The girl brushed away the bits of eraser and, steadying her eyes on yet another problem, she tried to recall her teacher's instructions. Brow furrowed, she set to the task of conquering her puzzling adversary. As she worked through each step, bits of afternoon sun filtered into the room through crevices between the shade. The beams sent streams across the room reaching the girl and warming her back. She solved each problem with more and more ease, and soon she was pausing only to turn to a fresh page. With satisfaction she closed her book, rose, and walked to the window. Lifting the shades she took in the full extent of the sunlight. Eyes clenched shut, she inhaled, and a wave of energy, warmth, and empowerment passed through her body. Her eyes opened to expose a light greater than that which the fluorescent classroom bulbs provided, greater still than the sun she stood basking in. Now she understood, now she knew, and she was radiant.

This is the light of knowledge.

portraits of our past

when the light shines upon my head, shadows cascade around me, deep and vast.

these shadows then halt for a moment, scatter and drop to consume the ground,
a splendid covering's created, the fashion of the land.

and think of the intrigue as they dance about my feet
and sing with my mouth
-into my mouth-
playing games on my hands and drawing pictures along my eyes
-into my eyes-

and then,...
they speak:

though they speak not one word, memories intense waft from these shadows.

memories: portraits
portraits of our past I'd say

George Stratis
Striving for excellence makes one recognize that there must be some inner light to guide one's path. Each athlete who strives for greatness must attempt to capture its resonance. Once summoned, it will guide with a strong and secure assurance while ignoring all restrictions. This inner light faithfully guarantees that with preparation, endurance and perseverance, one can successfully reach any destination. At this point, I can say, "I've finally seen the light."

Haile Atkins Jones
The Concealed Melody

The tiny crystal clanged to the window
Waiting anxiously for the show to begin.
The walls of the room
Froze as the clouds slowly dispersed...
Shimmering,
Glowing,
Bursting.

The rays pierced through the window
And entered the tiny crystal
Sending a cascade of radiant rainbows
Dancing gaily about the room.
Each smile emitted,
Painted a picture of perfection
On the once dull wall.
Till the entire room
Was a collage of color and brilliance.
As the light grew stronger
The glowing piece projected out
Even more glorious gifts to grasp.
Praise the light,
Praise the shining stone,
Praise the welcoming walls
For such harmonious unity.
Since the light shall shine eternally
May all walls forever listen
To the crystals' lovely songs.

Kate Lamond
Plans were made, plans went awry. It seems as though nothing can be done correctly, nor will anyone be pleased. Through all the darkness of confusion, the heavy burden of hard work seems to smother the soul, but with persistence the goal can be reached. With preparation a brightness will be found in the harsh world of reality. The whirlwind of lights will come to focus on one point, and all will be seen clearly.

Those having lamps will pass them on to others.

-Plato-
Dear Students,

The symbol of light has been an integral part of the culture of peoples since the beginning of civilization. The sun's light has always been a symbol of the promise of sustenance and warmth. The light of day holds out the possibility that things can ever begin anew. Because of light, we are able to see the history of the world around us. From the miracles of nature to the loving acts of others who bring light to those in need.

I decided to use a type of "light," for it has the power to dispel the darkness of ignorance, violence, prejudice and hatred. For these and many other reasons, I was delighted to hear that "light" would be a theme running through this yearbook.

Since becoming West's principal just about one year ago, I have been touched and motivated by the countless ways in which our students have been a light for our school community. Your willingness to learn and grow, the seemingly endless energy with which you proceed, the greetings and smiles which indicate the high value which you place on friendship, and your determination to succeed in spite of periodic failures - these are all ways in which you lighten the hallways, corridors, athletic fields and the stage at Cherry Hill West. May the memories depicted within this yearbook be a source of lasting joy for each of you.

Sincerely,

Nick J. Lorenzetti

The true division of humanity is between those who live in the light and those who live in darkness. Our aim must be to diminish the number of the latter and increase the number of the former. That is why we demand education and knowledge.

Music is the moonlight in the gloomy night of life.

-Jean Paul Richter-
In early October in the middle of the Presidential campaign, Tipper Gore, wife of Vice President Al Gore, visited West. During the time she spent here, she sampled our cafeteria’s cuisine and, more importantly, discussed educational issues with student leaders from West and East. Her vocal support for continued federal funding for education and for loans for college students came as a welcome relief in this time of budget cutbacks and fiscal tightening. For the brief time Mrs. Gore was here, West was the focus of media attention as well as being a host to Cherry Hill Mayor Susan Bass Levin and East Principal James Gallagher.

Homecoming Court
We anticipated Thanksgiving for weeks, and when it started with the traditional Wednesday afternoon pep rally, we weren't disappointed. The band and the cheerleaders led the way, and the afternoon climaxed with the naming of Katie Lamond as Homecoming Queen. On Thanksgiving Day, before we enjoyed our families and feasts, we gathered at the Morris Stadium and cheered for our Lions in the annual battle against East. It seemed like the coldest day of the year, and we huddled in the bleachers and urged on the team. Half time ceremonies featured floats from each class and, of course, the Homecoming Queen and her court. As always, the Thanksgiving game gave us the chance to see West alumni and hear their college tales. We felt so school and holiday spirited that when we got home, we asked, "What was that score?"
GAME 1996

