Muraj Mohiuddin, Jason Conwell. Posing for the camera, Eric Stablin takes a break. 10. While waiting for the return, Gregg Freedman plots his next move.
Finishing the year with a 2-5 record, West's boys track team had a tough season. Hard working and dedicated, the Lions strove towards perfection in every meet. In one of the most exciting segments of the 1994 season, the boys track team competed in the Penn Relays. Several individuals made their mark on this year's team. D.C. Braswell had an outstanding personal record of 21.0. Also, D.C. broke a West record in the 400 meter race, won All Group Four Honors, and finished third and ninth in sectional and state tournaments, respectively. Jamie Gaymon, West's discus thrower, placed eleventh in the state tournament. Key runners were Ed Devlin and Casey Coleman.
1. Liz Watson cleans up the competition. 2. Swapping strategies, Mrs. Sablich and Mr. Britton prepare for the upcoming meet. 3. Melissa Majken prepares to throw the discus. 4. Steering past the opposing, Jon Jennings takes the lead. 5. Dana Pilla glides over the high jump bar. 6. Coming in for a landing, Keisha Hicklyn makes her try at the long jump a success. 7. Silver Foxworth ‘hurler’ towards victory. 8. Jon Jennings, Jonny Lander, and Cindy Wai warm up. 9. Defying gravity, Tashanique Lewis exemplifies the long jump. 10. Judy Sandersそaris the final lap. 11. Nena Moore races towards victory. 12. 1994 GIRLS’ TRACK TEAM.

THIRD ROW: Mr. Britton, Danielle Meheer, Silver Foxworth, Olga Moree, Tina Tott, Keisha Hicklyn, Nena Moore, Lacy Segal, Jeanne Wai, Mr. Pilla, Mrs. Sablich.
With the return of several top athletes, West's 1994 girls' track team was prepared to begin yet another season. Nena Moore earned recognition in the short distance races and the long jump. Also, Jen Jennings and Jenny Lander made major contributions to the team in long-distance running. Seniors Dana Pilla and Melissa Majikes scored victories for the Lady Lions in the field events.
2. Pedro Carrasquillo sets for his teammate. 3. Aaron Pennell moves in for the kill. 4. Brandon Kiarman makes a diving shot. 5. Alan Jacobie spikes the ball over the net. 6. Garrett Walker prepares to return the ball. 7. Ray Mendoza waits for the perfect shot. 8. Wojtek Szymkowiak bumps the ball. 9. Holy Volleyball, Batman!
Celebrating a 12-2 record, the West boys' volleyball first team had a fantastic season last spring. Led by South Jersey All-Stars Aaron Pesnell and Pedro Carpasquito, the team demonstrated enormous potential. Thrilled by the performance of the team in the first year of the South Jersey Volleyball League, Coach Sweeten anxiously awaits spiking down the competition next year. Losing solely to East last year and with an overwhelming majority of players returning, the West boys' volleyball first team is looking hot!

Sweeten's second team had comparable success, coming even closer to going undefeated than the first team. The second team, led by Kirk Jones and Brian Hwang, went 13-1, suffering a close loss to East in the final week of the season after defeating them in the previous month. Both the first and second teams look promising for the 1995 spring season.
1. 1994 GOLF TEAM: LEFT TO RIGHT: Franck Kobate, Mark Seger, Mr. Page, Alex Ronning, Kevin Knott, Chad Hrimek, Joe Giordano, Rob Oehinger, Karl Poole. 2. Going for another hole-in-one, Alex Ronning driven off. 6. Chad Hrimek admires another great shot. 7. Kevin Knott checks for a divot after chipping from the green.
In 1994, Cherry Hill West's golf team had one of its best seasons ever. Anchored by Captain Alex Ronning and Assistant Captains Rob Obringer, Joe Giordano, and Karl Poote, the players set a standard for excellence. Chad Hrivnak, Frank Kahute, Kevin Krutoff, and Eric Houser laid a strong foundation for the team. This year, West won four matches. A major highlight of the season was Karl Poote's second place win in the Olympic American Conference tournament. Remembering that their main focus was to play hard, West's golf team had an unforgettable season.
3. From the sideline, Coach Thompson directs the defense.
4. Sue Back and Lisa Lysak move the ball down the field.

11. Melanie Rose passes the ball for the assist.
Strengthened by an excellent defense, West's field hockey team finished the season with a 7-5-5 record. Many individual players had an impact on the Lady Lions. Goalie Erica Johnson was a standout, amassing 210 saves and 10 shutouts. Erica's statistics led to her selection to the All South Jersey and All State Teams. Chosen as members of the All Olympic Conference Team were Seniors Carolyn Thorpe, Kristin Guy, and Gina Doddy. The Lady Lions honored Karen Jones, Gina Doddy, and Lisa Lysak as the team's unsung heroes.
The Cross Country team finished among the top 20 teams in South Jersey. Despite several injuries, the girls finished with a record of 4-3. Through hard work, the veterans and four freshmen contributed their best. Ranked third in their conference, the boys completed the season with a record of 5-2. In addition, Senior Ed Devlin qualified for the Group IV State Champions; while, co-captain Casey Coleman was named the most valuable runner.

