Cherry Hill Public Library Resources for the LGBTQ Community and Allies

<https://chplnj.org/LGBTQresources>

“Libraries are for everyone! Cherry Hill Public Library is committed to ensuring that our library is a welcoming space for members of the LGBTQ community, their families, and allies. We also strive to have a broad range of programs and materials that meet the informational needs of LGBTQ patrons, as well as educate our entire community.”

Center for Positive Aging - Resources for Older LGBT Persons

<http://www.centerforpositiveaging.org/lgbt.html>

- Based in Atlanta, but provides national resources

“The Center for Positive Aging has compiled a resource list of valuable website links we hope will provide lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) older adults and their families with the knowledge needed to help navigate the maze of LGBT information available today. We hope that this information will help interested individuals find community products and services needed to assist in successful aging. Please note that this resource list is meant only for information purposes and it is not exhaustive or all-inclusive.”

Diverse Elders Coalition

<https://www.diverseelders.org/who-we-are/diverse-elders/lgbt-elders/>

<http://www.facebook.com/DiverseElders>

Phone: 646-653-5015

Email: info@diverseelders.org

“The Diverse Elders Coalition (DEC) advocates for policies and programs that improve aging in our communities as racially and ethnically diverse people; American Indians and Alaska Natives; and lesbian, gay, bisexual and/or transgender people.

Together, we are made up of five national organizations representing a growing majority of millions of older people throughout the country: American Indian and Alaska Native Elders; Asian American, Pacific Islander, and Native Hawaiian older adults; Black and African American older adults; Hispanic and Latinx older adults; and lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) older adults. We have come together to promote policy changes and programmatic solutions that respond to this demographic shift and will remove the barriers facing our communities. We envision a world where all older adults can live full and active lives as they age.”

Griot Circle

<https://griotcircle.org/>

<https://www.facebook.com/griotcircleinc>