Common Threads

For every difference that makes us unique, there is a common thread which connects us all. We share the need for a home and community, for love and respect. May these common threads from a beautiful world in which all people and all cultures are honored.
To celebrate our oneness and diversity, West held its first International Day on November 6. The theme and slogan for the day was ONE FROM MANY. Throughout the day and into the evening, students, staff, and community were involved in multicultural activities. During the school day, faculty and guest presenters conducted a variety of activities in the visual and performing arts, literature, and history of many of the groups that make our school so special. Besides the programs for our eyes and ears, our appetites were taken care of, too. The halls were filled with the aromas of delicious foods such as panzarottis, eggrolls, and Indian chat, and the foods definitely found their way to many students and teachers. After a very full day, the school reopened its doors in the evening, continuing ONE FROM MANY when there was even more food and educating entertainment. From classrooms to both gymnasiums to the auditorium to the cafeteria, everyone at West appreciated our diversity.
One path leads to immortal glory on the West stage, one path that lifts all who walk it to the highest echelon of West's respect. On Friday, November 9th, 1996, senior Dave Zalcman, West's 'Mr. Drumstick', became the latest to walk that long and proud road, drumming all manner of household performance/comedy skit that won the esteem of the judges. Dave finished above a pool that included such diverse acts as a capella singing, disco dancing, guitar playing, the Macarena, household items in a musical bongo madness, and a moving adaptation of the speech from the movie Independence Day.
PAVAS Festival
The twenty-fifth annual festival of the Performing and Visual Arts Society was an evening and all-day celebration of creativity. Students and members of the community enjoyed the talents of our best artists in the auditorium and the galleries set up in the library and Walsh gym. The audiences were entertained by dramatic monologues and instrumental and choral performances. Those visiting the galleries saw the products of our artists and artisans in clay, wood, and metal and on paper and canvas. The PAVAS Festival is always a highlight of the year, and the 1996 event continued the tradition.
The 1997 West Talent Show was a dazzling night of spectacular entertainment. The more than twenty acts included the amazing magic of freshman Alex Zidow, the hard rock of the thrift shop-garbed Skeastun, and a unique performance of the Village People's greatest hits by the Macho Men. For judging, the acts were evaluated in four categories. The evening concluded with the awarding of first, second, and third place cash prizes. The elegant ballet of Erica Cetrarolo was first for dance. Lauren Clapper was recognized as the best vocalist. The four hand piano performance of Katey Stanislavskaya and Greg DeTurck earned them top variety honors. The final category, the bands, had for its best Gene Pool.
Imagine three hundred singers, all on stage, in purple tee shirts emblazoned with the "BN" logo! Broadway Night has evolved into a major musical production, and last year's program was so grand that it was staged on three nights. The '96 presentation started with "Decades of Musicals," and there were performances of numbers from shows of the Twenties, Thirties, Fifties, and Seventies.
In the second half of the program, our singers performed television themes songs and some very familiar commercial tunes. Besides our talented West singers, Broadway Night also featured future West musicians from Carusi and the second annual performance of "The Ma's and Pa's."
This year the West Singers performed a thirty-minute, college-level piece, the Fauré Requiem, at a church in February.

Lions Baseball, 1996 Edition, was again a winner. Playing a very competitive schedule, West won 11 and lost 8 games, and that record was with a team of predominantly underclassmen. Coaches Trotman and Murray guided the varsity through the regular season and into the state playoffs. Team leadership came from seniors Brian Carroll, Kevin Cook, Jon Fisher, and Dan Incollingo. Junior Rob Martine was the offensive leader, particularly with his power hitting, and as the catcher was recognized as the defensive leader, too. At the end of the season, Rob earned first team All-Olympic Conference honors.
Lady Lions softball was on the move this season. With Coaches Joseph Inverso and David Gurne directing the varsity and Coach Jack Scheidell guiding the junior varsity, both levels of West softball were very competitive. The varsity posted a 7 win and 11 loss season. Seniors Jen Powell, Nancy Dignego, Marcy Johnson and Suzanne Gobi provided the leadership for the varsity team which had many underclass members. The offensive leaders were junior Kate McGill and sophomore Robin Schmidt, and sophomore pitcher Jamie Elias earned First Team All-Olympic Conference honors. In 1997, the softball team will undoubtedly be on the move again.
The varsity lacrosse team ended its 1996 season with a 3-12 record. While this was disappointing, the varsity had many junior and sophomore lions who expect to be roaring in 1997. The team was led by captains Melanie Rose and Katherine Erhard. Stacie Eddleman was the top scorer leading the Lady Lions with 35 goals. Jay Alexander was the second highest scorer with 22 goals. At the season's end, Katherine Erhard and Danielle Socci were named to the Lacrosse Club of South Jersey's Senior All-Star Team.
Dr. Walter Brown's fine coaching made our Lions a tough match for every opponent. The tennis team's record was 2 wins and 5 losses, but this does not reflect how competitive the boys team was. A better indication of our athletes' abilities was the all-conference honors several players received. Armand Bigornia, Michael Furman and Chad Downing were named to the Olympic Conference Singles First Team. Christopher Zeitz, Eric Brahin, Kenneth Nicely and Thomas Nicely were chosen for the Olympic Conference Doubles First Team.

1. 1996 BOYS TENNIS TEAM: Dr. Walter Brown, Anthony Khan, Vaisnaw Phooung, Hitesh Prachal, Chad Downing, Chris Zeitz, Eric Brahin, Armand Bigornia, William Rosenweig, Thomas Nicely, Kenneth Nicely, Michael Porter, Maron Man. 2. 1. With excellent form, Lisa Maruccia easily clears a hurdle.
2. Hurdler Kylie Cowings closes the gap on her opponent.
3. A soaring Melissa Monzo shows how to do a long jump.
4. Marianne Fontanilla has a look of determination.
5. In mid-flight, Nena Moore has perfect form.
6. After hurling the shotput, Tracy Putella assesses her success.
7. West takes a commanding lead in 3200 meter race.
8. Sarah Chastain stretches before a big meet.

