AN OLD MAN'S THOUGHT OF SCHOOL
Leaves of Change

An old man's thought of school,
An old man gathering youthful memories and blooms
That youth itself cannot.

Now only do I know you,
O fair auroral skies - O morning dew upon the grass!

And these I see, these sparkling eyes,
These stores of mystic meaning, these young lives,
Building, equipping like a fleet of ships, immortal ships,
Soon to sail out over the measureless seas,
On the soul's voyage.

Only a lot of boys and girls?
Only the tiresome spelling, writing, ciphering classes?
Only a public school?
Ah more, infinitely more...

- Leaves of Grass, Walt Whitman 1874.
An old man's thoughts of school
An old man gathering youthful memories and glooms
What youthful visits cannot

Now only do I know your
O fair ordinances - O morning gild on the brass!

And these I see, these sparkling eyes,
These stores of mystic meaning, these young lives,
Shining shining like a fleet of ships immortal ships
Soon to sail out over the measureless seas
On the soul's voyage

Only a lot of books and things
Only the tinsome spelling, grammer, ciphering classes
Only a public school
All more important, more...

Tears of grief make my Whimper

We grow from almost nothing,
And our colors alter with time.
We observe all from above, until we

Our fall was not a failure, but a mere effect of the wind and rain
Or possibly due to changes in the atmosphere.
No one laughed when we fell.
No one even noticed.
And we refused to cry.
“It’s a part of life,” we whispered to no one with fear in our eyes.
Afraid of experiencing life from another angle...
We conceptualize that change is everywhere, therefore acceptance is pertinent.
Sometimes change is so gradual that we hardly recognize its existence.
As we walk along our paths of life and stumble upon directions,
We glance back and watch ourselves, change our minds...
  Change our hearts...
  Change our clothes...
  Change our directions...
Change our positions.
We raise our heads and open our eyes
to a world of opportunity.
Our ignorance melts gradually with our acceptance,
and we begin to appreciate change.
Twisted or tied, empty or full, tangled or torn,
The myriad of possibilities surround us,
and for the first time we do not turn away.
The fear is lost from our eyes,
and all terror dissolves.
"It's a part of life," we say,
with confidence supporting our every breath.

As we welcome the array of changes around us,
we smile at a new experience.

My Dear Students,

That change is an inevitable part of life is obvious to us in such a variety of ways! The birth of a child changes the universe. The death of a loved one changes us and causes us to reflect on the aging process and on our own mortality. The four seasons represent changes in the way we dress, act, recreate and celebrate. Our education represents personal growth and frequent changes in the way we think, what we know and how we view ourselves and the world. Without question, technology has brought change to our society, affecting how we do business, organize our professional and business lives and how we communicate around the corner and across the world. Indeed, a great philosopher once remarked that change was so much a part of life that if one were to go to the banks of a river and put his/her hand into it and then quickly pull it out, the very next second that he/she might again place his/her hand in the river, it would be a different river! It would seem, then, that our world, our universe, our very existence is about change.

Change creates different reactions in different persons. Some seek out change as a companion, seeing it as the basis for growth, self-improvement, excitement, challenge and promise. Others fear change as an enemy which brings insecurity, uncertainty, discomfort and lack of reliability. Most of us experience change on both levels, desiring it when it offers the hope of a better life, but shunning it when it brings us to a place where we would rather not be. The key, then, it would seem, is whether and how we accept change as an inevitable part of our existence, and whether and how we use it for the betterment of the human race.

Receiving one's yearbook is an exciting moment, particularly for members of the graduating class. All within it is a reminder of friendships which have been formed, successes which have been celebrated, love which has been nurtured, lessons which have been learned, challenges which have been met and hope which has been sparked! We are not the same persons we were one, two, three or four years ago! We have changed! West has changed! As we offer our congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 1999, we send them forth with the certain knowledge that because of the wonderful people they are and the wonderful work they will do, the world will be changed for the better!

Sometimes it’s the smallest decisions that can change your life forever.

Felicity in “Felicity” (1998)
1. Greg Gaul throws to make the play at first.
2. Snagging a grounder, Steve Czjaka prepares to get the runner out.
3. Nate Cretarolo gloves a line drive.
4. Steve Chojnacki pitches a fast one for the out.
If one had to summarize the 1998 West Baseball season in one word, it would be almost. The young team, comprised mostly of juniors, started very slowly, falling well below .500. However, the team went on a tear to reach the .500 mark and qualify for the state tournament. During this span of strong play, junior captains Dan Weist and Chris Estilow led the team to victories, including an upset over nationally ranked power Bishop Eustace. The team lost a number of one run games under first year coach Gary Sarno, finishing the season at 9-12. The young team shows promise for next year, sporting a roster of over eleven varsity letter winners.