1. At the Gloucester County College course, Lucy Segal places fourth. 2. Mr. Mitidieri and Mr. Semar time the boys at the finish line. 3. Before West students returned to school in September, the members of West's football team were practicing in the heat of summer. With only six starters returning, the Lions worked hard in order to make the 1994 season a successful one. The team's Captains, Deron Braswell, Chris Dilba, and Joe Gmaz, were all selected as members of the First Team All Group Four and the First Team All Olympic Conference. Marc Monichetti commented, "It was a great bonding experience. Football helped me discover who I am." The team would like to commend Coach Smith, who will be retiring this year, for his many years of hard work and dedication.
1. At the line of scrimmage, Quarterback Joe Gnaz calls an audible.
1. 1995 Varsity Cheerleaders: Liz Petrella, Claudette Vitarelli, Christine Peluso, Shannon Reilly. Second Row: Erica Hoyer, Jeanine O Clone, Allysa McDevitt. Third Row: Danielle Mebs, Elizabeth Newson, Sarah Lyons, Silver Foxworth. 2. On the field at homecoming, the cheerleaders do a dance routine. 10. At halftime, varsity cheerleaders take the floor.
With only three seniors returning to the squad, West’s cheerleaders met the challenge of a difficult season with success. Many of this year’s cheerleaders attended a four day long camp, where they further improved techniques such as dances, jumps, and stunts. Senior Captain Sarrah Lyons said, “We have done amazingly well for being composed of mostly all freshmen. We are a young team that has a lot of potential.”
While starting late in the year, West's gymnastics teams dedicated themselves to the goal of an outstanding season. The boys' team placed third in the league championships. Ben Strawn won second place in the all-around division and Dan Cestare won third place in the vault. Although the girls' gymnastics team had to cope with a change in coaches and numerous injuries, the Lady Lions improved their scores in every meet. All-around competitors Lisa Maroccia, Erica Heyer, Laura Gannon, and Amy Arrison were great assets to the team.
When most fall sports team members were returning their uniforms, the West boys' soccer team was still going strong. Coached by Mr. Sleeth, the Lions won the South Jersey Group Four title and qualified for the state tournament. Advancing to the state finals, the Lions played an exciting game in the pouring rain against Clifton, the third-ranked team in the United States. Goalie Anthony DiMichele, the team's Most Valuable Player, was named to both the All South Jersey and All State teams. Senior Aaron Pesnell and Junior Brad Malin were selected as members of the All Olympic Conference Team.
1. Coach Sleeth commands his players from the sidelines.

2. 1994 BOYS' VARSITY SOCCER TEAM:

8. Sophomore Haile Jones charges into an opponent.
9. With a powerful kick, halfback Brad Malin sends the ball flying down the field.
Grueling drills and conditioning runs paid off for the Lady Lions varsity soccer team. Their motto was: Give 100% and you’ll always be on top. In an exciting season, the team lived up to Coach Don Murray’s expectations. The highlight of the season occurred when the Lady Lions beat the then undefeated Haddonfield team 3-2. The team elected First Team All Olympic Conference member Heather Blauvelt as the Most Valuable Player, Melissa Montalvo as the Most Improved Player, and Jamie Whitlock as the unsung hero.
1. 1994 GIRLS' JUNIOR VARSITY SOCCER TEAM:
Cherry Hill West's girls' tennis team had a tough season in 1994. In a grueling schedule during which the girls played as many as five matches a week, injuries and weather affected their performance. Coached by Dr. Brown, the team worked towards a successful season.
After only a few practices in early September,
the girls began their season with a match against top-ranked Moorestown Friends.
Throughout the season, the girls' tennis team maintained a positive outlook, and each team member improved her skills.
1. GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM:

FRONT ROW: Michelle Khan, Amy Gallagher, Christina Khan, Aviva Kaplan.

7. Marla Schiffer returns the shot for match point.
8. Literally, "on her toes", Sandi Rudenstein wins a point with her strong forehand.
9. Aviva Kaplan nails a blistering backhand to win the set.
10. In the backcourt, Erin Williams lobes the ball back over the net.
11. During practice, Jen Garfunkel perfects the technique of her swing.
The West girls volleyball team, coached by Mr. Flieder, finished the season with a 10-7 record narrowly missing the league title. In the first round of the state tournament, the Lady Lions, seated fifteenth, lost to the second-ranked team in New Jersey. West's girls volleyball team congratulates Dawn Pettek, a First Team All-Star, and Marcey Johnson, a First Team Honorable Mention selection. The Lady Lions would like to thank assistant coach Brian Lo for all his hard work and dedication to the team.
1. Ready to set, Tsu-Ling Kuo bumps the ball.

Girls' Volleyball
Ranked among the top 15 teams in South Jersey, West's boys' basketball team had a terrific season this year. Co-champions of the Olympic American Conference, the Lions also won the Overbrook Holiday Tournament. This season, Anthony Socci and Anthony DiMichele passed the 1,000 point mark. Junior Julian Dunley was named to Second Team All South Jersey.
1. After stealing the ball from an opponent, Donna Hind is awarded a foul shot. 2. Laura Vogel shoots from the sideline to tie the game. 3. THIRD ROW: Beth Greway, Erin Bates, Erica Polk, Joy Alexander, Colleen Murray, Helen Romanos, Mr. Gurst. 6. 1995 GIRLS' VARSITY AND JV BASKETBALL TEAMS: FRONT ROW: Markia Johnson, Donna Hind, Lindsey Ermey. SECOND ROW: Sara Cholin, Dawn Pette, Michelle Board, Laura Vogel, Corten Ehlers, Kelly Woodcock. THIRD ROW: Mr. O'Donnell, Irv Rhodes, Heather Blauvelt, Danielle Socci, Dawn McCargo, Katherine Erhart, Jaime Elias, Stephanie Mestichelli. 7. With five minutes remaining in the quarter, Lindsey Ermey gains control of the ball. 8. Preparing for a lay-up, Lindsey Ermey defies gravity. 9. Freshman Jaime Elias sneaks the ball to a team member. 10. Coach O'Donnell plots a defensive play to keep the opposing team from scoring.
Achieving their season goal of qualifying for the state tournament, the West's girls' varsity basketball team ended the 1995 season with a 12-12 record. One of the most satisfying events of the season was the Lady Lions' two wins over arch-rival Cherry Hill East. Aided by Heather Blauvelt's skilled passing, team captains Lindsey Erney, Markia Johnson, and Donna Hind were responsible for the majority of points and rebounds. Other contributors to the varsity effort included juniors Ivri Rhodes, Dawn McCargo, and Katherine Erhardt, and sophomores Tracy Patella and Stephanie Mastichelli.
The 1995 West bowling teams rose to a position of power very quickly this year. At the beginning of the season, both the boys’ and girls’ teams ranked first in the Olympic American Conference. Ultimately, the boys finished third and the girls finished second. At the sectional tournament, the Lady Lions placed first and qualified for the state tournament.
Under the guidance of Coach Sweeten and captains, Laurel Singer and Melanie Rose, the girls' team excelled in every meet. Team members who qualified for the state tournament included Meredith Ward, Karyn Singer, and Jenelle Ritchie. The 1995 boys' swim team, led by coach Mr. Fisher and captains Dave Flynn, Nick Garnett, and Ken Landis, defended South Jersey League championship. The Lions' regular season ended with a record of 12-0. Also, the group finished with the fastest time in South Jersey for the 200 medley. Top performers included Adam Ritchie, Jesse Palmer, and Chuck Lauderback.
I. 1995 GIRLS' SWIMMING TEAM