Sports
In 1996 our Lady Lions track team was a group with a reputation for competitiveness. With coaching from Mr. Britton, Mr. Fisher, and Ms. Porella, individual performances and team results showed steady improvements. The increased number of athletes on the team pleased the coaches, and they were particularly proud of the all-star status of three members of the team. Sarah Chattin earned All-Olympic honors in the 200 meter run. For her talents as a long jumper, Keisha Hicklyn was named to the All-Olympic and All Group 4 teams. Finally, Nena Moore, West’s best long jump athlete, was on the All-Olympic and All-Group 4 teams and was on the All-State team through her participation in the New Jersey Meet of Champions.
Coached by Nick Mitidieri and Joe O'Donnell, the boys track team ended its 1996 season with 2-5 record. Seniors Casey Coleman, Karl Erhard, and Kevin Hilyard, who were offered scholarships for their outstanding performances, led the team to victories over Triton and crosstown rival East. Despite the losses, the team came close to defeating highly-ranked teams such as #8 Overbrook and #1 Highland. For the 1997 season, the coaches are anticipating the performances from the returning team members and new athletes.

1. Dan Kuznierski smashes a point through two defenders. 2. Coach Scott Sweeten talks strategy during a time out, and Ray Mendoza checks the coach's points for accuracy. 3. During the warm-up, Steve Szarek returns the ball to a teammate. 4. 1996 BOYS JUNIOR VARSITY VOLLEYBALL TEAM: FRONT ROW: Matthew Man, Dan Kuznierski, Tom Bahnack, Paul Tenorio, Weber Huang. SECOND ROW: Philip Lee, Sean Armour, Coach Price. 5. 1996 VARSITY VOLLEYBALL TEAM: FRONT ROW: Steve Szarek, Kevin Jones, Alberto Pineda, Mark Cruz, Coach Sweeten. SECOND ROW: Ray Mendoza, Mike Parisi, Jared Levy, Johnny Chung, Alan Lu, Jason Portnoy, Brian Lo, John D'Amelio. 6. Alan Lu's perfect form insures perfect control of the ball. 7. The steady performance of senior Mike Parisi was one of the reasons for the Lions' outstanding record. 8. Intensity is clearly a characteristic of Mark Cruz's play.
1996 was a year of unexpected hurdles and triumphs. The Lions began the season with greater team depth than in 1995, and the future seemed bright. Unfortunately, Ray Mendoza suffered a broken wrist and John D'Amelio a broken finger, leaving West with an uncertain future. The team picked up the pieces, overcame the disappointments, and completed an 18-2 season, the best to date. The team enjoyed a tournament upset over seventh-ranked Bayonne but lost a close quarterfinal match to the 1995 state champions, Fairlawn. The Lions were led by senior co-captains Brian Lo and Alan Lu, and both athletes earned first team All-Olympic Conference honors.
1. Matt Maggio "drives for show." 2. But Dave Maurer "puts for dough." 3. Jeff Evans sends one down the fairway. 4. 1996 GOLF TEAM: Mark Septer, Dave Maurer, Mark Barone, Greg Barone, Matt Maggio, Jeff Evans, Mr. Ted Page. 5. Mark Barone follows the ball's flight down the fairway. 6. After studying the green, Greg Barone will attempt a putt for par. 7. Mark Septer's drive was good 200 yards.
What better way is there to spend spring afternoons than on a golf course? The West golf team would tell us convincingly that there is none. Future Tiger Woods, actually "Lion" Woods, were coached by the knowledgeable and patient Mr. Ted Page. Team leadership came from seniors Mark Barone and Dave Maurer. West had a satisfying 10 win and 10 loss record.

Our field hockey team, under the veteran guidance of Miss Barbara Thompson, was state-playoff caliber this season. The Lady Lions played through a tough 17-game schedule and earned a 7-7-3 record. The season ended with a loss to the highly-ranked team from Southern Regional, but the team can take personal pride in getting the best of East, winning one and tying one game. The JV was very impressive with its 7-3-6 season. The varsity was led by captains Cheryl Rispoli and Lindsey Widerman, and All-Group 4 honor winners Nancy Copenhaver, Sarah Dunworth, and Jessica Vernon.
While there is the cliché about the loneliness of the long distance runner, that wouldn’t apply to our cross-country teams. The athletes who participated this fall enjoyed comradeship and spirit, and these feelings carried them to outstanding runs in their interscholastic seasons. Joe O’Donnell and Nick Mitidieri coached the girls and boys teams. Their tutelage enabled all the runners to improve their times for their five-kilometer runs, and it brought out the best in All-Olympic Conference runners Kim Wolozen, Nadav Hillebrand, and Nick Strasser.
Lions football took a big step forward this season. We went from being winless in 1995 to having three victories this year, and two other games, including an overtime loss to ranked Camden, were so close we could almost feel the wins. Team leadership came from our solid corps of seniors like Trey Bass, Adam Schmidt, Steve Lee, John Bianchi, and Lance Peck. Lance and John had such fine seasons that they received All-Olympic Conference First Team honors.