7. Justin Boytim throws to get the runner out at third.
8. Dan Weist tosses one in during the pre-game warm up.
10. The 1998 JV BASEBALL TEAM: (Row 1) Ryan Hilyard, Russell Klein, Brandon Kaplan, Chris Parks. (Row 2) Tom Evans, Andrew Rosner, John McBride, Mike Salerno, Skylar Berman, Andrew Czerwinski. (Row 3) Coach Longmore, Sean Smith, Dan Mayo, Jason Speller, Adam Rosenzweig, Jason Rosner, Deanna Drumm (mgr.).
1. At bat, Katie Rodenbeck focuses on the pitch. 2. Hoping for a victory hit, Kelly Czajka swings. 3. Displaying her strength, Rachel Sukinik nails an incoming pitch. 4. Robin Schwartz brings in the winning run with a line drive.

The Lady Lions softball team ended the season with a 8-12 record. The young team was led by experienced seniors Jamie Elias, Kate Rodenbeck, Robin Schmidt and Joanne Horenstein. The '98 season was somewhat of a rebuilding year, as several freshmen players joined the Varsity team. However, they managed to pull together and stay strong in their competitive division.
1. Going for par, Zachary Masters makes an easy putt.
2. Josh Masters sinks another shot. 3. Yoon Hong drives the ball down the fairway. 4,5,6. Following through, Richard Bang's powerful swing gets him under par. 7. Greg Barone prepares himself for the next hole. 8. Studying the angles, Matt Maggio finds the right shot.
The 1998 Golf Team had a record of 6 wins and 10 losses this past season. The team traveled to local golf courses in order to practice for their weekly games. Three players were awarded Olympic Conference honors. They were Richard Bang, 1st Team, Matt Maggio, 2nd Team, and Yoon Hong, 2nd Team.
With Robin Schwartz as the new head coach, the Lady Lion Lacrosse team worked to improve its play. Despite the record, the team worked hard and showed improvement throughout the season. The team’s leading scorers were Joy Alexander and Marianna Zilberman. The team’s captains, Joy Alexander and Sarah Dunworth, worked hard to unite the team both on and off the field.
The Cherry Hill High School West Boys Tennis Team finished the season with a record of 23 wins and 6 losses. All of the singles players, Armand Bigornia, Erik Bigornia, and Vaisnur Phoueng earned All-Conference honors. The First Doubles team of Josh Leonard and Hitesh Panchal were selected to the highest honor possible, All South Jersey. The team captured its fourth straight Olympic Conference National Division Championship and capped off a stellar season by defeating Egg Harbor to win the South Jersey Group III State Title. Coach Dr. Walter Brown was selected as the South Jersey Coach of the Year. Dr. Brown has coached the boys’ team since 1992 and has a career record of 144 wins and 52 losses. Dr. Brown has been the girls’ team coach since 1988.