This year, West's wrestling team had a groundbreaking season. For the first time in fifteen years, West defeated rival Paul VI. At the Edgewood Holiday Tournament, Chris Staniec and Brian Lockwood placed second in their weight classes. Also, in the State Tournament in Atlantic City, Chris Staniec placed third in his weight class. Captains Brian Lockwood, Chris Staniec, Tim Gismonde, and Tony Aumiller led the team throughout a strong season.
1. Anthony DePaul struggles with his opponent.
2. Preparing for a match, Chris Staniec puts on his head guard.
3. Mike Young maneuvers to take-down his opponent.
4. Brian Lockwood pins the opposing wrestler.
5. Jeff Sexton goes for the pin.
6. Brian Mello stares down the opposing wrestler.
7. Irv Lamb puts his opponent in a head-lock.
9. After a tough match, Matt Alemi raises his arm in victory.
12. 1995 JV WRESTLING TEAM: FRONT ROW: Mike Lewis, John Ullner, Jim Gillis, Anthony DePaul, Jeff Sexton. BACK ROW: Mike Young, Anthony Tottorito, Spencer Adamson, Brian Mello, Mr. Nelson.

Student Life
Daily, I believe I get lost with the lost.

Sometimes the hallway seems like a crayola dot rendering of blurred Van Goghish blank faces
Fourth period.
But later when the masses have floated onto Yellow buses which parade down Chapel Avenue
Stopping and going in flashes of green and red
Back in the red-brick octagonal-square-hexa-breezeway
Dwelling
A life outside the realm of monotonous
English Physics Calculus
English Physics Calculus
English Physics... Exists. Abounds.
I've seen life from the green chalkboard in F21.
With my back plastered to green
I've heard about constitutions, Greek customs, French trips, science experiments
And I've saved lives and taught others how to.
I've been swarmed by deadlines and opinions (not my own)
And people people people
And when I stuck my face out of a window to catch some air
I saw fields of grass covered by magic marker specks
Where children? Adults? Those stuck in the middle?
Were running, laughing, jumping, playing, screaming, sweating, working
And my eyes could see beyond green trees and blue leaves
Where swarms floated around the track
Aiming for a goal within themselves...their muscles...their heart muscles.
They sped around, but away.
I have seen life from on a stage.
I have lied to lots of people and made them think
I am not myself. But someone else.
I can be the character I thought in English class I wasn't.
They have heard me singing from the top riser
(Where I stand because I'm tall)
From the left side
(Where I stand because that is where the high notes fluctuate from)
I have seen life from backstage,
Where there are no lights, but I've made my own.
Where people don't realize who they're applauding.
But I know it's me.

The post 2:30 noses and eyes will shine like lightning.

We will smile.
Homecoming
On the Wednesday before Thanksgiving, the West student body assembled in the Jones Gym for the annual Homecoming Pep Rally. Following a procession by West's sports teams, the football team made their grand entrance. Dr. Kosloff awarded the boys' varsity soccer team with the Group Four championship trophy. Freshman Government announced the winner of the "Kiss the Pig" contest, Mr. Flieder. The arrival of the 1994 Homecoming Court was perhaps the most anticipated event at the pep rally. Selected by the senior class, members of the Court were Susan Back, Jodi Dorato, Debbie Goldberg, Adrienne Gum, and Carolyn Thorpe. After an electric drum roll by West's marching band, Mr. Simon announced the winner. Congratulations to the 1994 Homecoming Queen, Adrienne Gum.
Pep Rally
On a cold Thanksgiving morning, West students and alumni sat in the bleachers of the Jonas C. Morris Stadium to watch the annual rivalry between East and West. After an exciting first half, the homecoming parade began. Class governments displayed floats featuring Disney and Warner Brothers. Much to the crowd’s delight, Mr. Flieder followed through on his promise, kissing a squealing black pig. Homecoming Queen Adrienne Gum and her court circled the field in convertibles. Equally as exciting as the first half, the second half of the game rushed by. With a dramatic last-second field goal, East triumphed over West by the score of 11-8.

Junior Miss Pageant

Winner - Aileen Tang
Incorporating scholarship, poise, talent, and interviews, the 1995 Junior Miss Pageant emphasized the outstanding characteristics of the eleven young women competing for the title. After performing selections ranging from voice to monologues to instrumental music, each contestant was asked the question, “What makes you proud to be a member of the class of 1995?” After an exciting week of interviews, preparation, and performance, the judges announced the winner. Congratulations, Aileen Tang, Junior Miss 1995, and all the contestants in this year’s pageant.

CHAD LAZAP
One Saturday evening in November, an M & M candyman, Mr. Rogers, a couple of singers, and a trumpet player walked down Memory Lane. There, they encountered a slim guy in a dress, a lighting guy twirling around in a tutu, a Broadway-style performer, a hip-hop dancer, and a guy who thought he was Vanilla Ice. It may sound frightening, but don't panic! A jailbird wearing sequined bell-bottoms walked away with the crown.
A Slice of Student Life
For the fifth straight year, the Cherry Hill High School West vocal music department presented its annual Broadway Night. Under the direction of Mrs. Bass, the vocal music department, comprised of over 250 students, performed a fantastic Broadway revue. Ranging from traditional pieces such as Fiddler on the Roof, Guys and Dolls, and Oklahoma, to the more recent theatrical hits The Wiz and Fame, the vocal music department sang and danced its way through musical history. In addition to the Combined Chorus' repertoire, Men of Note performed a medley of popular TV commercials. All in all, Broadway Night 1994 was a fantastic success!