FIFTH ROW: Frank Carbone, Brian Wosnitzer, Khalil Blakey, Spencer Adamson, Troy Bass, Chris Ettlow, Jaron Starks, Adam Schmidt. 2. Adam Schmidt is tired but feels good after a Lions victory. 3. Dragging two East tacklers behind him, Lance Peck goes for every yard he can. 4. Defensive standout Steve Lee fights through the line. 5. Despite intense defensive pressure, quarterback Adam Schmidt passes the ball downfield. 6. Tyrone Tucker has a long gain. 7. The Thanksgiving game action was exciting. 8. Captains Troy Bass, Chris DelGozzo, Shawn Munoz, Tim Banta, and Adam Schmidt show the team spirit that marked this year's Lions.
1. We present the great pyramids of Cherry Hill West. 2. The crowd can't resist the smiles of Nicole Erhard, Haley Neeman, Maureen Solomon, and Shannon Reilly. 3. 1997 VARSITY CHEERLEADING: FRONT ROW: Nicole Erhard, Christina Hellstrom, Christine Peluso, Caitlin Sablich, Stacey McBridge, Kate Galiszewski. SECOND ROW: Rachel Poyatt, Maureen Solomon, Jasmin Fontanilla, Christine Meba, Jeanine Orenburg, Noelle Nier. THIRD ROW: Assistant Coach Kim Foley, Alyssa McDavitt, Natalie Musceli, Elizabeth Newsome, Tressa Moffett, Coach Angela Sablich.

4. Christine Peluso cheers the basketball team to yet another victory. 5. Nicole Erhard revs up the crowd. 6. Our cheerleaders show their perfect form. 7. The best way to get warm on a cold fall afternoon is to stick together.

8. Maureen Solomon, Natalie Musceli, Rachel Poyatt, and Shannon Reilly are emphatic.
The fall and winter sports scenes were enthusiastic and spirited thanks to the efforts of our cheerleaders. Our pep rallies and football and basketball games had sights and sounds to enjoy because of our talented young women.
Our boys and girls gymnastics programs continued to build. From looking at the teams' records, the girls are in a formative stage but the boys have clearly arrived. Our female athletes went through a long, tough 14-meet season and had 2 wins. The boys, however, were ranked fourth in the state and had a 4-win-3-loss dual-meet record. Four individuals distinguished themselves this season. Christie Strawn qualified for the Sectional Championships in the floor, vault, and beam. Dan Cestare, Jon Jennings, and Ben Strawn qualified for the State Championship Meet in the All Around. Ben excelled even further when, for the second year in a row, he earned the title of South Jersey Gymnast of the Year.
1. As if they are a mirror image, our gymnasts have fascinating form. 2. Ben Strawn shows his strength as he defies gravity. 3. Dan Cestare keeps the rings perfectly still. 4. On the uneven bars, Lisa Maroccia demonstrates her fine ability. 5. Mary Melchiorre vaults her way to more points for the Lions. 6. Christie Strausw keeps perfect balance. 7. The pointed toes and arched back-excellent form-belong to Christie Strausw. 8. 1996 GYMNASTIC TEAM: FRONT ROW: Mary Melchiorre, Jessica Shollenberger, Jon Jennings, Sheryl Rights, Christie Strausw. SECOND ROW: Ben Strawn, Lindsey Brooks, Chelsea Buffington, Lisa Maroccia, Dan Cestare, Justin Farkas, Greg DeTurck. Have our Lady Lions invented a new push-up?
The Lions continued to be a South Jersey power in soccer. Varsity Coach William Sleeth guided the team to another Olympic Conference National Division championship title. That achievement meant post season play in the South Jersey Coaches Invitational and Group 4 Tournaments. Teamwork was a hallmark of this year's squad, but there were several individuals who were recognized for excellence. Midfielder Tom Mullowney was named to the First Team All-South Jersey Team, and Haile Jones was honored as Second Team All-South Jersey. Rich Burmeff, Devin Kelly, Jeff Sexton, Quinn Tamm, and Brandon Womack received All-Group 4 Honorable Mention recognition.

C.H. West wins big on

Cherry Hill West's Brandon Womack kicks the ball for the first goal of the game late in the first half of the Lions' 2-1 victory over Lenape on Tuesday in an Olympic Conference contest. The game featured two of the top five boys' soccer teams in the Courier-Post Top 25 poll. Fifth-ranked Cherry Hill West edged second-ranked Lenape on goals by Womack and Haile Jones. Pat Ashton blocked Lenape's lone goal.

Sports
Boys Soccer

The Lady Lions toiled through their schedule, and their efforts never ceased. The 2-13-1 season did not reflect the skills and spirit that were instilled in our soccer team by Mr. Donald Murray, varsity coach. A strong group of seniors, Michelle Beard, Jamie Feingold, Sara Hyatt, Sarah MacKenzie, Stephanie Mestichelli, Melissa Montalvo, Tracey Patella, and Monica Pauro, led the varsity. When the season ended, Michelle Beard and Tracey Patella earned All-Group 4 Honorable Mention certificates, attesting to the proficiency that was found among our team.
Girls Soccer