5.6.7. Displaying his skill, Armand Bigornia shows the sequence of a great hit. 8. Rajiv Desai plays with caution and intensity. 9. Patiently waiting, Vaisnar Phoeung anticipates for his opponent's next move.
1. Tyrone Tucker's flexibility pays off in the hurdles event to give him the lead. 2. Elias Nure's quick feet carry him to the finish line. 3. Gerry Sherlock is ready to fly high. 4. THE 1998 BOYS TRACK TEAM (Front Row) Phil Jacobs, Myong Lee, Chris Schencl, Gurvinder Mathan, Tom Johnson, Mike Lajkowski. (Second Row) David Benjamin, Steve Primiano, Alex Richardson, Dan Levy, Tom Beck, Elias Nure, Matt Norlund, Vitaly Aynbinder, Nick Tynus, Adam Melson, Simon Ayia, Albert Beringer, Sean Cunningham. (Third Row) Coach Field, Coach O'Donnell, Jose Santos, John Langshaw, Carlos Santos, Jason Jennings, Sean Schmelzer, Mike Englert, Tyrone Tucker, Ray Harris, Gerry Sherlock, Ken Pitter, Greg Barker, Jeremy Messier, Will Sleeth, Coach Mitidieri 5. West is always a step ahead of East. 6. Determined to beat the record, Albert Beringer uses all his strength in the javelin event. 7. Reaching back, Greg Barker uses all his might to throw the javelin. 8. Ryan Shofinsky outruns three East competitors.
1. Helen Romanos makes the discus look like an easy event. 2. Clearing the hurdle, Takika Mays moves onto the next. 3. Kylee Owings gets a running start into the sandpit. 4. The javelin event is no problem for Julie Schneider. 5. Running down the homestretch, Emily Naden sprints to the end to finish strong. 6. Two vs. two race down the track to the finish line. 7. Two West runners battle it out to do their best. 8. THE GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY TEAM: Front Row: Sylvia Agbottah, Helen Romanos, Sue Pang, Stephanie Hale, Leanne Nassi. Second Row: Julie Schneider, Rose Marie Nyugen, Christy Chaffin, Amy Gorman, Lauren Mozer, Kim Wolseon, Emily Naden. Third Row: Lisa DiPrisco, Caitlyn Fletcher, Kylee Owings, Coach Grossi. Coach Britton, Coach Kopmenhauer, Tara Kahn, Erica Cottrin, Joia Starks, Brooke Womack, Tamika Mays. 9. Sylvia Agbottah is caught in the middle. 10. Kim Wolseon and Caitlyn Fletcher sneak attack the Edgewood runner.
The '98 Lion Volleyball Team continued a tradition of excellence at West that has existed since volleyball's inception in southern New Jersey five years ago. Though it was made up of players with no prior varsity experience, the team posted a record of 10-8. It advanced to the second round of the state tournament, making this the fourth straight year that the team made it to at least the Sweet 16 of the State Team Championships. The Lions were led by seniors Adam Adler, Nuri Boardman, Phil Lee, Albert Truongcao, and an excellent supporting junior cast of Tony Lamond, Joe Lee, Kevin Lu, Matt Man, and Dave Young. In '99 the team looks to build on its newfound experience and knowledge to make a run at the Olympic American Title.
BOYS VOLLEYBALL

1. Kevin Lu positions himself to receive his opponent's serve.
2. With great form, Matt Man strikes to serve the opposition.
3. Wearing his game face, Dave Young passes the ball to the setter.
4. At the game's end, Nori Boardman powers an ace for the win.
5. Albert Truongco gets into excellent position to pass the ball to a teammate.
6. Tony Lamond spikes one down against hometown rivals Cherry Hill East.
8. During a pre-game warm up, May Lu demonstrates the proper spiking technique.
9. THE 1998 BOYS VOLLEYBALL TEAM: (Front Row) Joe Lee, Jeff Nghiem, Nori Boardman, Matt Man, Dan Truongco. (Second Row) Phil Lee, Albert Truongco, Tony Lamond, Adam Adler, Kevin Lu, Dave Young, Coach Sweeney.
THE GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY TEAM:
2. Running down the trail, April Fox works to keep her lead. 3. Chrisay Chattin and Kim Wolozon stretch before the big meet.
4. Keeping a good pace, Kim Hi stadium finishes the race strong. 5. Caitlyn Fletcher and Jessica Lind make their way through the course, on their way to the finish line.
Cross Country was a dominant force for Cherry Hill High School West as the team roared to a 9-1 season with individual highs from most of the squad. Coach Nick Mitidieri was a commanding presence leading the West runners to another powerful season. The Varsity Team was in fine form with team captains Mike Englert and Mike Lajkovicz. Varsity was also aided by Phil Jaques, Gurvinder Mathozen, Greg Russo, Dan Levy, and rising star Jason Jennings. The Girl's Cross Country Team experienced another season of improvement as Coach Joe O'Donnell led the ladies to numerous victories. The small team was commanded by the powerhouse lineup of Kim Wolozen, Chrissy Chaitin, Jessica Lind, Leanna Nasti, Caitlyn Fletcher, Sylvia Agbotta, and Kim Heistand.

