BOOKPLATES AT CHPL

Recognize a birthday, anniversary or happy event; commemorate someone special. Donating a book in someone's name is a meaningful way to mark a special occasion or to honor a special person, while showing support for your Library.

Your donation will purchase a book for the Library's collection, with the honoree's name or celebration, and your name on a bookplate in the front of the book.

When possible, the interests of your loved one will be reflected in the subject matter purchased. We will send your honoree or their family a card acknowledging your thoughtful gesture.