1. Monica Pauro, Michelle Beard, and Jamie Feingold contain the opposition. 2. Holding the ball with all her might, Kelly Czajka defends West's goal. 3. Tracey Patella shows her concentration and power. 4. Morgan Lang and Leslie Vega race to victory. 5. The opponent always has a struggle when Melissa Montalvo is there. 6. 1996 GIRLS VARSITY SOCCER TEAM: FRONT ROW: Monica Pauro, Morgan Lang, Jamie Feingold, Kelly Czajka, Amber Donker. SECOND ROW: Robert Schmidt, Leslie Vega. THIRD ROW: Coach Don Murray, Melissa Montalvo, Tracey Patella, Michelle Beard, Sarah MacKenzie, Setel Cercioglu, Stephanie Mestichelli, Sara Hyatt, Jana Cram, Assistant Coach Ron Sobacki. 7. Sara Hyatt looks for the pass and the chance to score. 8. Leslie Vega cuts off her opponent. 9. The breakaway teamwork of Tracey Patella and Jamie Feingold leave the opposition behind. 10. 1996 GIRLS JUNIOR VARSITY SOCCER TEAM: FRONT ROW: Courtney Hall, Kelly Sullivan, Jaclyn Heller, Ilana Baron. SECOND ROW: Helen Romanos, Gissou Azarnia, Bonnie McClure, Patricia Pryyn. THIRD ROW: Coach Jack Scheidell, Tara Kahn, Christine Chaitin, Yaminie Qureshi, Cassandra Montalvo, Coach Rob Closter.
The girls tennis season began with a roster that had not a single senior. Despite this inexperience, the season ended with a winning record of 12 victories and 10 losses. This strong showing in the very tough Olympic Conference was a credit to the fine coaching of Dr. Walter Brown. The standouts included our number one singles player Elena Zbarsky, who was only a sophomore, and number two singles Reena DeSai. The rest of the varsity ladder was Angeli DeSai, Allegra Fasnacht, Joanna Horenstein, Kelly Bulsack, Kate Rodenbeck, and Jessica Marcus.
Girls TENNIS
For the second consecutive year, our Lady Lions volleyball team was ranked first in South Jersey. With the excellent coaching of Ms. Dee Scrugg and Mr. Mark Pinzur, the varsity, which had a good mix of seniors and juniors, was undefeated in its league schedule. The team was seeded first in the state playoffs but sadly suffered an upset loss in the quarterfinal round. At the end of the season, two of our athletes earned high honors for their play. Olga Moroz was named to the All-South Jersey first team, and Dawn Pettek received the highest citation when she was named the South Jersey Player of the Year.
1. Point guard Mark Bush dribbles and looks for the open man.
2. Adam Schmidt mixes it up under the board. 3. Waiting for a teammate's foul shot, Brandon Womack has a brief moment to rest.
Basketball in the Jones Gym was always exciting this year. Our Lions were competitive with the best in South Jersey, and the team's record, 14-11 overall and 6-4 in the Patriot Division of the Olympic Conference, proved it. Our veteran coach Don Murray guided the varsity to qualifying for the state playoffs, but unfortunately the season ended with a loss to Highland. Team leadership came from senior co-captains Brandon Womack and Mark Bush. Other standouts were junior Quinn Tamm and sophomore Jeff Mitchell.
1. 1997 GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM:
FRONT ROW: Margaret Ami Kavanagh, Helen Romanos, Jessica Vernon, Michelle Beard, Stephanie Mestichelli, Joy Alexander, Morgan Lang, Carolyn Pelino, Jen Kiewell. SECOND ROW: Coach Joe O'Donnell, Laura Vogel, Joy Alexander, Jamie Elias, Jessie Keskes, Lauren Palieri, Sanya Willis, Ellen Rosenberg, Sarah MacKenzie, Katie Rodenbeck, Coach David Gurist.  2. Margaret Ami Kavanagh puts the ball up, and both teams go for a possible rebound.  3. Coach Joe O'Donnell makes some adjustments during a time out.  4. Morgan Lang concentrates on her next move.  5. Stephanie Mestichelli is our playmaker.  6. At the perfect moment, Alicia Reyes turns the ball from her Fenton opponent.  7. 1996 GIRLS JUNIOR VARSITY TEAM:
The Lady Lions began their season roaring but suffered injuries to key players and had some difficulty fighting through their tough Olympic Conference schedule. Their regular season was 9 wins and 16 losses. This qualified them for the state playoffs, but they lost in the first round to Vineland. Team leadership came from senior captains Michelle Beard, Stephanie Mestichelli, and Laura Vogel. The varsity's offensive and defensive standout was sophomore Syvia Willis, who was recognized as an All-Olympic Conference player.
1. Joseph Halloran  2. Veronica Banks
West was represented well in the South Jersey Bowling League this year. Our boys team was ranked thirty-third in the region, and our girls placed seventh in all South Jersey. Veteran coach Mrs. Carol Lapp brought out the best in both teams. The standout boy bowler was Rich Zagame who was placed on the All-Olympic Conference Team. The girls had two bowlers receive high recognition. Allison Reynolds had high series of 549, one of the top in the league. Tedra Cardosa was third in the South Jersey with a high game of 223 and fourth with a high series of 572.
1. 1997 GIRLS SWIM TEAM: FRONT ROW: Cindy Patella, Jaime Baskinger, Jaime Giblin, Katie James, Lisa Johnston, Katie Kopil, Jessie Crick, Christy Swann, Michelle Ems, Tracy Patella, Lauren Mercincavage, Kelly Rubak, Coach Sue Ryback, Marianna Zilberman. SECOND ROW: Amy Gorman, Dana March, Lauren Mozer, Cassandra Montalbo, Susan Tilly, Kim Suki, Jessica Yurch, Lauren Migliaccio, Coach Carolyn Poreta, Kelly Czajka. THIRD ROW: Jackie McKinstry, Karen Beams, Melissa Ems, Karyn Singer, Laura Barone, Pam Koffler, Dana Schaffner, Amanda Martinez. FOURTH ROW: Jen Mitchell, Krissy Lamond, Allison May, Connor Briglia, Corbett Shinn, Jody Kagan, Lisa Kates. 2. Jessie Crick has an excellent pike dive. 3. The perfectly arched back is of Allison May. 4. Senior Kevin Jones takes it to the wall. 5. Laura Barone is up and extending for another fine breaststroke race. 6. The intensity is obvious on Greg Barone's face. 7. Mike Mercincavage sees the wall and more points for the Lions. 8. 1996 BOYS TEAM: FRONT ROW: Jessie Martinez, Kim Dappolone, Jen Dappolone. SECOND ROW: Jason Rosner, Daisuke Funuyoshi, Tom Dean, Brian Dappolone, Tom Ward, Phil Jacques, Greg Barone, Kevin Decker, Coach Carolyn Poreta, Coach Herb Fisher. THIRD ROW: Dan Kietz, Tony Lamond, Mike Rolsh, Josh Melton, Dylan Glecker, Tom Campbell, Colin Candy, Brad Flynn, Seth Cohen. FOURTH ROW: Kevin Jones, Adam McFetridge, Sean McFetridge, Matt Russell, Steve Starek, Aaron Seliger, Dave Lind, Mike Mercincavage, Kevin Hassall, Greg Helter, Andrew Weinberg. 9. Cindy Patella is a powerful butterflyer. 10. In the heat of the competition, Coach Herb Fisher is a steady force. 11. Lauren Mercincavage is a solid backstroker. 12. Aaron Seliger, one of the Lions' captains, demonstrates his strength.
This year's girls and boys swim teams were powerful squads who took care of most of the competition in South Jersey. Our teams had 10-3 and 11-3 records, respectively, and those records indicate the depth the boys and girls had. The teams were led by captains Karyn Singer, Melissa Era, Jen Hensell, Steve Szurek, and Aaron Seliger. The season was marked by outstanding individual and relay performances. In January Janelle Ritchie set a national public school record in the 100 yard backstroke. In March at the New Jersey Championship Meet held at Rutgers University, Christian Cantwell won the gold medal in the butterfly, and the relay team of Janelle Ritchie, Kate Patrizzi, Katie Kopil, and Jen Mitchell won the gold medal for the 200 yard medley relay. At the end of the season, the following swimmers earned All-Olympic Conference honors: Jen Hensell, Katie Kopil, Jen Mitchell, Kate Patrizzi, Gregg Barone, Christian Cantwell, Kevin Jones, Mike Mercincavage, Aaron Seliger, and Steve Szurek.
1. Jeff Sexton controls his opponent, gaining riding time. 2. 1997 VARSITY WRESTLING TEAM:
   FRONT ROW: Scott Reddy, Jeremy Hollins, Matt Alemi, Brad Giletto, Danny DiGirolamo. SECOND ROW:
   Mike Young, Anthony DePaul, Paul Bradly, Mike Lewis, Jeff Sexton, Shawn Munoz. THIRD ROW:
   3. Matt Alemi is in total control and looks for a pinning move. 4. The East wrestler is straining hard, but Dan DiGirolamo has him for a pin. 5. Our coaches, Greg and Jeff Coolahan, discuss strategy. 6. Mike Young makes his move for the takedown. 7. Working his opponent, Luke Semar makes the East wrestler feel his weight and power.
The wrestling team had its best season since 1990. Our grapplers had a dual meet season which earned them third place in the Olympic Conference. Through the dedicated coaching of Greg and Jeff Coolahan and Don Kohlhaas, the team could hold its own against anyone. The coaches' guidance brought several individuals to noteworthy achievements. Our 103-pound wrestler Dan DiGirolamo took a second place in the Region 7 Championship. Four wrestlers, Matt Alemi, Paul Reddy, Brian Gismonde, and Kevin Cammarote, earned second place honors in the district tournament.