Coach Thompson and Coach Schwartz took the Lady Lion Field Hockey Team to a new level this season. Unfortunately, their record did not show it. With the varsity team made up of mostly seniors, the coaches had their work cut out for them. The team participated in the Alzheimer's Foundation's Memory Walk and raised $2,000 for the Foundation. Co-captains Carolyn Peluso and Amanda Sargent led the team with their enthusiasm, trying to push the team to do their best. Seniors Amanda Sargent and Kim Stout and Junior Rachel Sukinin earned First Team All-Conference honors.
1. Kim Stout fakes out her defender and moves down the field.
1. Dan DiGirolamo breaks through his opponent's defense. 2. Aaron Brand fools the opposing players by using good footwork. 3. After a great save, Steve Czajka looks for an open teammate down the field. 4. Pat Welding sprints in front of his defender to receive a pass. 5. THE BOYS VARSITY SOCCER TEAM: (Front Row) Greg Gaul, Greg Muscelli, John Watson, Dan Mayo, Matt Marinzoli, Dan DiGirolamo, Zac Semar. (Second Row) Jon Cohen, Troy Kaplan, Dave Gerven, Aaron Brand, Michael Chapman, Scott Chick, Marc DeWolf. West was honored and made proud by the bold and dashing heroics of the growling football team. The chill of Thanksgiving morning was scorched by a heated performance as West crushed East. The arm of Albert Beringer and the speed of Thomas Johnson and Ken Pitter brought the ball down the field with grace and style. Destroying anything and anyone in their paths were the human walls, Chris Estilow, Anthony Brocco, and Anthony Capaldi. Overall, this year was a promising tackle in the right direction as West football showed that pure drive and commitment led to victory.

This year's Bowling Team had a successful season. The Girl's Team compiled 45 wins against 11 losses and finished at second place in the Olympic Division. Seniors Dorian Genzano, Amanda Quinn and Emily Lampa led the team along with freshman Chrissy Groh. The Boys Team finished the season in third place led by seniors Joe Halloran, Captain John Hainsworth and Rich Zagar. The Varsity Squad was completed by sophomore Matt Solomon and Freshman Craig Stradtler. Olympic All-Stars were John Hainsworth and Rich Zagar. Cherry Hill West was proud to have five All-Stars of the fourteen selected from eight school districts.
The '99 Lady Lion Swimming & Diving Team completed a fifth straight winning season with a 7-4 mark in the toughest girls' swimming conference in New Jersey, the South Jersey Swim League. The team even flexed a little muscle in Pennsylvania with a win over William Tennent High School in Warminster. The team was lead by senior captains Jessie Crick, Lauren Mercincavage, Kate Patrizzi, and junior captain Katie Kopil. Kopil and Patrizzi dazzled the field at the Individual State Championships with Jen Mitchell, Laura Barone, Kate Meyers, and Marisa Rolish. At the conclusion of the season, the team found itself ranked in the top ten in the state by the Newark Star-Ledger for the third year in a row and ranked nationally by the National Interscholastic Swim Coaches Association.
After a few years of declining status, the 1999 Boys Swimming & Diving Team had a very successful year, concluding the season with an Ocean Division Conference Title and a record of 12-3. With the addition of numerous freshmen, the team continues to grow in size and talent. The team was led by captains David Lind, Brad Flynn, and Matt McElroy who provided leadership and the basis for a strong, confident team. Other standouts included freshmen Andrew Patrizzi and Colin O'Neill, sophomore Steve Back, and junior divers Jon Jennings and Tom Ward. A team based on tradition, the boys traveled to Taco Bell after each meet for Mexican food, team bonding and celebration. With six participants at the Individual State Championships and a final team record of 13-3, festivities were truly deserved. And you said, "When pigs fly!"

After a lack of interest in the '95-'96 season, an ice hockey team finally formed this past summer. About thirty or so players tried out, forming a varsity squad and JV squad. Considering more than half the players had never played organized hockey, not much was expected of the two teams. The season got off to a slow start, but it ended on a high note, showing much promise for next year. The varsity season ended with a 5-2 win over division rival Holy Cross, and JV ended its season with a nail-biting 3-2 win over Cherokee.

Vocal Workshop is an entry level group for men and women who enjoy singing for social as well as aesthetic reasons. Students learn the fundamentals of music through studies of sight singing, ear-training and music theory. Vocal Workshop performs at concerts in and outside of school.
Concert Choir is one of the premier choral performing organizations at West. The group consists of students who have successfully auditioned for Concert Choir and enrolled in the course as a major subject which meets everyday. The group's purpose is to develop each singer's vocal abilities to the fullest potential and to perform in numerous concerts throughout the year. Concert Choir participates in productions such as the winter and spring concerts as well as Broadway Night.
West Singers

A balanced group of men and women with the most highly developed voices, West Singers is an audition group which performs extensively at concerts in and outside of school. This year, the West Singers traveled to Chicago to perform at the American Choral Directors Association Festival where they sang for five thousand choral directors and composers. Participation in this prestigious concert series was awarded to our West Singers making them one of the top three mixed high school choirs in the nation.
Men of Note is an extracurricular group of 11 male musicians who meet once a week to rehearse for school concerts and special engagements. The auditioned members of Men of Note are upperclassmen who have the most developed voices. Men of Note performs a variety of musical pieces to which they add their own comic humor and suave style, two signature traits for which they are very popular with audiences.