Masters of melody
Blend
Pianissimo and fortissimo,
Roar, quiver, whisper,
Swept away
On a boisterous
Musical journey.
Soprano and Alto
Voices join
In unison
On old-fashioned spirituals
And modern popular hits,
Sweet melodies
That echo cleanly
Through the air.

Second to last flat
Produces Blue Book groans
With roller coaster vocal yells,
And enunciating consonants.
Keeping tempo with a tapping foot
We wrap ourselves up in a
New world of music.
Twenty-four talented musicians
Combine the classic madrigal
With a modern Christmas carol,
All with a sense of humor
And dramatic flair.
With a "doo-wah-doo-wah"
And a four part harmony,
Ten men
With smooth voices
And dazzling personalities
Bring the ecstatic audience
To their feet.

PROJECT GRADUATION

CHERRY HILL H.S. WEST
For Amnesty International members, worldwide acceptance of human rights is the ultimate goal. To spread their message of equality to the West student body, Amnesty members actively support Human Rights Day. Once a year, members silently represent a prisoner of conscience and distribute several petitions concerning human rights violations.
Nature Defense takes an active role in educating West students about the importance of protecting the environment. Each year, several club members participate in Project Earth, an environmental education program for Cherry Hill elementary school students. Also, Nature Defense sponsors candy and T-Shirt sales benefitting environmental causes.
The Italian Culture Club, advised by Mrs. Nicolo, has been very active this year. Organizing several fundraisers such as panzarotti, stromboli, panatone, and Mom's pizza sales, the club raised money for future trips. At the Multi-Cultural Holiday Party, the club provided Christmas cookies, traditional Italian dishes, and classic Italian music.
French Club

Besides playing a major role in the Multi-Cultural Holiday Party, French Club members traveled to Beau Rivage for a night of French cuisine. In April, several French students took part in the three country tour of Europe. The club members would like to wish a "Bon Voyage" to all the departing exchange students and graduating seniors.
Spanish Club students traveled to Mi Casita, a daycare center for Spanish speaking children, and spent the day entertaining "todos los niños." Along with West's other language clubs, Spanish club is sending a delegation to the three country European tour.

Representing the entire planet, International Culture Club and Asian Culture Club promote cultural diversity at West. At monthly meetings, West students are given the opportunity to sample the foods, clothing, literature, and music of the world's various cultures. This year, both clubs played a major role at the Multi-Cultural Holiday Party.

Visions, West's foreign language literary magazine, gives foreign language students the opportunity to submit poetry and prose in Spanish, French, Italian, and Latin.

Meeting every Tuesday afternoon we read and read and read in E-33 and schemed with Mrs. Walsh to arouse our peers with a "quote of the day". We put together writing and art contests to drum up interest for the finished product: An art and literary magazine to represent the exciting talents of West's students.
Despite seven months of broken croppers, countless rejected layouts, and disorganized piles of proof pages, the Rampant staff has created a masterpiece of over 300 pages depicting life at Cherry Hill West. This colossal achievement required thousands of man-hours, a lot of frayed nerves, more than a little grim determination, and twenty large pizzas (with extra cheese) to get the job done.
Whether they are looking for sports results or current events, West students always turn to Lions Roar for the latest news. Along with up-to-date articles on West's activities, Lions Roar also has a strong editorial section featuring reviews, student opinions, and offbeat stories.

On several Saturdays this year, members of West's forensics team boarded a bus at 6:30 a.m. bound for an obscure location in North Jersey. Competing in events such as Dramatic Interpretation, Poetry, Impromptu, and Duo Interpretation, team members always received positive comments about their performances. At the Holmdel Invitational Meet, Sherif Fahmy took fifth place in Declamation and Miriam Miller earned a first place trophy for Impromptu Speaking.
West's SADD chapter reminds us of the dangers of drinking and driving. At the West Homecoming Game, SADD members distributed purple ribbons to be worn as a memorial for the victims of alcohol related automobile accidents. The club was fortunate enough to hear several guest speakers as well.

Once a month, representatives from all of West's organizations and class governments meet in the faculty library with Mr. Simon to discuss student concerns. Topics this year have included gambling, safety, and discipline procedures. Members are often invited to participate in district wide programs as well.

Peer Leadership and Peer Mediation provide highly accessible sources for West students who wish to settle disputes. Working with their peers, a trained peer mediator counsels students about various issues and concerns. Since the programs have begun, there has been a noticeable reduction in tension between students.
1. West's AFJROTC takes pride in their emblem.
The N.J. 781st Air Force Junior ROTC group has had a successful and exciting year. This year, several cadets spent the summer at McGuire Air Force Base at a rigorous training camp. A highlight of the '94-'95 school year was the landing of a military helicopter right on West's football field. The group also held a spaghetti dinner, oriental dinner, and the traditional military ball.
Whether filing papers, delivering passes, or shelving library books, West's aides are always busy doing something. The aides are an essential part of the operations in the principal's office, library, house offices, guidance offices, and nurses' office. Without their efforts, West would be swamped in even more paperwork than it is now!

It's "Another Openin', Another Show," and the company, ready to please every "Tom, Dick, or Harry" and a "Bianca" or two, takes their places backstage. As "We Open In Venice," the cast, crew, and pit put together a performance that is truly "Wunderbar." Every number is just "Too Darn Hot," and by the final curtain call and a reminder to "Brush Up Your Shakespeare," the audience's applause reveals that they're "Always True To You," the fabulous company of Kiss Me, Kate.
In Baltimore in 1949, Frederick Graham was about to launch his production of Kiss Me, Kate, a musical version of Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew, when complete chaos occurred. His ex-wife, actress Lilli Vannussi, can't stop slapping Fred onstage. His newest love, singer Lois Lane, has fallen for a Broadway hoofer named Bill Callhoun, who just ran up a $10,000 gambling debt in Fred's name. Two gangsters are knocking on Fred's door with a huge I.O.U. and a loaded gun. But after all, the show must go on. So, Fred creatively meshes his personal life with his musical masterpiece. After many unexpected twists and turns, the lovers are reunited and the production is a smashing success!
Another Opening,

'Todd Groves' talent on the sax is providing great opportunities for the Cherry Hill West music student.'