From time to time there appear on the face of the earth men of rare and consummate excellence, who dazzle us... and whose outstanding qualities shed a stupendous light.

As pizza was delivered, as twizzlers and all other fattening foods were devoured, poor staff members struggled to create Rampant. More and more pictures were found, more layouts came out, more proofs were returned. The yearbook took shape and, believe it or not, we finished it by the DEADLINE.

Whether it’s traveling to local elementary schools to delight children of all ages, building set and breaking legs (hypothetically, of course!) for “Bye Bye Birdie”, or engaging in a little friendly class warfare during the One-Act Festival, Theatre Workshop is always busy. Membership in this diverse group ranges from actors, singers, and dancers to technicians, construction types, and publicity hounds, but at heart all the members have one love: opening night, work lights, crowded backstage halls and curtain calls. The play’s the thing Shakespeare used to catch the conscience of his King, and these lions rule the spotlight at the center of this ring!
The 1996 One Acts were swept away by the seniors. Their performance of "A Danish Soap," captured the hearts and laughter of both the audience and the judges. The overall play was not the only winner in this year’s one acts. Since there are many components of a good play, there were ten other categories in which students received recognition. These winners should be recognised for all their hard work and dedication to theatre.

1. Chad Lazer, Jeanine Motta, and Beth Hart discuss Hamlet's mental stability. 2. Aviva Kapust pities Josh Hinden’s character Claudius. 3. Luis Carasquillo, as Hamlet, threatens to kill Claudius. 4. Jeannine Fanelli and Derek Mote capture the cast and audience’s attention with a bad soap opera. 5. Sarah Henderson and Martha Fasichl talk with Hamlet, all the while doubting his sanity. 6. Jeanine Motta perfectly executes her role as Ophelia.

Theatre
The Children’s Show took the old fairy tale “The Emperor’s New Clothes” and turned it into a full cast, all-out comedy that left the children laughing at every turn. From the evil tailors Snip & Tuck to the arrogant Emperor Velvet to the silly Sir Yesir and Lady Yesmum to the menacing Shroud, the entire show was a success from start to finish.