Consisting of 11 female voices, Fermata is another small ensemble within the Cherry Hill West Vocal Music Program. Its members are admitted on the basis of an audition and the group meets weekly after school. Fermata is a colorful ensemble of voices that has sung everything from “The Rose,” a slow ballad made famous by Bette Midler, to “Cruella De Vil”, a popular Disney show tune.
The Cherry Hill West Chamber Singers is a group of talented vocal musicians who perform various types of madrigal and chamber music arranged for a small sized ensemble. Composed of about twenty individuals, the group meets once a week after school for rehearsals. Besides performing in the annual winter and spring concerts, the Chamber Singers also sing at Café Lambert's and at The Mason in Voorhees on weekends during the holiday season.

With about 30 members, the String Ensemble continues to grow and expand in number and talent. The group, which meets daily as a class, is composed of musicians who perform on all forms of string instruments. This year, two students were selected for the All State Orchestra and junior Greg DeTurk earned a position as First Chair of the viola section in the All Eastern Orchestra. Under the direction of Mrs. Bridget Kasiunas, the String Ensemble participated in the winter and spring instrumental concert as well as a Chamber Music Concert in February.

The Full Orchestra is a combination of musicians from the String Ensemble, the Symphonic Band and the Wind Ensemble. Each student brought aspects from these groups to form a greater whole. The Full Orchestra closed the winter and spring instrumental concerts with it's symphonic pieces arranged for wind, string and percussion instruments.
Pit Orchestra

The Pit Orchestra is a group of musicians who provided the accompaniment to West’s spring musical, Fiddler of the Roof. This year, under the direction of Ms. Jules Haran, the pit orchestra included about 25 members. Besides the countless hours of rehearsal and late nights as production week approached, the pit orchestra also played throughout each of the seven nights of performance, making this a group of truly dedicated and talented musicians.

Once more for Broadway Night 1998, the brilliant voices of West choral music students filled the auditorium. Three evenings of Broadway selections were presented to sold out audiences after months of preparations and rehearsals. Featuring medleys from The Wizard of Oz, The Wiz, An Officer and a Gentleman, Forrest Gump and other popular musicals and movies, music students captivated the audience with their energy and enthusiasm. Other artistic elements were provided by the Broadway Night Dancers, a live band and theatrical skits that were interspersed throughout the evening. Through the years, Broadway Night has become more elaborate and popular. In 1998 as the three hundred some vocal music students took the stage, they once again lived up to their stellar reputation.
This One's For You,

To many people she is thought of as so many different things, a teacher, a director, a mentor, and a friend. She has brought out the best in many, many high school actors. Miss M. loves what she does, and that is why she does it so well... believe it when we say, “The West Stage Will Miss You!” Miss M. is our special rain-shower. She helps her students grow and makes them blossom. Summer rain-showers, however, have to end sometimes, but they always come back. Surely, Miss M. has touched all of us, and her powerful influence and great heart will always be with West theatre. - Annie Potter - Miss M has the passion for theatre and life unsurpassed by any other person I know. Miss McMenamin...

Celeste McMenamin, known to all her students as Miss M, is one of the most conscientious and dedicated of West’s many teachers. Miss M worked briefly as a legal secretary before coming to West as an English teacher twenty-three years ago. Since then she has taught all levels of English courses and tried to touch each of her students on some way and has directed many successful West musicals. Among the myriad of adjectives students and staff used to describe Miss M. are honest, articulate, dramatic, funny, friendly, and sincere. Miss M loves the Jersey shore, her mom, and, of course, her students. She also enjoys the opera, ballet, and theater and is an expert at Jeopardy. The whole West family owes much to Miss M’s caring and hard work.