Big news! Todd Groves recently performed at a party in Los Angeles for Grammy nominees and was invited to play solo with George Washington.

Jammin' with Grover

By ROBERT BAXTER

Todd Groves can look back on an exciting four years at Cherry Hill WestHS, during which he has been at the top of his class, playing six instruments (not to mention a sport or two) for the past four years and really worked hard and everything, but we couldn't find the words, so all we're saying is thanks for being Todd and taking seven AP classes or something like that all at the same time.
I never thought
I'd be here getting lost
being scared
finding out what it feels like to be Freshman
as old as my babysitter or brother was when they told me
I would love that teacher
but hate that class.

September again?
While tripping over grades, ideas, competition--
I look up and little guy opens
my last year locker.
Is my proclamation of love,
my sticker,
that scratch
still there?
Stretching subtly to see
neck craned
but it doesn't matter-- (right?)
'cause now
I am Sophomore.

You need who... what-- where?
When!
How can summer be so long gone
far fetched
dreamlike now that I'm junior chairperson of something or other when I just want to pass that test
pass that pen
pass your soda.
One more year 'till we graduate--
Can you drive on Friday night?
The Freshman Class Government, led by Governor Justin Shilliday and Lt. Governor Valerie Klisman, sponsored activities which benefitted the West student body. The Class of 1998's first fund-raiser, a cookie and candy sale, raised over one thousand dollars. In the area of community service, the freshman government worked with inner-city schools, hospitals, and nursing homes. Also, the freshman class held a car wash, a dance, and an auction. In addition, the class published a special bi-monthly magazine which focused on the members of the class.

We go like everyone else
To the cineplex, regularly, Saturday at seven,
To see the newest action flick
Or heart-rending drama or uproarious comedy
That we'll proclaim Monday morning in Spanish class
To be "Our most favorite movie ever!"
We go like everyone else
To grab a grilled cheese sandwich or
A strawberry shortcake sundae
At this diner where people like me hang out
Because we're too honest (too scared)
For fake ID's that can get us into singles bars
At 3 a.m. So, seven or eight people squeeze
Into a fake leather booth meant for three or four
And whine about the Fitzgerald or Hemingway novel
We're afraid to admit we like, because
What if no one else does?
And we complain that we're sooo bored and have to Move out this second before our parents drive us crazy.
We go like everyone else
Home in the 1983 station wagon that all
Our brothers and sisters drove.
We're packed like frat members in a phone booth, because
Only one or two of us have a license
And no one cares about highway regulations.
And we chat about Melrose and MTV
When we're actually agonizing over
College applications or whether or not
To push a floundering relationship
To the proverbial "next level,"
But, no one says what we're really thinking, because
"Winners" don't have real problems,
Only false, but well-invented problems.
And anyway, the people we're with Just wouldn't understand a major catastrophe.
"Yesterday is only a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision; but today, well lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope."

School Alma Mater

High upon old Chapel Hill
Stands the school I call my own.
How I love to see her flags unfurl,
Wherever I may roam.
Royal purple's majesty
And white crusader's thrill,
So pledge your love and loyalty
To the school on Chapel Hill.

William D. Burley
In their junior year, students were nominated by the faculty for Girls and Boys State, Rotary, Girls Citizenship Institute, Governor's School, and New Jersey Scholars. The students receiving the most nominations went through a selection process. Boys State and Rotary candidates were interviewed by the faculty, and Girls State candidates were interviewed by members of the American Legion Auxiliary. Governor's School candidates filed applications and auditioned at Trenton State College. After much consideration, students were selected as delegates to the programs. Congratulations to the Summer Scholars of the Class of 1995!
Out of over 300 students in the Class of 1995, these four students have achieved one of the most prestigious honors awarded at Cherry Hill West. These students, ranking in the top 1% of their class, represent the high standard of academic excellence that West faculty and administration have always encouraged. Congratulations to the 1995 Order of the Lion: Todd Groves, Aileen Tang, Jennifer Albright, and Hal Neeman.
National Honor Society

After the first marking period of their junior or senior year, West's most academically talented students are invited to apply to the National Honor Society. Serving West students as well as the Cherry Hill community, NHS members sponsor peer tutoring on Tuesday afternoons, bingo at Silver Court Nursing Home on Monday nights, and a tea service at the Jewish Geriatric Home on Friday afternoons.

When we were young children,
We dabbled in fingerpaints.
And sang "Mary Had A Little Lamb"
While we played a plastic saxophone.
And wrote our own fairy tales,
Which we acted out in dress-up clothes.

Now we play in chamber orchestras and sax quartets,
And sing madrigals and musical scores.
As we write the next sensational short story,
And perform in Shakespearean tragedies,
Set in an intricately painted forest.

PRESENTING...
On March 21, 1994, the Board of Education unanimously passed a recommendation for a new science wing. Mr. Krantz, the science department chairperson commented, "We're very happy about the renovation. It will give the program a boost and it will create motivation for staff and students." This coming fall, West students can look forward to having their science classes in a brand new, state of the art facility.
CLASS OF 1995

Mr. Robert Josephs

224 Seniors
Since freshman year, the Class of 1995 government has been very active. Whether government members were planning trips to Great Adventure, selling carnations and Hershey Kisses, or participating in community service activities, Senior Class Government members worked hard to make the school year interesting. And interesting it was, including original ideas such as computer dating, T-shirt design contests, and the "Looney Tunes" Homecoming float. Under the leadership of Governor Susan Back and Lt. Governor Jodi Dorato, the Class of 1995 has made senior year their best year ever.

We dedicate this page to the memory of our classmate, Jonathan D. Corson.

“If we could have but one lifetime wish, one dream come true, we’d pray to God with all our hearts for yesterday and you.”