Spring Musical
1. Albert Peterson (Nick Houhoulis) and Rosie Alvarez (Kim Amato) look into the future and see happiness as Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peterson.
2. Albert cheers up the unhappy bobby-soxers with his song and dance.
3. Doris MacAfee (Dyan Zbykowski) gives her daughter a loving hug as Kim (Alison Gaul) dreams of Conrad Birdie's impending kiss.
4. Rosie tells a discouraged Albert of her plan for saving his reputation and sending Conrad off in style.
5. The final curtain call signals the end of another successful and memorable performance.
6. "What's the story, Morning Glory? What's the word, Hummingbird?"
1. Kim reassures Hugo Peabody (Tom Bahnck) that he is her “one special boy.”
2. Even the mayor’s wife (Melissa Monzo) gets a little faint when Conrad (Spencer Adamson) croons.
3. Randolph MacAfee (Alex Zidow) holds his father back as Harry MacAfee (Trey Bass) edges towards a nervous breakdown.

It’s been a long time since anyone wondered if rock and roll were here to stay, but if there were still a need for convincing, this year’s musical, Bye Bye Birdie, did the trick. A spoof on the Elvis hysteria that swept America in the ‘50s and ‘60s, Birdie centered around Elvis look-alike Conrad Birdie, who was drafted into the Army. As part of a hoax,
4. Mae Peterson (Tracy Miller) delivers one of her classic guilt trips to her "Sonny Boy." 5. Conrad plays it cool but Kim McAfee and Ursula Merkle (Allegra Cohen) can’t help looking starstruck in the singer’s presence.
6. "The Telephone Hour" is the cast’s biggest production number. 7. The Shriner’s Ballet gets a little risqué.

Conrad was going to have a big send off by kissing one of his fans on television. When that lucky girl, Kim McAfee, and her family and boyfriend learned about their coming brush with fame, mayhem came to them and quiet Sweet Apple, Ohio. The excitement managed to bring a little livin’, a little lovin’, and a lot of rock ‘n roll to everyone.
Seniors
There are those who do not imitate,
Who cannot imitate
But then there are those who emulate
At times, to expand further the light
Of an original glow.
Knowing that to imitate the living
Is mockery
And to imitate the dead
Is robbery.
There are those
Who are beings complete unto themselves
Whole, undaunted. - a source
As leaves of grass, as stars.
As mountains, alike, alike, alike.
Yet unlike.
Each is complete and contained
And as each unlike star shines
Each ray of light is forever gone
To leave way for a new ray, as from a fountain
Complete unto itself, full, flowing.
So are some souls like stars and their words, works, and songs
Like strong, quick flashes of light
From a brilliant, erupting cone.
So where are your mountains
To match some men?

-Johnny Cash-

Where there is a great deal of light the shadows are deeper.

Goethe
Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for eyes to behold the sun.

Ecclesiastes 11:7
My candle burns at both ends.
It will not last the night.
But, ah, my foes, and, oh, my friends,
It gives a lovely light.

Edna St. Vincent Millay
As far as we can discern, the sole purpose of human existence is to kindle a light in the darkness of mere being.

— Carl Gustav Jung
Better to light one candle than to curse the darkness

an old Chinese proverb
How far the little candle throws his beam
So shines a good deed in a naughty world.

William Shakespeare
Do you know that your bodies are made of some of the same substance that are found in the sun and other stars? You are a sample of the great universe.

So don’t let little things trouble you but think and act as if you were a part of a bigger world than the little earth.

Some walk the paths of the night, trusting the moon to guide them, while others choose the road of day, and let the sun lead them to their destiny. But there are a chosen few who walk this world carrying their own light to brighten both day and night.

While most of us were vacationing, some students gained knowledge and had experiences that were very special. Boys' State, Girls' State, Governor's School, and Rotary Youth Leadership were selective programs for students from throughout New Jersey. Each program was held at a college campus in the state, and dormitory life, while not the focus of these institutes, was a special part. Boys' State and Girls' State involved the participants in simulations of local, county, and state governments. Activities also included...
Trips to sites of government and visits by dignitaries including Governor Christine Todd Whitman. Rotary Youth's goal was leadership skills but also included activities on government at all levels. Governor's School was very specialized. This year's participants attended the School of the Performing Arts and the School for Public Issues. We are certain that all our summer scholars contributed to their programs and continued West's fine reputation throughout the state.

The Class of 1997 honored ten of its members with the highest acclaim, induction into the Hall of Fame, at the assembly held in March. The selection process began with nominations open to all seniors. A list of almost 100 students was produced, and then seniors and faculty chose from the nominees. The number of votes garnered was not the sole criterion, for after the voting was completed, students' academic achievements and their involvement in school activities were added to the results of the balloting. The senior class proudly presents its Hall of Fame.

SENIOR TRIP:

DISNEY WORLD
In memory of...

Chad Hopkins
1979-1996

The river has stopped flowing.
The oceans cry their tears.
The sunset boldly shining
Illuminates our fears.
A trembling leaf will quiver
But not fall from the tree.
A glowing rainbow bravely stands
Through all eternity.
Farewell to this friend
Who has surely played his part.
The river will keep flowing
If only through our hearts.

--Sylvia Frankel
The light of memory, or rather the light that memory lends to things, is the palest light of all...
I am not quite sure whether I am dreaming or remembering, whether I have lived my life or dreamed it.

Laura Beth Ulrich

Over the years we've watched you grow in so many ways... your strength and determination, your beauty and talent, your intelligence and wit... We're so proud of the many accomplishments you've achieved and enjoy knowing and loving the beautiful young woman you've become.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Stephen, and Christopher

Stacy Lyn Gervon

What we knew you now know. It's all there for the taking, all that is needed is a strong desire and the fortitude to continue to grow. It's not easy to do this, but you have it! Do dance on and gain all the rewards you deserve.