Miss M was my first journalism teacher. She taught me that a reporter should write well, present all sides of a story and search out the truth. She showed me how satisfying it is to shape a piece and then see it in print, with your name above the facts. And she showed me that the most important thing is to have fun. As an anchor and reporter for Fox News, based first in New York and now London, I love going to work every day. If I hadn’t signed up for Miss M’s journalism class, I’d probably be a dentist right now, looking in people’s mouths…not that dental hygiene isn’t very important. Thank you Celeste.

Love,
Rick Folbaum, Reporter for Fox News
Class of ’87

Thanks for the memories and keep up the good work!
1. Adam Halpin stands for his show-stopping solo. 2. Using a broom as a prospective husband, Tzeitel (Melissa Tomssettii) enlightens her whimsical sisters on the risks and dangers of matchmaking. 3. Yente, the matchmaker (Mary Marettii) humors the audience. 4. After receiving Tevye’s blessing, Motel (Greg DeTurck) and Tzeitel fulfill their life-long wish of marriage.
5. Lazar Wolf (Larry Zoll) and Tevye (Jeremy Levy) toast "to life" and to their prosperous futures. 6. After confirming their mutual affection for one another, Perchik (Garrett Miller) and Hodel (Lindsay Lipsman) "now have everything." 7. Tevye offers Perchik a piece of challah before the Sabbath. 8. Whilst dreaming of wealth and good fortune, Tevye wonders what life would be like "if he were a rich man." 9. Gathering together, the townspeople enjoy a free drink while they celebrate Tevye's good fortune.
1. Tseye enlightens his fellow townsfolk with his creative interpretations of the Good Book. 2. Tseye and Golde (Meara Lebowitz) wonder where all the "sunrises" and "sunsets" have gone as they watch their oldest daughter get married. 3. Movel reassures Tzeitel that their fated union will be the "miracle of miracles." 4. At the climax of the festivities, the townsfolk energetically dance in a circle around Lazar Wolf. 5. In an impressive exhibition of talent and skill, the drunken townsfolk balance wine bottles on their heads.

Performing Arts
6. Torn between her emotions and her heritage, Chava (Gina Gallanda) considers accepting a book from Fyedka (Tony Lamond). 7. Tevye looks fondly upon his daughter as she prepares to travel “far from the home she loves.” 8. The Rabbi (Justin Hulbert) blesses Motel’s new sewing machine.

Ten talented boys walked onto the West stage one November night, but only one would walk away... a celebrated man. Only one would experience the exhilarating feeling of supreme virility and glory; only one would carry on the legacy of West's most venerated title -- Mr. West.

Ten talented boys -- a couple of singers, a dancer, a bicycle stuntman, and an overly vivacious fitness trainer -- strutted their stuff in casual wear, swimwear, and formal wear.

Five finalists each were asked a question about life, death, and everything else in between. An air of stifling anticipation permeated the auditorium as the judges proceeded to select the winner. The man who was "born to be wild," Jeremy Levy, proudly walked away with purple cape and golden crown.
"Who's going to win? We're going to win!" Exclamations of school spirit rang out from every corner of the gym during the pre-Homecoming pep rally. This year, football captains assured the student body through emotional pep chants, West would exit the field victorious! Enthusiastic students cheered for their classmates in the lemonade and pie competition. Complete with band performance and spirited cheerleading dance, the pep rally peaked at its climax. After much anticipation and excitement, the new Homecoming Queen was announced. Congratulations... Homecoming Queen 1998, Christina Lamond!

GAME BEGIN!
OVER COUGARS: 21-7

CHANGE

21-7! This cold, rainy Thanksgiving morning, students and alumni of West gathered together to witness the annual Homecoming football battle against arch rival East. 21-7! Equipped with spirit and vigor, the team skillfully attacked its opponents. Senior Ken Pitter scored all three touchdowns to be named player of the game. 21-7! The magical numbers danced about on the scoreboard as avid fans cheered for their glorious football team. Swelling with pride, West-siders walked away victorious, 21-7.
When in the scalding heat of summer,
This foundation was first laid.
One brick slept here
North yonder tree—
In scalding heat
And summer shade.

And in the breezy brisk of autumn,
This scaffold stood here tall.
Stretched its arms
Beyond the tree—
In breezy brisk
Of passing fall.