The Class of 1995
Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 330,000 troops to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy wife force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship, which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

Joyful residents of Belfast celebrate after the Irish Republican Army (IRA) announces an end to its military operations in Northern Ireland as of August 31. After 25 years of British military presence and over 3,000 killings, the IRA says it will now seek Irish union only through political channels.

Tipper Gore, wife of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, visits Rwandan refugee camps in Zaire in July. Thousands of refugees, fleeing ethnic conflict in Rwanda, die of cholera, dysentery, and other infectious diseases. Fresh water supplied by the United States military greatly reduces the number of cholera deaths.

Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasir Arafat returns to Palestine in July 1994 after 27 years of exile in Tunisia. Arafat kisses the ground in the Gaza Strip, now a Palestinian autonomous zone under the terms of a 1993 peace accord with Israel.

On July 25, U.S. President Bill Clinton welcomes King Hussein of Jordan, right, and Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin to the White House, where the two sign a historic nonaggression pact that ends a 46-year state of belligerency between Israel and Jordan.

After a peasant uprising in Chiapas and two major political murders, Mexico gets a new president. Ernesto Zedillo, an economist, assumes office only to face a stockmarket crash, a ruined economy, and a loss of international confidence in the wake of the North American Free Trade Agreement.

Millions of South Africans travel weary hours and wait in mile-long lines to vote in the first all-race elections. After more than a century of white rule, the voters choose former political prisoner Nelson Mandela to preside over the dismantling of apartheid.

Jimmy Carter, former U.S. president and self-styled global troubleshooter for peace, negotiates on behalf of the U.S. in Haiti, Bosnia, and North Korea. He even offers to help settle the baseball strike.

U.S. President Bill Clinton, right, and British Prime Minister John Major take part in ceremonies in June 1994 at a military cemetery during the 50th anniversary commemoration of the Allied D-Day invasion of Europe, the event that sealed the fate of Nazi Germany during World War II.

In Japan, an earthquake with a magnitude of 7.2 collapses buildings, derails trains, buckles elevated expressways, and causes fires throughout the city of Kobe. Over 5,000 people are killed and 26,000 injured. The Japan quake occurs January 17, 1995, one year to the day after a quake devastated Los Angeles.

Chinese school children, dressed to look like Colonel Sanders, welcome the president of Kentucky Fried Chicken to Shanghai in May 1994. Few of the country's many foreign business ventures thrive, but KFC becomes a Chinese favorite. The finger-lickin' enterprise makes plans to expand its outlets from 28 to 200.

Triumphant Jean-Bertrand Aristide reclaims his position as president and restores democracy to Haiti with the help of U.S. troops. Haiti had suffered under the rule of a military junta led by General Raoul Cedras, who goes into exile after reaching an agreement with U.S. mediators.

In one of the most successful antiterrorist operations in aviation history, French commandos storm an Air France jetliner and kill four Algerian hijackers, freeing the plane's 173 passengers and crew.

Thousands of Cubans flee their economically depressed homeland, hoping for a better life in America. Many set out on homemade rafts and small vessels only to be intercepted by the U.S. Coast Guard. The United States and Cuba reach an agreement in September that allows 20,000 Cuban immigrants to enter the United States each year.
In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,300 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fun-seeking teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.

In 1994, the U.S. registers a one-year population growth of 2.7 million. One-third of the increase is due to immigration, the largest such influx since 1914.

Author and humanities professor, Ralph Ellison, dies at age 68. His 1952 novel, Invisible Man, has been called the most powerful novel written about alienation, identity, and racism in America.

A huge increase in killings by 14- to 24-year-olds raises the nation’s homicide rate, while violence blamed on street gangs rocks communities nationwide. A boy, 13, is sentenced to life for strangling a four-year-old. In Chicago, an 11-year-old boy kills a 14-year-old girl and is then executed by his own gang. In Washington state a pair of 12-year-olds shoot a migrant worker.

The death of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis in May 1994 marks the end of an era, a time when America was prosperous, fighting for civil rights, and heading for the moon. The former first lady is buried next to her husband, President John F. Kennedy, in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

The prosecution seeks the death penalty in the case of Susan Smith, who dupe the nation with a frightening tale of the abduction of her two little boys. The community’s early support grows quickly to hatred when Smith confesses to murder—she sent her children to their deaths at the bottom of a lake.

Called the Republican revolution, November mid-term elections put the Republican party and its anti-big government platform in control of Congress for the first time in 40 years. Georgia’s Newt Gingrich, author of the GOP’s “Contract with America,” is the new Speaker of the House.

The volunteers for Silent March bring shoes from every state for one of the quietest demonstrations to ever take place in Washington, D.C. Each empty pair of shoes represents one of the more than 46,000 Americans who have been killed by handguns.

Despite powerful National Rifle Association lobby efforts, Congress passes a crime bill banning the sale of 19 types of assault weapons. The Brady Law goes into effect; in one month 33,510 people with criminal records are denied the purchase of a handgun.

Heat, drought, and lightning combine to set Western states ablaze in late June and July. Fires consume 2,000 acres in Colorado’s South Canyon when 50 mile-an-hour winds whip the flames into a firestorm, killing 14 specially trained firefighters; 10 men and four women.
The 37th U.S. President, Richard Nixon, dies in April 1994. Nixon was responsible for restoring normal ties with the People’s Republic of China following the signing of the Shanghai Communiqué in 1972.

A rare white buffalo named Miracle draws crowds to the humble Wisconsin farm where it was born August 20. Native Americans believe the calf is the fulfillment of a Lakota Sioux prophecy. Five hundred years ago, White Buffalo Woman told her people that she would return as a white calf to usher in a new age of harmony between all races of mankind.

President Clinton, with Republican leader Bob Dole, signs legislation implementing the U.S. role in an expanded General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), one of the most sweeping trade liberalization pacts in history. The legislation makes the U.S. a member of a new 125-member World Trade Organization. Protectionists worry that GATT may promote world trade but won’t sufficiently protect American jobs.