All our love,
All our lives,
Mom, Dad, David, Jen, Mom-mom & Pop-pop

Kelly Woodcock

To our little "Twiddlebug," Congratulations Kelly! Wishing you the best of everything...always.

All our love,
Mom, Dad, and "Bub" '97
Aaron and Laura Vogel

To Laura and Aaron,

My how these 18 years have flown by!
And with so many really great and fun memories too!
Now you're ready to take the next step in your life-
Just don't forget that wherever life takes you,
I'll always be there for you.

Love,
Mom
Alyson Gaul

Thanks for making our life more exciting than an 'Indiana Jones' movie, and more out of this world than 'Star Wars'!
You're the greatest!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Monica Pauro

Monica,
As you move forward into a new phase of your life, please remember to... be true to yourself and be happy.

We love you and are very proud of you.

Love always,
Dad, Mom, and Phil

Stephanie Dawn Augustine

Dear Stephanie,
We stand in awe of the wonderful person that you have become.
When you first came into our lives, we were just so happy to be blessed with a healthy and happy baby. In a short time we began to dream of the type of person that we wanted you to be. You have fulfilled all of our dreams for you and we are so proud of who you are. As we watch you prepare for college, we know that this is the first step for you to fulfill your own dreams. We are sure of your future success and want you to know that we all truly believe in you. Congratulations on all of your accomplishments in school, BBYO, and your personal growth. We know that you can do anything you desire.
With love and devotion we will always be here for you.
Love, Mom, Dad, Amy, Grandmom, and Gizmo
Tommy,
May the Good Lord be with you down every road you roam. May the sunshine and happiness surround you when you’re far from home. No matter what road you choose I’m right behind you win or lose, because you’ll always be forever young.

You make us very proud. We love you very much. Congratulations!

Love,
Mom, Dad,
and Vincent

Veronica Banks
Your smiles give us happiness,
Your achievements give us pride,
your future gives us hope.

For all that you have achieved and will still achieve in the future -

Congratulations!

We love you very much,
Grandmom and Grandpop
Kelly Gauntt

Kelly,

We loved you then and we love you now. We wish you happiness and success. You have made us proud.

Mom, Dad, Jenefer, and Nicole
Lauren Beck

Congratulations Lauren!
We are so proud of how far you have come and truly believe in how far you can go!

We love you,
Dad, Mom, and Tommy

Laura Charney

Laura,
Congratulations!
We love you
and we are so very proud of you.

Love,
Mom, and Becca

Corinne Cotter

Another graduation down,
one more to go.
We love you!

Grandmom, Bepop,
Mom, Frank, and Mario

Jamie Feingold

You have always been the sunshine of our lives.
We can't believe how fast the time has gone and you are ready now to pass through the gate that leads you to all your professional endeavors.
Congratulations and we love you!

Love,
Mom, Rich, and Brandi
Michelle Beard

There was always something special about you. The average and ordinary were never enough. You have to climb a little further and reach a little higher. You're really a great girl. Good Luck in the future!

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Marc, and Eric

Aaron Frank Seliger

Aaron,
You've gone from the water baby in the basin to swimming yards and yards, from the cardboard crown and sword to Mr. Superjuice and Mr. Macarena. Wherever you go from here, we are always with you.

We Love You,
Mom and Dad

Aaron,
Side by side by side forever!
We love you.
Sarah and Lisa
Karen Kaigler

Congratulations Karen,
We are really proud of you,
Good Luck!

With love,

Mom, Dad,
Mickey, and Spike
Judy Wong

Judy,

I want to take this moment to congratulate you on all your accomplishments throughout your high school career. I am also very proud to know that you plan on taking your first step in life that is, to further your education. Please make the best out of the next four years in college—time is precious. I also hope your future will bring you lots of happiness, love, and success.

Love you always,

Cindy

Bow-bow,

"Work hard in college for good grades. Be successful and have a beautiful future."

Mom

"Good health is the most valuable; Happiness is the treasure."

Dad

Sister,

You're the first friend I had
And the most valued fighting partner
But no matter what occurs
You'd still be my best friend.

I may disagree with you at times
But whatever path you choose
I'll be walking right behind you
Just because you're my best friend.

There's never a time when I don't need you
I appreciate it so dearly
Because you'd always help me under all circumstances
That's just one reason you're my best friend.

Your intelligence, sincerity, and beauty always makes you shine so brightly
It's not something you let anyone see
But it's easy for your little sis to
Just because you're my best friend.

All that I've mentioned
Makes you my big sis
So loved and admired
Not because you're my best friend
But because you're my sister.

Luv ya lots,

Wendy
Alyssabeth Kara Klein

Come out, come out, wherever you are and meet the young lady who fell from a star.

Love,
Mommy, Daddy, Travis, and Russell

Marian Fontanilla

We'll always remember...
1st baby, 1st graduation...
Good Luck and Godspeed!

Mom, Dad,
Jasmine, and Shannon
Karah Kessler

Karah,
From the moment you became Mommy's little girl (life) to the young woman you developed into, there hasn't been a day that I wasn't proud of you. Congratulations and the Best of Luck in life.

Love,
Mom (world)

Sylvia Frankel

There's a whole new world out there for you. "Go get it," for you and Daddy.

Love,
Mommy, Eddie, Bubbie, and Grandpa
Veronica Lynn Banks

To My Precious
Very Lovely Baby,

You have been a joy and delight from the very beginning.
May your life be as bright and beautiful as you.
You have made me very proud, so follow your dreams.
Congratulations!
We wish you a future filled with Happiness, Love, and Success
Today and Always.

Love forever,
Mom, Chris, and "Brittany"