Then in the freezing chill of winter,
This monument cranked into gear.
Three walls intact
Above the tree—
In freezing chill
Of ending year.
What better way is there to express talent and establish individualism than to perform the skill on stage, on a night devoted to the many diversified talents of West’s students? On February 5th, cultured citizens came from miles around to experience an exciting celebration of the performing arts. From tap dancing to Arabian dancing to "80's" dancing, from heavy metal to folk rock to disco fever — the 1999 Talent Show featured eighteen of West's most talented acts.

First Place Winners:
2) Vocal: Bernadette DeSimone and Adam Halpin.
3) Variety: Jonathan Cohen, Alex Sardos, Laura Neckowitz, Daron Klarman.
4) Dance: Garrett Miller and Sarah Tuleya.
Varying Interests
The Student Government Organization members sold daffodils for the American Cancer Society, registered and encouraged volunteers for the school blood drive, and participated in a F.O.P. party for mentally challenged individuals.
Keeping African American heritage appreciated at West, the African American Culture Club was instrumental during February's Black History Month. Activities included attending a play in New York City.

The Asian Culture Club promoted pride in West's Asian community. Members span from Korea to India. The main events included a bowling night and a Chinese New Year celebration.

Late into the night,
In the depths of distant A-Wing,
Rampant yearbook staff members
Diligently slaved away at their pages.

And although they did not Always complete their layouts on time,
They always strove for perfection.

With the aid of a cropper
And some photographs
(And sometimes a little pizza),
Committed students worked hard
To mold and capture
Memories of an unforgettable year—
From blank layout pages
To Leaves of Change.
AIDS AWARENESS

This debilitating sickness affects over a million people in the world. AIDS Awareness taught students about its causes. Members participated and raised money for the AIDS Walk and various thrift stores.

After four long years of high school, the best way to let loose is to have a great celebration. That's what Project Graduation planned: a drug-free night at the JCC.
Legality and theatrics combined this year as the Mock Trial Team submerged itself in the everyday occurrences of the courtroom.

Words are what they live for and oration is what keeps them alive. Whether it was reciting original poetry or presenting a dialogue, the Forensics team always spoke its mind.
Bishop, knight, checkmate— it's all Greek to us. But to the Chess Team, it's everyday jargon. The team refined its skills and enjoyed one of the most thought provoking past times.

Renaissance honored students who achieved high grades and maintained clean disciplinary records. The members sold wrapped candies to ensure that future classes will benefit from this rewarding program.
The Advanced Technology Club opened West's eyes to the machinery which is changing the shape not only of the future, but also of the present.

Science Club members proved to be busier than ever this year. Among their many competitions were tests with density, constructions of bridges out of straws, and egg dropping from the breezeway.
They put in at least 2 hours of hard physical work everyday after school and make Cherry Hill proud. These Varsity athletes were involved in the Special Olympics, offering their assistance and time to those who are pursuing the same dreams as they: to play hard!

Students involved in the Principal's Advisory Council engaged in thoughtful and interesting conversation with Mr. Lorenzetti as they voiced the opinions of the student body.
New Jersey's 781st Air Force Junior ROTC discovered first-hand what the Air Force was really like. They took part in boot camp and visited McGuire Air Force Base.

A New Leaf
In 1989 at Kingston Elementary School, the students of Ms. Powell's 3rd grade class gathered for their class picture. Nine years ago, they weren't even thinking about proms, drivers' licenses, and late nights of homework. The times have changed. Now they are preparing to for their future and leaving high school behind. Look back and see how they have changed.

I wanted a perfect ending. Now I've learned, the hard way, that some poems don't rhyme, and some stories don't have a clear beginning, middle, and end. Life is about not knowing, having to change, taking the moment and making the best of it, without knowing what's going to happen next.

Delicious Ambiguity.

- Gilda Radner
Action and reaction,
ebb and flow,
trial and error,
change—this is the rhythm of living.
Out of our over-confidence, fear;
out of our fear, clearer vision, fresh hope.
And out of hope, progress.

Things do not change, we do.

- Henry David Thoreau
People who soar are those who refuse to sit back, sigh and wish things would change. They neither complain of their lot nor passively dream of some distant ship coming in. Rather, they visualize in their minds that they are not quitters; they will not allow life's circumstances to push them down and hold them under. The remarkable thing we have is a choice every day regarding the attitude we will embrace for that day. We cannot change our past... We cannot change the fact that people will act in a certain way. We cannot change the inevitable. The only thing we can do is play on the one string we have, and that is our attitude. I cannot even imagine where I would be today were it not for that handful of friends who have given me a heart full of joy. Let's face it, friends make life a lot more fun.