The Secret Service considers restricting public access to the White House after a gunman fires 27 rounds at the building’s facade in October. In September, a small Cessna airplane crashes on the South Lawn and comes to rest at the base of the White House below President Clinton’s bedroom, killing the pilot.
The U.S. Interior Department moves the bald eagle from its endangered species list to the less critical "threatened" category. The Pacific Northwest's spotted owl is left to fend for itself when in June a federal judge lifts the 1989 injunction that halted logging in the owl's habitat.

The fossil of a previously unknown dinosaur, the 25-foot-long Cryolophosaurus ellioti, is found in Antarctica.

Despite a so-called fitness craze, the National Center for Health Statistics confirms the American overabundance of food combined with a sedentary lifestyle is creating an epidemic of obesity. Since 1980, the number of overweight adults has ballooned to one-third of the population, with an alarming increase among children.

The Food and Drug Administration institutes new food labeling on almost all foods in response to consumer protest against the many misleading claims of food producers. The new readable labels provide realistic serving sizes, list calories from fat, and allow you to compare different nutrient values.

The century's greatest chemist and antinuclear activist, Linus C. Pauling, winner of the Nobel Prize for Chemistry in 1954 and the Nobel Peace Prize in 1962, dies at the age of 93. His work on DNA laid the foundation for Crick and Watson's discovery of the double helix.

In Ethiopia, anthropologists discover the skull of a human ancestor, Australopithecus ramidus, 4.4 million years old. The new species has features midway between apes and humans and promises to provide clues to still earlier evolutionary stages.

Autostereograms, popularly known as Magic Eye, cause legions of people to stare cross-eyed for long periods of time. Based on a mystery of neurology and 3-D objects, pattern elements fuse into left-eye and right-eye images of a single hidden object which appears to be floating.

Japan's "Love Love Simulation" computer program allows couples to take a non-scientific look at future offspring by digitally combining their own photos to predict a child's appearance.
Astronomers wait at every major telescope in the world to see the historic cosmic crack-up of the 21 big fragments of Comet Shoemaker-Levy 9 as it smacks into the atmosphere of Jupiter at 134,000 miles an hour. Plumes of fire shoot up hundreds of miles, high enough to become visible to telescopes on Earth.

Internet activity rises sharply as surfers find their way around the information superhighway. Advertisers, rock music reviewers, the worldly Voice of America, and others decide it's time to jump on.

A cave is found in southern France, full of 380 vivid paintings of woolly-haired rhinos, bears, mammoths, panthers, and owls made about 20,000 years ago. The Stone Age artists also left behind bear skulls, flint knives, footprints, and fireplaces. Experts call it the archaeological find of the century.

Outbacks in military spending force the U.S. Navy to reduce its elite 100-dolphin fleet trained for use in sonar research, mine sweeping, and underwater recovery. Too tame to be released in the open sea, the veterans of conflicts from Vietnam to the Persian Gulf retire to aquariums and water parks.
Young people serve their country by volunteering under a new program called AmeriCorps, where 26,000 people aged 17 and up work with community-based organizations in exchange for $7,500 plus money toward college tuition or loans.

One percent of the nation’s 50 million school-age children learn at home as families seek alternatives to public schools. In a handful of high-tech experiments, kids submit homework by modem, download books and artwork from the Internet, and collaborate on academic projects with other children around the world.

A survey of college kids reveals their favorite sources of sugar and caffeine during all-night studying to be: powdered iced tea, peanut butter mixed with marshmallow cream, baby food, ramen noodles, raw cookie dough, and trail mix made from chocolate chips, graham cracker bits, and mini-marshmallows.

Besides recycled clothing like license-plate busters, bottle-cap jewelry, trash-bag and duct-tape dresses, fashion trends include the schoolgirl look with thigh-highs, and the grunge—turned—beatnik look of long, straight hair and a goatee.

A new survey shows that over 12 million Americans are vegetarians, choosing the no-meat lifestyle because of concern about animal cruelty, cost-efficiency, eco-friendliness and/or improved health and fitness.

A lively new cafe society centers around the 5,000 gourmet coffee shops which spring up around the country. To the often young and trendy patrons, the social interaction is just as important as the espresso. Some cafes offer full-time Internet links so patrons can sip and chat with other Internet latte-drinkers.

Yoga, a Hindu system of stretching exercises for well-being, surges in popularity, mostly because the older generation seeks a technique for alleviating stress and finds yoga better than aerobics.

Aerobic boxing, with boxing-style leg and arm work, turns out to be one of the year’s hot exercise trends, showing up in workout studios and attracting those who want to work off their aggression by throwing a right and a few jabs.
Led by brash young skate and surf types, two million snowboarders nationwide discover the joy of swooping down slopes on one board instead of two. No hard boots, no poles, no crossed tips, make it easier than skiing. Since their giant frozen wave is a ski hill, snowboarders annoy old-style skiers who want their slopes left undisturbed by shredders.

A hot new collectible derives from an old household item. Milk caps, known in some regions as pogs, originally capped the bottles left by the milkman but have now gone funky with colorful printed designs and variations that are traded and used in games.

Although most are forced to settle for Oakley wrap-arounds, stylin' kids, like in-line skaters and urban youth, clamor for Arnet's $80 Ravens with the silver-chrome frames.

The first generation to ignore colas in favor of fruit drinks, today's young people give Snapple popular cult status. The trend breeds juice wars as Snapple imitators like Fruitopia vie for youth market share and inundate the airwaves with Generation X-type advertising.

Pope John Paul II authors Crossing the Threshold of Hope, a blend of theology, evangelizing and personal reminiscence. It becomes a best-seller in 95 countries.

Remaining a virgin in the face of peer pressure finds new respect among teens who defend their freedom to forgo sex in a sex-crazy world. The movement is both a demand for real love and a reaction against unwanted pregnancy and health risks, since today one out of four kids are infected with sexually transmitted diseases by the age of 21.

It's called "the year of the cottage industry" as more Americans adopt different work arrangements in response to corporate downsizing, either by telecommuting or starting businesses out of their homes.