Summer Scholars
While most of us were vacationing, some students gained knowledge and had experiences that were very special. Boys’ State, Girls’ State, Governor’s School, Rotary Youth Leadership, Citizenship, and New Jersey’s Scholar Program were selective programs for students throughout New Jersey. The programs were held at different college campuses in the state of New Jersey. Boys’ and Girls’ State involved the participants in simulations of local, county, and state governments. Activities also included trips to sites of government and visits by dignitaries including Governor Christine Todd Whitman. Rotary Youth’s goal was to establish leadership skills but also included activities on the Government. Each Governor’s School had a specialized area of interest including music, dance, public issues, and science. We are certain that all of our summer scholars contributed to their programs and continued West’s fine reputation throughout the state.
The National Honor Society officers, elected by their fellow classmates in NHS, became involved in select activities during the 1998-99 school year. All officers were responsible for initiating and implementing a weekly tutoring session after school. All NHS members were encouraged to participate in tutoring students in all subjects. In addition, NHS officers printed monthly activity announcements and bulletins as a favor for some school-sponsored newspaper group. The officers planned and eventually carried out a fund-raiser activity, which consisted of purchasing and delivering Mother’s Day breakfasts all over the city. The large sum of money was donated to Heart of Camden. Officers also organized a day of service at Heart of Camden, of which all NHS members were invited to take part in. Finally, the NHS officers assumed a major role in organizing the NHS induction ceremony for incoming members.

This year’s current officers: Victor Limjoco, Reena Desai, Sarah Gutin, and Aaron Wagner, along with the ex-officio and distinguished advisor, Mr. Munday, have fought, scratched, and clawed their way to a productive year of service. Battling against obstacles such as departure of Ms. Free as advisor and the elimination of homeroom period the big five paved the way for next year’s crew. Now NHS has something to build upon.

Turn to me, Cinnamon Girl, when the winds
Of ignorance threaten to blow out the candles of Your dreams. For I am the torch of the ages,
And you should turn strong, but only with me as your Flame. I am the pillar of your strength
And I have carried you far. For without me,
You could not be, and without your deep love, respect
And integrity, my beautiful African Queen,
I could not be.
May the road rise up to meet you
May the wind always be at your back
May the sunshine be warm on your face
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

Love Always,
Missy and Lara

Shanna Graham

Shanna,
Just as there is no way to measure all the happiness you have given us, there are no words to tell you how special you are and how very much you are loved. You are such a loving daughter and you bring us so much joy and fulfillment to our life. You have a beautiful way of bringing out the best in others. Even as a child, you had that certain way about you that always made everyone smile. Right from the start, you’ve been a wonderful daughter...and it’s been such a joy watching you mature, seeing you become that wonderful person you are.
You don’t hear it often enough, because it’s hard to find words to tell you that you really are a dream come true, a special treasure and a source of pride. You’re loved more than you could ever imagine.

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

The first time you were ever in a show,
we knew,
We watched you sparkle and shine, and as you grew
You became a confident and superb performer, and did it all with style.
You've brought tears to our eyes and our mouths always have a smile.
We're so proud of where you've gone and where you'll be someday.
Your loving and proud family will be sitting in the front row
When you become a famous star on broadway!!!!

With all the beautiful and sweet memories of yesterday, we relish the happiness you're giving us today, and look forward to the success and accomplishments of a wonderful tomorrow. We'll always be behind you, supporting you and loving you !!!

Your phenomenal intelligence always leads you to think so deeply about things.
Your many interests keep you constantly occupied.
Your positive outlook gives you the energy to accomplish great things.
Your determination gives you the ability to succeed in meeting your goals.
Your excitement with whatever you do causes you to always have fun.
Your sense of humor allows you to make mistakes and learn from them.
Your confidence allows you to take risks and not to be afraid of failure.
You have made us very proud of you.

Love to our special angel,
Mommy and Daddy
Jodi and Scott Sheppard

It seems like just yesterday our wonderful set of twins were born. And now you are eighteen. You have given us joys in so many ways. We are very proud, and will always be there for both of you. As you leave West and start your new future, we wish you much success and happiness.

May all your dreams come true.

Love,
Mom and Dad
Dear Jacqueline,
Congratulations and Best Wishes in your future years. Follow your dreams and you can be anything that you set your mind to. We know you'll be a #1 nurse. We are very proud of you and we love you very much!