Kool-Aid makes a cheap hair-dye, an alternative to bleached hair with, say, Prizm Blue added for sheen. The "city fade" shaves the sides of your head and leaves the top longer, and the matted hair look is achieved by leaving the soap in and forgetting to comb.

The designer pets of the year are African pigmy hedgehogs, and some 3,000 find homes with humans. They are gentle, like to be petted, and need a once-a-day feeding of pet food or mealworms. They don't smell and will even eat your roaches.
John Travolta and Samuel L. Jackson star in Pulp Fiction, an "extravagantly demented low-life tapestry with outlandish twists." The film's plot revolves around a watch, a bribe, and a large syringe in a dinky humorous scene which reportedly causes a few audience members with needle-phobia to fall out of their seats in revulsion.

John Candy, the large and lovable star of films Splash, Cool Runnings, Home Alone, and many other family favorites, dies at the age of 43. Whether Candy played jerks, slots or loonies, his natural goodness came shining through.

"Life is like a box of chocolates," says its title character. Forrest Gump, starring Tom Hanks, surprises everyone with its popularity, attributed to the audiences' thirst for the film's theme of simple values and good intentions. Fascinating special effects place Gump into real news footage with U.S. presidents.

The Charles and Diana fairy-tale turned sour-bridal soap continues: A German newspaper prints nude photos of Prince Charles; he publishes a confession saying he never loved his wife. Princess Diana is suspected of making crank phone calls; an old friend who claims to be her ex-lover hawks a trashy kiss-and-tell book.

Tabitha the cat spends 12 days and 32,000 miles in the fuselage of a Tower Air 747 jet when she escapes her cat carrier and gets lost in the cargo hold. Tabitha makes television appearances after her rescue with her aspiring-actress owner. Tabitha lost two pounds during the ordeal, her owner lost six.

The Florida judge would not allow Paul Hill to use justifiable homicide as a defense in the shootings of Dr. John Britton and his bodyguard outside a Pensacola abortion clinic. Hill is found guilty of murder in the first degree.

Anna Paquin, 11, wins an Academy Award for her performance in The Piano. Says actor Gene Hackman, "I guess now you'll have no trouble getting cast in your school play."

Ronald Reagan, 83, announces he is in the early stages of Alzheimer's disease, which will cause him to rely increasingly on wife Nancy. Doctors say the easy-going ex-president should be able to function normally for several more years.

Despite hurried obsessions and death threats, Shannon Faulkner, 19, battles the all-male Citadel for the right to become the first female cadet in the 152-year history of the state-supported South Carolina military school.

In Singapore, American teenager Michael Fay is convicted of vandalism and publicly caned four times by a martial arts master, despite pleas from his family and President Clinton.

A scruffy movie idol, Johnny Depp and wispy model Kate Moss have a headline-making lovers quarrel. Depp is arrested for trash the couple's hotel room.

Cartoonist Gary Larson announces that he will retire The Far Side, a feature that began in 1978 and has appeared in 1,500 newspapers.

On this day in 1985, Michael Jackson weds Elvis' daughter, Lisa Marie Presley in a secret ceremony, May 1994. Journalists wonder if the union isn't a business arrangement or an attempt to polish Michael's public image, tarnished by claims of child molestation.

Former basketball superstar Michael Jordan improves his game for the Arizona Scottsdale Scorpions, a minor-league baseball team. He still has no plans to return to the hoops.

In about the most surprising event of the year, Michael Jackson weds Elvis' daughter, Lisa Marie Presley in a secret ceremony, May 1994. Journalists wonder if the union isn't a business arrangement or an attempt to polish Michael's public image, tarnished by claims of child molestation.

LAUREN WEBER

My Dear LaLa,
You have filled my life with so many precious memories -- from sitting as a toddler in your great-great grandmother's punch bowl to organizing our move last summer.
As you pass into another exciting phase of your life I would like to share Maya Angelou's wisdom with you:

Women should be tough, tender, laugh as much as possible, and live long lives. The struggle for equality continues unabated, and the woman warrior who is armed with wit and courage will be among the first to celebrate victory.

We love you -- We're very proud of you,
We're always there for you,
Mom, Charlie, Ben, Whiskers, and Snow.
We want you to know how proud we are of you and how deeply you are loved.
We wish you all the love, happiness and success you deserve.

Love,
Mom & Dad
SCOTT GRASER
Scott:
You've always been a happy person with a great personality.

You've brought much happiness to our lives.
"Go follow your dream..."
We love you!
Mom and Dominique

Pumpkin,
From your first breath we knew our lives would be so full of joy and love. Now the world is yours to change and make a better place. If anyone can do it, you can.
Love and Peace,
Mom and Dad

More than our daughter, our best friend.
Chris,

We love your smiling eyes, your friendly humor, your helping hands, and your keen mind. Give them to the world — and the world will be yours.

Love,

My precious child
When you came to be, you brought indescribable joy to our lives.
The years passed as quickly as a daydream.

A horizon looms,
The first day of school,
And you can't wait!

A hint of talents and accomplishments.

And now . . .
A new horizon.
As you have always been,
Continue to be.
HAT UP AND GO FOR IT!!

JULIETTA SHOAF

To laugh often and love much
To win the respect of intelligent persons and the affection of children.
To earn the approbation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends
To appreciate beauty
To find the best in others
To give one's self
To leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition
To have played and laughed with enthusiasm and sung with exultation
To know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived—

HANS PARK

Our gift from the Lord!!
God completed our family with a "Double Blessing."
May life continue to guide and direct you both.

With all of our love,
Dad, Mom, Dina, and Kara
Bogart and Benny and Mollyfruit, too.
SIMONA GHEROGLI

We wonder how it happened that you grew so fast, so beautiful, and now ready to pass through the gate of your professional life.
All the luck in the world from Mom and Dad, and more from the mini-zoo: Tuffy, Gipsy, Janis, and Stony.

SHYLA PELLETIER

Thank you to the families of the Class of '93 for the biggest (and best) Baby Ad Section ever.
